LETTERS TO THE EDITOR.

SIR,—The electors of Wards Two and Three cannot but remember the unprincipled conduct of Councillors Davy and Douse in insulting the Catholic electors of both these wards. As many of your readers are aware, only one Roman Catholic occupies a seat at the Civic Board. This gentleman, Mr. John Kelly, at the solicitation of a large number of the electors of Ward Two, reluctantly consented to again offer as a candidate at the election to be held on Wednesday next. It was generally understood that no opposition would be offered to Mr. Kelly; but at the last moment on nomination day, a person was found to oppose him, who had not the remotest chance of being elected, and of which fact he must now be well aware. The parties said to be instrumental in bringing out this opposition to Mr. Kelly, are Councillors Davy and Douse, who are both attempting to play a double game in the matter. No doubt when the time arrives these two gentlemen will be relegated to their proper spheres.

Yours &c.

TAXPAYER.

Jan. 22, 1886.

SIR,—In your issue of the 22nd inst., "Ward Four" lets the secret out. When we went into Confederation it was the Union Bank money that finally settled our doom. Now it is to be the Insurance Companies that are going to force Waterworks and Sewerage on us. For the present, by all means let us have Waterworks without Sewerage. The John Lewis party have always been against the wishes of the small property holders, and for the rich and those who want to get rich at any cost.

One would think, from the speech of Mr. Charles Palmer, late President of the Y. M. C. A., in the Market Hall, that he strongly approved of a committee that could get votes at any price during an election. This, I think, is a sad mistake for a gentleman of his standing, and also sets a bad example. I always like to keep clear of such company.

Yours,

A SMALL TAXPAYER, WARD 4.

The Nervy C. P. R.

The Toronto Globe's London correspondent says:—Yesterday, in the course of conversation arising from enquiries as to the result of his visit, Mr. Stephen touched upon several points likely to be of interest to your readers. Speaking first of the outlook here as regards C. P. R. matters, Mr. Stephen claimed that the recent improvement in C. P. R. shares spoke for itself as an indication of the growing recognition of the earning powers of the line. The advance, moreover, had not been limited merely to Canada Pacific Railway shares and bonds, but had also extended to the C. O. leased lines such as the New Brunswick road, whilst as for the Ontario and Quebec bonds, which were refused a quotation a short time since, English buyers were struggling now to get them at par. The change in the tone of the market, Mr. Stephen added, was in itself a justification of the policy adopted of building the line as quickly as possible. If the work had been spread over the ten years allowed, so long a period would have elapsed that even the most sanguine believers in its future would have been discouraged. As it was, the tide had turned, and Mr. Stephen added, "the improvement will continue." The surprise felt at the rapid construction of the line would be exceeded by the surprise created by the rapid growth of the company's earning power. His own estimate of the net income for the current year had already been exceeded by some £150,000. As to relations with the Grand Trunk, Mr. Stephen asserted that the desire of Sir Henry Tyler and the Grand Trunk Board was to work as amicably as possible with the C. P. R. Asked as to the progress of the arrangements in regard to the proposed line of steamers on the Pacific from British Columbia, Mr. Stephen's reply was that all that could be said at present was that the matter was still under discussion. But he added that the task undertaken by the C. P. R. would not be complete till a through service via the Canadian route from Liverpool to Hong Kong is established, with a steamship service across the Atlantic equal to that from the Mersey to New York.

The army authorities are just now ordering very largely of Staffordshire manufacturers. Whether the goods are needed for the new expedition to the Sudan is not clear. The triplicate workers and saddlery and harness makers are mainly called upon. Cavalry and Infantry mess tins are required for the extent of considerably over 100,000. Baking dishes also figure largely. Recently inquiries were received for over 18,000 leather straps, 16,000 pairs spurs, 10,000 stirrups and rein chains, and heavy quantities of harness.

Savings banks are comparatively modern institutions, dating back from 1817, and originating in England. In fifteen European countries with a present population of 192,000,000, the depositors in 1874, fifty-seven years from the beginning, were 12,000,000, with deposits amounting to $1,440,000,000. The progress made since 1874 is astonishing. Within the next four years the depositors had increased to 16,000,000, and the sum of savings had become $1,880,000,000.

The State of Texas is so cosmopolitan that the Governor's message is printed in four languages. English, German and Bohemians make up the population. State laws are printed in four languages, in about this ratio: 30,000 copies in English, 16,000 copies in German, 5,000 each in Spanish and Bohemian. Hence four tongues are legally recognized.

