Great English Remedy!

The most valuable Spring and Summer Medicine in the World:

Dr. Halsey's

FOREST WINE!

Patronized by the Nobility and Medical Faculty of England, and esteemed the most extraordinary Medicine in the World.

Medicine containing molasses or liquorice, like the boasted Sarsaparillas, require many large bottles to produce the slightest change in health. The Forest Wine is altogether a different article. It contains no syrup to give it consistency, but acquires its excellent flavor and powerful medicinal properties from the vegetable plants of which it is composed. The Forest Wine combines the virtues of the

WILD CHERRY, DANDELION, YELLOW DOCK, AND SARSAPARILLA, with other valuable plants whose properties are all most effective.

Its high concentration renders it one of the most efficient medicines now in use. Sometimes less than a single bottle restores the lingering patient from weakness, debility, and sickness, to strong and vigorous health. Every dose shews its good effects on the constitution, and improves the state of the health. The Forest Wine is recommended, in the strongest terms, for all complaints of the Stomach, Liver, Kidneys, Nervous Disorders, Bilious Affections, Dropsy, Dyspepsia, Loss of Appetite, Jaundice, Female Complaints, Scrofula, and all Disorders arising from BAD BLOOD and impure habit of the system.

SAVED FROM DEATH.

Testimony of Mr. Nathan Mathews, a highly respectable and wealthy citizen of Newark, N. J.

Dr. G. W. Halsey:—I believe your Forest Wine and Pills have been the means of saving my life. When I commenced taking them I laid at the point of death with dropsy, piles and asthma. My Physician had given me up as past cure, and my family had lost all hopes of my recovery. While in this dreadful situation, your Forest Wine and Pills were procured for me, and before I had finished the first bottle of the Wine and box of Pills, I experienced great relief; my body and limbs, which were greatly swollen, became sensibly reduced. Hopes of my recovery began now to revive, and after continuing the use of your medicines for about a month, the Piles and Asthma were completely cured. The Dropsy, through which my life was placed in such great danger, was also nearly gone. I have continued the use of your medicines until the present time, and I now enjoy as perfect health as ever I did in my life, although I am more than sixty years of age.

Yours, respectfully,
N. MATHEWS.

GREAT CURE OF LIVER COMPLAINT OF TEN YEARS' STANDING.

New York, January 9th, 1848.

Dr. Halsey—Dear Sir,—Having taken your Forest Wine and Pills to remove a disease of the Liver from which I have suffered severely for upwards of ten years; and having adhered closely to the directions which accompany the medicines, I have recovered my health, nothwithstanding all who knew me thought my case incurable. Previous to taking the Wine and Pills, I had recourse to the best medical treatment, but continued to grow worse to an alarming degree. Some of my friends spoke desparagingly of my case, and tried to persuade me from making use of any advertised remedies; and I doubt not, that there are hundreds who are dissuaded from taking your excellent medicines in consequence of the deception and inefficiency of many advertised remedies put forth by unprincipled men in flaming advertisements. But, what a pity it is, that the deception used by others should be the means of dissuading many labouring under disease from making trial and being cured by your excellent remedies. Humanely speaking, they have saved my life; when I commenced making use of them, I was in a wretched condition, but began to experience their good effects in less than three days; and in six weeks from the time I purchased the medicines, to the great surprise of all my friends, I was entirely cured, and had increased fifteen pounds in weight, having taken one box of the Pills, and two bottles of the wine. Would to God that every poor sufferer woald avail himself of the same remedies, Yours, &c.,

JAMES WILTON.

NERVOUS DISORDERS

Are diseases of the mind as well as of the body, usually brought on by troubles and affliction, and are most common to persons of delicate constitutions and sensitive minds. Low spirits, melancholy, frightful dreams, and fearful anticipations of evil from the slightest causes, generally accompany nervous disorder. The Forest Wine and Pills are an energetic remedy in these complaints.

Extract of a letter from Mr. Joseph C. Paulding, dated

PHILADELPHIA, September 7th. 1848.

Mr. G. W. Hasley—Dear Sir:—Your Forest Wine and Pills have cured my wife of a dreadful nervous disorder with which she has been affected for many years. Her body was almost wasted away. She was frequently disturbed in her sleep by frightful dreams, awakening quite exhausted and covered with perspiration, and at times laboring under the delusion that something dreadful was about to happen to her. By the use of four bottles of the Wine, and a box of the Pills, she is now in perfect health. She has regained her flesh and color, and enjoys society as well as ever.

