A MAN named John Atkinson was instantly killed near Dorchester, N. B., on the 15th inst., by being thrown from a runaway team.

THE Managers of the Roller Rink will issue ladies' Complimentary Tickets from 19th inst., to 1st December, excepting on exhibition nights.

MR D. BAIN, Station Master at Pictou Landing, arrived last evening and is staying at the Osborne. He comes to spend his holidays on the island.

MR JAMES SLATE intends to open a Boot and Shoe Store on Queen Street, in Stevenson's building, on Tuesday, 20th inst., and solicits a share of public patronage.

"Do you buy your music by the roll?" said a gentleman to the deacon's daughter. "No, sir," she sweetly replied; "I always wait until Sunday, when I can get it by the choir."

BASEBALL—The league championship season in the United States closed last week. Chicago captures the pennant. Providence, which was the victor last season, comes fourth on the list.

WHEN a Nevada man wishes his friend "may live till every hair on top of his head is as long as a Mexican lasso," he has said all that the most exacting friendship can demand. —Richmond, Va., State.

AN Irishman was recently asked in a New York Court to exhibit his certificate of marriage. He pointed to a scar on his forehead about the shape of a shovel, which the judge accepted as satisfactory evidence.

A TEXAN who lost about two inches of his shoulder bone through a misplaced gunshot, has been made whole again by the grafting in the cavity of dogs bones. Some twenty dogs lost their lives as a result of the operation.

THE report of the Kansas Agricultural State Board for September estimates the total wheat yield of the State at 11,000,000 bushels, or about one-third of a crop. The corn crop is large, being placed at 194,000,000 bushels, an increase of 54,000,000 bushels over the past five years average.

THE business manager of THE EXAMINER has left town to visit his friends in the country; but it must not be inferred that THE EXAMINER will not be published till he comes back. It will appear as usual—full of all the news of the day and, if possible, spicier than ever.

JAMES WILSON, a bookbinder of Toronto, quarrelled with a companion and commenced to fight. Wilson stumbled on the edge of the boulevard and fell on the roadway. A wagon laden with hay was being driven along at the time by Charles Gibb, a farmer, and before it could be stopped the front wheels passed over Wilson's body. He died a few minutes afterwards.

THE property owners of New Edinburgh, near Ottawa, have voted on a by-law to authorize the Council to borrow $9,000 to build an iron bridge over the north branch of the Rideau and to construct an embankment to prevent the flooding of the village by that river during high water in the spring. The by-law carried, the vote being sixty-four for and four against.

A WONDERFUL CAPTURE OF A LARGE SEA GULL.—The Moncton Times is responsible for the following: While a young lad, by the name of Wilmot, son of Wm. Wilmot, of Albert County, was fishing tomorrow yesterday in the river, he hauled one to the top of the water, when it was immediately seized by a large sea gull that was passing over. The boy's hook caught in the bird's bill and the youngster gallantly captured the pair.

ONE of the Commissioners appointed to enquire into the extent of the damage done to property in the Northwest during the recent rebellion, reports that the loss is not near so great as at first believed. He says the damage is greatest at Batouche and Fish Creek, and was principally sustained through Poundmaker and his tribe. He also reports that the effects of the rebellion have almost all passed away and the Metis, now that their land claims have been satisfactory settled, are going actively to work. The report that the half-breeds were in want of food is, he says, unfounded, as the agents of the government have supplied them with an abundance whenever required.

SLOW TRAVELLING.—The Moncton Times says:—The passengers from the Island yesterday had a pretty tough experience. The St. Lawrence was delayed at Summerside two hours while some repairs were being made on the paddle. She made a very fair trip to the Point, but was, of course, too late to connect with the local express, and the fifty passengers had to wait about the Point for three hours and a half for the evening freight. She was later left the Point on time at 6.25, but was nearly three hours reaching Moncton, a distance of 17 miles. The complaints of the passengers were both loud and deep, and the unusual delay, especially under the circumstances, would certainly seem to be inexcusable. The trouble was at Moncton, the train being delayed for over an hour at Painesco awaiting orders.

FANNIE MILLS, of Sandusky, Ohio, is a good looking brunette, about twenty-five years of age, and weighing one hundred and fifty-five pounds. Her most attractive feature, however, is the size of her feet, which nothing smaller than a number thirty shoe will measure. The material required in the manufacture of her shoes, which it is openly hinted are built in a dockyard, would be sufficient for eight in ordinary pairs of ladies' shoes. The length of her shoe is 19 inches, the width 7 1/2 inches, she will 18 1/2 inches, instep 19 1/2 inches, the ball 19 inches, the top reach to the calf, and measure in circumference 20 1/2 inches and the heels are 5 1/2 inches in width. Her father, who is a wealthy farmer, offers $5,000 and a well stocked farm to any man with sufficient moral courage to marry her. The attention of our portly friend of the Herald is directed to this important fact.

Eastern Notes.

The people in the vicinity of East Point are about through with their harvest, and are now well into the potatoes.

The fishing industry has been crippled for the last month, owing to the unusually stormy weather. There are a great many fishing vessels in Souris, taking shelter from the storm fiend. There is a perceptible rise in the price of mackerel.

The wheat crop has been very fine in the eastern part of the country this year, but oats are not so plentiful as last year. The potato crop is excellent—the best for many years. It is a pity the prices are so low, or farmers would make a fine thing of it, on the "spuds," this fall.

Passing through Harmony I came in for a grand ball, given by the popular merchant of the place. About two hundred guests filled the spacious halls, all "chasing the glowing hours with flying feet," to the strains of the violin. Here assembled all the beauty and chivalry of the adjacent neighborhood, till "the sun's hours of the morn" gave token of the coming dawn, when all, well pleased with the entertainment and the treatment of "mine host," adjourned to their respective homes.

Travelling along the country, I find that the people cultivate the social side of their character, as is evinced by the many pleasant reunions taking place among the people. The young folk, especially at Black Bush, cultivate the musical taste to a pleasant extent. This settlement is one of the most sociable and lively of all I have passed through. Nearly every person in the neighborhood plays some musical instrument—the piano, organ, accordion, violin and, last but not least, the ancient and historic pibroch, whose musical strains "rings in each clansman's ears," and "sirs the memory of a thousand years." From these instruments, tout ensemble, sweet music is discoursed by the merry lads and maidens of the place.

TRAVELLER.

Souris Notes.

On the 6th inst., the King's County Temperance Alliance met here. Mr. McMoney, the Assistant Inspector of Licenses, resigned, and the temperance committee are about to recommend one who will be a terror to evil doers. We hope soon to see the effects of his labors upon the unlawful traders in the ardent, more than we have in the past.

The same evening a temperance meeting was held in the Methodist Church, and earnest addresses were delivered by the Rev. E. Bell and Mr. J. Lawson; a fair attendance showing that the temperance friends are still living and are anxious to have the law of our land upheld.

On the 16th inst., the Annual Methodist Mission meeting was held in the Church. The minister of the Circuit preached, and interesting and stirring speeches were made by Revs. E. Bell, G. Steele, and J. C. Cameron. The attendance was good, the singing excellent, and a liberal collection.