The Nebraska "sleeping beauty," Miss Minnie Diehner, who had been for seventy days in a trance, returned to life on Sunday, January 3rd. Her arms and legs are paralysed, but otherwise she is none the worse of her experience. She was conscious during the trance but could not move. She suffered agonies of physical pain. The doctors say she will recover.

THE NEWS OF THE DAY.

Carefully Collected by "The Examiner's" Reporters.

Thirty-one of Iowa's ninety-nine counties are named after American statesmen.

A number of Japanese young ladies will shortly leave for Europe to be educated.

Several leading dailies are discussing the twenty-four o'clock system of keeping time.

The University of Heidelberg will celebrate the fifth centenary of its existence next summer.

The value of the total petroleum yield of the United States for the year 1884 was $20,476,294.

"This is my golden wedding," remarked an impetuous man when he married a woman worth $50,000.

The exportation of silver coin and bullion from the United States during the last fiscal year, aggregated $336,753,633.

Hamilton, Ontario, 5 per cent. debentures sold for 10 1/2, the City Clerk giving only one day's notice of the sale.

Success don't consist in never making blunders, but in never making the same one the second time.—Josh Billings.

James A. Froude is preparing a new book, which will treat of the expansion of England and imperial federation.

Lieut. Greely believes that there is an ocean 1500 miles in diameter round about the North Pole, that never freezes.

Dechlorite, or vandate of lead and zinc, has been discovered in Montana. Ore of this nature is worth $10,000 a pound.

Tests have proved that one pound of powder in small blasts will loosen about 4 1/2 tons of rock, and in large blasts about 2 1/2.

The Earl of Carnarvon will return to Ireland and resume his duties of the viceroyship temporarily. He will hold a farewell levee on the 25th inst.

A national thanksgiving day is now talk of, to be observed Oct. 12, the day on which Columbus first sighted the New World, in which all America could join.

There were sixteen fire-damp explosions in English collieries during 1885, with a loss of 322 lives, the largest total since 1883. Three of these explosions destroyed 300 lives.

W. S. Gilbert is now in Egypt preparing a libretto for a new opera on an Egyptian subject. Sir Arthur Sullivan visited the same country some months ago to gather ideas of the music.

Many prominent sheep raisers in Tennessee have resolved to abandon the business, owing to the want of dog law, asserting that 300,000 sheep cannot be maintained against 500,000 dogs.

Three years from now, according to the London Truth, England expects to have finished the strongest war ship in the world. She has already been three years building, and was recently launched at Portsmouth.

A statue of Queen Victoria, by the Princess Louise, has been placed in the front of Lichfield Cathedral. Her son, the Duke of Edinburgh, recently gave a violin performance at a public concert in London.

Mr. John Bright declines to join the Radicals in the matter of Church disestablishment, although he believes that churches flourish better where there is disestablishment, as in Canada and in the United States.

It is stated that the British Government will at the earliest moment introduce a bill in Parliament making boycotting a felony, enlarging the magistrate's power of summary jurisdiction, and otherwise strengthening the criminal law.

A couple were married by a California judge on Christmas Day, and in gratitude the bride presented him with a mammoth strawberry three inches long, two and seven eighth inches wide, and three and three quarter inches in circumference.

For the first time since 1843 the output of coal from the mines in the North of France shows a decrease, the total for 1884 having been 9,430,000 tons as against 10,650,000 tons in 1883, this being equivalent to a diminution of rather more than 6 per cent.

As a result of the publication of the tailors dead-beat list at Toronto, it is said many overdue accounts have been paid. Several fathers have come forward to pay off their sons' scores, and quite a few orders have been refused from local duels, hitherto held to be of fair credit.

Mexico is said to possess only about 100 factories of all kinds, owing to the paucity of water and the high cost of fuel. These factories employ about 13,000 hands, and those devoted to weaving contain 9,500 looms and 250,000 spindles. The largest cotton mill is at Queretaro, employs 1,400 hands, and manufactures the unbleached cloth worn by all Indians.

The Nebraska "sleeping beauty," Miss Minnie Diehner, who had been for seventy days in a trance, returned to life on Sunday, January 3rd. Her arms and legs are paralysed, but otherwise she is none the worse of her experience. She was conscious during the trance but could not move. She suffered agonies of physical pain.