J. C. PAULDING.

Dr. David Marein, a celebrated practitioner of New York, declared publicly that one bottle of Halsey's Forest Wine contained more virtue than fifty of the large bottles of Sarsaparilla. Messrs. S. S. Lamp mean Co., one of the largest and most respectable druggists in Syracuse, in a letter, say: "From what they have heard and seen of Halsey's Forest Wine it is an excellent and good medicine, and will undoubtedly become the leading medicine, of the day.'

The Forest Wine is put up in large square bottles with Dr. Halsey's name blown in the glass, $1 per bottle, or six bottles for $5. Gum-coated Pills, 25 cents per box. Agents are authorized to retail, as well as wholesale, on as favorable conditions as the proprietor, No. 161 Duane St corner of Hudson, N. York.

NATURE OUTWITTED!!!

Dr. Antrobus's

Persian Hair Restorative,

AND HAIR DYE.

Under the immediate Patronage of the Princes of Persia and India.

These articles are without doubt the most extraordinary in their powers ever submitted to the Public, and require but to be tried, to be appreciated, admired, and continued.

The RESTORATIVE strengthens the hair and prevents it falling off after every other means have been resorted to unsuccessfully; it cures baldness and creates a natural curl, and by its use, myriads of persons of both sexes are indebted to having a good head of hair at the present moment. Its efficacy if therefore undoubted, and the whole world is challenged to produce an article to equal it, either for beautifying the human hair or preserving it to the latest period of life. For the production of Whiskers or Moustache, it is infallible.

The qualities of the HAIR DYE are decidedly superior to any thing of the kind ever attempted and the whole surface of the head can be changed into a most natural black or brown, within five minutes after using it, so as to defy detection from the greatest connoisseur. Advice by post gratis on receipt of Postage Stamps.

Copy of a Letter from Dr. Magrath, M. R. C. S., dated Duke Street, Adelphi, London, the 17th January, 1854.

To DR. ANTROBUS,

Sir,—I feel great pleasure in attesting the virtues of your Persian Hair Restorative. Several parties who have been patients of mine having derived the most inconceivable benefit from using it; and in fact it is owing to this article alone, that many of them are not at the present moment completely bald; one party I may mention in particular, who had been laid up with typhus fever: (a most beautiful young lady,) the attack however left her although as beautiful as ever in the face, still with scarcely any hair on her head. She tried every thing unsuccessfully, until I recommended her to use your Persian Hair Restorative, and in three months, she again possessed the same dark curling locks, as before her illness, although if possible, still more jet like, and attractive. I must admit, although I have recommended it to hundreds of persons of both sexes, I have never found it fails and consider, that where the hair is not past human aid, your wonderful preparation will restore it to its pristine state.

Your Hair Dye is the best I have ever seen or heard of, and has been used among my private acquaintances, with the most unbounded satisfaction.

I am, Sir, yours most truly,

(Signed) DENNIS MAGRATH.

Letter from Henry Vinson, Court Hair Dresser and Wig Maker, of 124, Leadenhall Street, London.

To DR. ANTROBUS,

Sir,—Your Hair Restorative is one of the greatest blessings ever invented. Several of my customers are quite enraptured with it, and consider it beyond all praise. I cannot deny, but that it has appeared to me quite wonderful, the alteration it causes after using it for a few weeks, it excels any thing of the kind I ever used, causing a complete metamorphosis; giving the hair a natural curl, and even entirely hiding grey locks, setting nature at defiance.

You may depend upon it, that it surpasses any thing of the kind ever brought before the public, and as to your Hair Dye, I can sell all you can send me, it is so unquestionably good.

I am, Sir, yours faithfully,

(Signed) HENRY VINSON.

The Restorative is sold at 1s. 6d., 2s. 6d., and 4s per Bottle, Sterling. The Hair Dye 3s. 6d. and 7s per case. The larger sizes are a great saving Directions for use accompany each Bottle and Case.

☞ Be particular to ask for Dr. Antrobus's, or you may be imposed upon.

