

Former Island Man Is Wed In Hamilton, Ont.

A wedding of interest to Island friends of the groom took place in Hamilton, Ontario on Saturday, December 28, 1957, when Diane, second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David Mitchell, of Hamilton, formerly of Fyfe, Scotland, became the bride of George Cameron, Hamilton, and formerly of Wellington, P.E.I., son of Mrs. Leona Cameron and the late George Cameron.

The double ring marriage ceremony was performed by the Reverend A. E. Lawlor, parish priest of Christ the King Cathedral. The bride's dress was of white Chantilly lace over nylon tulle and satin, fitted bodice, with full skirt forming a chapel train. Her finger tip veil was caught to a pearl and sequin crown head-dress and she carried a bouquet of orchids and baby mums.

She was attended by her friend, Mrs. Helen McEwen who wore a waltz length dress of peacock blue nylon over satin with feathered headdress to match. She carried a bouquet of yellow and white mums. The groom was attended by Mr. Desmond McNeill of Val D'Or, Quebec and formerly of Missouche, P.E.I.

A wedding reception for approximately sixty guests was held at the Rainbow Rooms on Sandford Avenue.

The Master of Ceremonies was Mr. Jack Cleland of Hamilton, who proposed the toast to the bride, and to which the groom responded. Other toasts were made by best man, father and mother of the bride and by the mother of the groom. The beautifully decorated wedding cake which centred the head table was cut in traditional manner by the bride.

Following the dinner the evening was spent in dancing and singing. Music for the occasion was supplied by a Scottish band, which was supplemented by bagpipe music by Pipe-Major Pat Forbes for Scottish reels and dances.

The bride and groom left on a honeymoon trip through New York State, and for travelling the bride wore a brown wool jersey dress, with topcoat, and matching accessories.

On their return they will reside in Hamilton where both Mr. and Mrs. Cameron are on the office staff of the Tuckett Tobacco Co.

Many and beautiful wedding gifts were received by the happy couple from their numerous friends, who wish them many years of happiness as they embark on the sea of matrimony.

Out of town guests at the wedding included Mrs. Leona Cameron and Mrs. Walter McNeill, Toronto, Mr. and Mrs. Desmond McNeill, Val D'Or, Quebec, Mr. Charles Kimberley, Washington, D.C., and Mrs. Pat Forbes, Toronto.
