BRISTOL

Mr. and Mrs. Fred L. O'Brien, Somerville, Mass., arrived here by car late Saturday evening for a short visit with relatives and at Peake's Station. Mr. and Mrs. O'Brien left here in 1904 shortly after their marriage. They celebrated their golden wedding three years ago. Mrs. O'Brien was Mary Ellen Dinphy. Her old home was at Peake's where a brother Tom and his wife reside. Mr. O'Brien, who has one sister residing here, is also looking up some old friends. He is retired from the Boston Elevated Railway for a number of years now but still in good health. Mr. O'Brien says he well recalls shoeing horses for the great Dr. Roddie at St. Peter's when he was serving his time with his late father John O'Brien, more than half a century ago.
Friends of Mr. Joseph McMillan, that grand old man, will be sorry to learn he is still confined to hospital where he has been for almost two months following a stroke. He is one of this vicinity's oldest residents.
Mr. and Mrs. Arthur McMillan left early Sunday morning for Truro, N.S. to visit their daughter Marjorie, Mrs. Baker and Mr. Baker for a brief period.
Mr. and Mrs. Warren B. McMannus arrived here on Sunday from Boston to spend about four days with relatives here and at Peake's Station to attend a reception for their son Rev Thomas

JUNIOR FARMERS

The St. Georges Junior Farmers held their regular meeting on Thursday at the home of Charles Somers. The president opened the meeting, following the minutes and roll call, ways and means of making money were discussed. The money made is to be used on useful community projects. It was decided to hold a dance in St. Georges hall on June 17 and the entertainment committee was asked to make the necessary arrangements.

The secretary was asked to send congratulations from the group to the two Jr. Farmer Debate champions Urban Laughlin and Garth Coffin. Dr. George Fisher is to be invited to the next meeting to discuss Calf vaccination and First Aid for Farm Animals. As there was no further business the meeting was adjourned and the group enjoyed a delicious lunch.

The Perils of Teenage Promiscuity

Adolescent boys seem to have a great need to prove their manhood - often by succeeding with the town child-harlot or an older woman.

In July Reader's Digest, Toronto's Dr. Marion Hilliard tells why promiscuity is sure to make a shambles of a boy's adult life... and how parents can help their son cope with this teenage danger. Everybody loves this fragrant Cheesebread

And it's so easy to make, when you use fast rising dry Best Yeast! If you bake at home, please your family by baking this treat tomorrow!

CHEESEBREAD
Scald 3 c. milk, 1/4 c. granulated sugar, 1 1/2 ts. salt and 4 ts. shortening; cool to lukewarm. Meantime, measure into a large bowl 1/2 c. lukewarm water; crumble and add 1 cake Best Yeast - or stir in 1 tsp. granulated sugar and sprinkle with 1 envelope Best dry Yeast. Let stand 10 minutes, THEN stir well.

Stir in cooled milk mixture. Stir in 4 c. once-sifted all-purpose flour; beat with a rotary beater until the batter is smooth. Cover and set in a warm place, free from draft. Let rise until doubled in bulk. Work in 2 c. lightly-packed finely-shredded old cheese and 5 c. (about) once-sifted all-purpose flour. Knead on lightly-floured board until smooth and elastic. Place in greased bowl and grease top of dough. Cover and let rise until doubled in bulk. Punch down dough; turn out on lightly-floured board and divide into 4 equal portions. Cover lightly with a cloth and let rest for 15 mins. Divide each portion of dough into 3 parts; knead and shape into smooth balls. Place 3 balls in each of 4 greased loaf pans (4 1/2 x 8 1/2). Grease tops and sprinkle each loaf with 1/4 c. shredded cheese. Cover and let rise until doubled in bulk. Bake in moderately hot oven, 375°, 45-50 mins.