Sold by all respectable Chemists and Perfumers throughout the world, and at Dr. Antrobus's Establishment, 2, Brydges Street, Strand. If any difficulty arise in obtaining it, send postage stamps to Dr. Antrobus's address, and it will be forwarded by return of post.

GENERAL INTELLIGENCE.

THE EFFECT OF FEAR.—The extraordinary power exerted by fear over the human mind was exhibited in Vienna, in a remarkable manner, a few days ago. Dr. F——, an eminent physician of Vienna obtained leave from the local authorities to try his experiment upon the person of a prisoner who had been condemned to death. Accordingly, an offer was made to the individual in question, holding out the promise of the remission of his punishment, if he would consent to pass the night in the bed of a patient who four hours previously had been carried off by cholera. The prisoner consented, and was put to bed, and, after the expiration of some three hours, or less, he was seized with violent vomiting and all the attendant symptoms of cholera. He was attended immediately by several physicians, and ultimately, being of strong constitution, was completely re-established. His astonishment was great, when Dr. F——informed him, that the bed was perfectly clean and pure, and that no cholera patient had ever lain there.—Vienna correspondent of the Morning Post.

AUSTRIAN DISPUTE WITH SARDINIA.—Austria is endeavouring to breed a quarrel with Sardinia, so that she may humiliate or punish the Power which has dared to become the ally of England and France, and to which Italian patriots look up with hope. The cause of the quarrel is this:—Count Casati the son of a nobleman who, in 1848, fled from Lombardy and became a Sardinian subject, entered the diplomatic service of Piedmont, and, after having been attache to the legation at Constantinople for a year, was transferred to Florence. The Tuscan Government made no objection to the appointment; and the Tuscan Premier and the Austrian minister at Florence exchanged visiting cards with the new attache. But Count Buol stepped in and asked the Grand Duke of Tuscany whether, "in his position as an Austrian arch-duke," he could think of receiving in his palace a person who could not be received by his Imperial Majesty or by any Austrian minister? The Grand Duke acted upon the hint, and his Premier at first begged and then demanded that the attache should be sent away on leave—a demand so unprecedented, that the Sardinian Government declined compliance, though it spared no pains to bring the matter to an amicable termination. The Tuscan Government then demanded that the Sardinian minister himself should be recalled, and the natural consequence was that diplomatic relations between the two Courts ceased. Sardinia might have been contented with this state of things; but Austria will not permit her to be. Count Buol, in an interview with the Sardinian Minister at Vienna, boldly declared that "as the rupture between the Courts of Florence and Turin had taken place in consequence of instructions sent by the Imperial Government, his Majesty the Emperor would not remain out of the question, but was determined to consider it a personal one to himself." "We shall fix a time," continued Count Buol, "in which the difference ought to be made up; it does not matter to us whether there be a Sardinian Minister at Florence or not; but if you do not settle the dispute, his Imperial Majesty will consider it a personal affair, and take measures accordingly." The question is, whether England and France will permit Austria to execute her threats? Hitherto, the Marquis of Normanby, the English Minister at Florence, has taken the part of the Grand Duke; but it is said, that our Government has sent a diplomatic agent to Florence to bring Lord Normanby to views more worthy of his position.

STAND BY THE CAUSE.

Let every temperance man make up his mind to do this, and all will be well. It is true that the Maine Law has not been thoroughly enforced, but when before, were there ever such superhuman efforts made to oppose and break down a law? When, before, has a class in the community banded together, raised large sums of money, and openly defied the legal authorities? The resistance does not come from large bodies of men—it does not come from the people. It is the desperate struggle of a bad business to maintain itself in the public regard. It is the concentrated effort of a class stimulated by ill-gotten gains, to retain their grasp upon the profits of their unholy calling. Against this bitter, unrelenting opposition, the friends of right and justice have had to oppose the doubtful bulwark of an untried law—they have had to feel their way carefully in administering it—and they have suffered, and are suffering, all the inconveniences of the delay of the courts, to dispose of the important questions which have been appealed for their decision. But because of this delay—this intermediate period of partial doubt—can temperance men afford to falter in their course? By no means. They must maintain their ground—they must rally in closer, more energetic effort—they must resolve, each man for himself, and all together, that the fruits of so many years of faithful toil shall not be plundered from their grasp.
