Patterson - MacPhail Nuptials

WOLFVILLE, N. S. Aug. 23—A wedding of interest took place friends in the Maritimes took place Aug. 17 at the home of the bride, when Miss Frances Marion Patterson, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. F. W. Patterson, was united in marriage to Moray St. John MacPhail, son of Colonel and Mrs. Alexander Macphail Kingston, Ont. The ceremony was performed by Dr. F. H. Eaton, assisted by the bride's father.

Miss Enid Patterson, sister of the bride, played the wedding march, and during the signing of the register Mrs. J. I. Mosher of Wolfville sang a translation of Liszt's "Es Muss Ein Wunderbaren Sein."

Baskets of Madonna lilies and creamy yellow gladioli were massed against the pillars in the hallway, where the ceremony took place. and bouquets were attractively arranged for decorations in the drawingrooms.

The bride made a lovely picture in her wedding gown of white lace, princess lines, with long tight sleeves. Her veil was caught in a coronet of pearls and orange blossoms. She carried a bouquet of lillies of the Valley and Madame Butterfuly roses. Miss Shirley Elliot was maid of honor and wore a jacket frock tutquoise chiffon and carried a sheaf of coral gladioli. Sidney P. Wheelock, Ottawa, was best man.

Mrs. Patterson, the brides mother, wore aquamarine chiffon with corsage of pale pink sweetpeas. Mrs. Macphail, mother of the groom, chose flowered chiffon and wore a corsage of pink roses.

In the diningroom, where Mrs. M. E. McCausland, Oxford, aunt of the bride, and Mrs. Lionel Lindsay, Montreal, cousin of the groom. presided, the decorations were pink sweetpeas with baby's breath and tall white tapers.

Those assisting in the serving were Mrs. M. H. Mason, Providence, R. I., Miss Enid and Miss Jocelyn Patterson sisters of the bride, Mrs. O. R. Porter and the Misses Helen Perry, Frances Roach, Elizabeth deWitt, Charlotte Coombs, Hilda Peck, Margaret Fullerton and Barbara Eaton.

Traveling, the bride wore a suit of hunter's green wool with matching topcoat and accessories to correspond.

The bride and groom left on a motor tour of the Maritime Provinces, after which they will make their home in Wolfville, where Mr. Macphail is on the staff of the department of mathematics of Acadia University.

Out-of-town guests included Col. and Mrs. Alexander Macphail, Kingston; Mrs. Lionel Lindsay, Montreal; Mrs. M. E. McCausland, Oxford; S. P. Wheelock, Ottawa; Mrs. Mildred Rickman, London, England; Dr. and Mrs. A. N. Marshall, Clarence; Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Dawson, Paradise, and Miss Jean Shand, Windsor.

Mr. R. J. McIntyre of Providence, R. I. spent a pleasant week at his former home Selkirk. He attended the first High Mass of Rev. Hugh McPhee S. J. last Sunday in St Margaret's and later visited Mr. and Mrs Urban Gillis in their charming cottage at Ives' Point.

In Memoriam

The late Mrs. Kenneth McLean who passed away Aug. 9th was formerly of Alberry Plains P. E. I. and with her husband resided in Charlottetown for the past five years with their daughter Mrs. George Rice and family Highland Ave. Death summonded her calm and peacefully to the Great Beyond after a short illness of ten days at the age of eighty years.

Her maiden name was Catherine Martin, daughter of the late Samuel and Sarah Campbell Martin, Uigg, Prince Edward Island, and leaves to mourn the loss of a devoted wife and mother, her husband, four daughters and three sons. Mrs. Alexander Matheson and Mrs. O. R. Ellis of Vancouver B. C.; Mrs. Thomas McLean, Alberry Plains, Mrs. George Rice, Charlottetown; Donald B. Stoneham, Mass. Malcom, Alberry Plains and Clarence of Orwell, P. E. I.

Two sons and two daughters predeceased her some years ago.

There are also left to mourn a loving sister, John S. Martin, Uigg Rev. Malcom C. Martin, Seaside, Oregon; Mrs. Emily Beer, Medford, Mass; Mrs. Sarah McKenzie, Hunter River, and a large number of grandchildren, one of them Miss Florence Matheson of Vancouver C. P. R. Telegraph Exchange, visited her grandparents a few weeks ago. Sadie, Mrs. Matheson, was with her mother during her last illness and death as were several other members of the family.

Mrs. Marjory McKay, Stanley Bridge, a sister and Rev. S. A. Martin, Oregon City, a brother predeceased her within three months, and deep sympathy is extended to the surviving members, who are again called to say farewell to another loved one. Mrs. McLean was educated in Uigg school, later in Prince of Wales College, graduating, a successful school teacher and taught in various rural districts prior to marriage. Mrs. McLean was a devote member of Orwell Head Church for many years and took an active part in various organizations and Choir, later uniting with Vernon River United Church and Trinity United Church Charlottetown, whose Pastors Rev. Hugh Miller and Rev. Lewis Murray visited her on many occasions and she enjoyed their Christian fellowship. Mrs. McLean was a Christian lady dearly beloved by a host of friends and many will remember her as a nurse in the sick room where she brought encouragement, peace and hope.

She had a strong Christian faith, she knew in whom she believed. She spread joy and comfort where ever she went and many homes were gladdened by her presence. She will be remembered especially through her kindness, her ready smile and her encouraging word of comfort and cheer. Her life of service was the expression of a heart filled with love for her Lord and her fellow-men.

Aug. 11th a brief funeral service was held at Cutliffe Parlors, Fitzroy St., Rev. Lewis Murray officiating. Miss Fanny Bell organist, singing Jesus Lover of My Soul and a very impressive service followed in Orwell Head Church, which was well filled, Rev. Lewis Murray officiated and gave a very comforting message of hope to the bereaved, I will not leave you comfortless, I will come again. Rev. Mr. Weir, Vernon River United assisted. Mrs. Smithe Lee, organist, assisted by joint Choirs, Vernon River and Orwell Head sang old favorites. The Lord's My Shepard, Nearer My God to Thee, and Abide With Me.

Acting pall bearers in Charlottetown were Messrs. Will and Hugh McKay, (nephews of deceased).

Alexander McLeod and Fred Shaw.

Six nephews were pall bearers at Orwell, Messrs Samuel, Hugh and James Martin. Harold, Sam and Lloyd Martin.

Interment, Orwell Head Cemetary. Funeral was under direction of Mr. A. B. Cutliffe, Charlottetown.
