THE KING'S COUNTY ELECTION CASE
THE EVIDENCE.
STATEMENT OF RICHARD GARRET, J. P.—"SOME-THING HANDSOME"—HOW IT WAS TO BE MADE—BETWEEN McLEAN IN THE LOCAL HOUSE—MACINTYRE IN DOMINION—THE BOTTLE AS A CANVASSER.

RICHARD GARRET called on behalf of petitioner, sworn. Examined by Mr. Hodgson.
I reside at Fairfield, Lot 47. I have lived there many years. I am a Justice of the Peace for the County. I am acquainted with Dr. McIntyre and Muttart, and with Mc-Donald, but not with Dr. Roberton. I know James B. McLean. I see him in Court. He came to me the evening previous to the election at my own house. Andrew Whelan was with him. They came to my house as near as I can recollect between 4 or 5 o'clock in the evening. McLean said he had been elected member, principally about the National Policy. He said he wished me to vote for Dr. McIntyre. The conversation took place in my house. When we came in we went into the parlor first. There was a conversation about the election there. I was not in the parlor all the time McLean was there.
Mr. McLean went into the bedroom off the parlor. I went in also. He got up and went into the bedroom and said he had private business with me, and I went in. He asked me there was I going to vote with him. I told him so, that my mind was made up, that I had always voted on the Conservative side, and that it was too late to turn now. His words to me as far as I can recollect were, that I was in the mood of November. I went out and he brought in a bottle of rum, and some of it was used. I took some. Mr.
McLean did not take any. They were at my place I would say an hour altogether. McLean does not often come to my place. It was four years before that, that he had been at my place. McLean said in parting with me, don't forget to vote for me. These were the words as near as I can recollect. McLean came to my neighbor's house by himself. I was not there.

Cross-examined by Mr. Davies.—It was in a solemn tone at the time I was talking about I told it to Mr. McKinnon, the person sitting alongside of Mr. Hodgson—I saw him at Dr.
Muttart's. I went to Souris and I went to come down to Souris, he wanted to see me.
I was in the month of November. I went into Dr. Muttart's and I found Mr. McKinnon there. I had not told of the conversation previously to that Mr. McKinnon asked me if Mr. McLean had called to see me before the election, and he asked me the conversation that passed between us. I told him. Dr.
Muttart was present at the time. He urged me up pretty well and took it down in writing. I do not think he suggested to me any of the words. I told him what McLean said as I have told to-day as nearly as I can recollect. McLean said they would do something handsome. I don't remember if Edward McKinnon said these words to me. I told him a d he took them down in Dr. Muttart's presence. We were discussing politics for about an hour. McLean was talking principally about the National Policy, and that it was an injury, and if they got in they would remove it. I told McLean that my mind was made up. I did not tell Mr. McLean that I had promised my vote. I told him I had seen the other party, and that my mind was made up. I can't recollect that McLean told me that he wouldn't ask me to break my promise if I had promised the other side. Mr. Mc-Lean and Whelan was with me outside.
Angus Campbell was there, but not when any conversation about politics took place. I can't recollect that I told Mr. McLean outside that I had made up my mind to vote for the other party. I think I did not. I asked him to come into the house and I asked him to stay to tea. I don't think I asked him to stay to tea outside. I think it was in the room I can't swear it was not outside. He did not wash his hands at any rate until after the conversation. I am not sure that he washed his hands. The door of the bedroom was closed when we were in during the conversation. McLean closed it. My wife shook hands with Mr. McLean when he came in and asked him to stay to tea. I did not go with Whelan to the wagon. Whelan went to to look after the horse and wagon alone. I do not recollect if any one went to get hay for the horse. I did not go. Mr. McKinnon asked me if McLean didn't ask me to take a drink I told Mr. McKinnon that Mr.
McLean asked Whelan if he hadn't a drop in the wagon. Mr. McLean asked me to take a drop when the bottle was put on the table. Whelan asked me too.
Whelan was the man that brought the bottle in. I remained with Mr. McLean in the room while Whelan went for the bottle. Mr. Mc-Lean knew very well my mind was made up to vote for the Conservatives. I knew that Mr. McLean was in the Local House, and if Dr. McIntyre was in the Upper House, they could do a great deal for the District. I was appointed a Justice of the Peace after the election. I can't say that any one asked me for my vote. No one that I can recollect of saw me about my vote for Dr. Muttart for Dominion Election. No person spoke to me about my vote except McLean, before the Dominion Elections. They know how I would vote? I was a canvasser for Dr. Muttart and A. C. McDonald. I met Dr. Muttart a ter McLean left. He asked me if I was doing what I could for them, and I told him I was.
No person promised to make me a Justice if I voted. Not then words, I was never promised that I would be. It was like this: It would be proposed. There was a friend of mine. It was Mr. C. C. Carlton. It was the same man that gave the bribe to H. oper.
There was no person else that I am aware of making a similar proposition. I was appointed a Justice of the Peace immediately after the Dominion Election. I am an elector for King's County, and was so at the last Dominion Election, and I supported McDonald and Muttart.

Re-examined by Mr. Hodgson—I saw Mc-Kinnon, your clerk, at Dr. Muttart's. I told him the same as I said here to-day. McKinnon asked me if McLean was at my place before the Election. I don't recollect whether any thing was said about being cautious or being accurate.
(To be Continued.)

CORRESPONDENCE.
We do not hold ourselves responsible for the opinions or statements of our correspondents.
Open Voting.
To the Editor of the Examiner.

SIR,—I see by late numbers of the Patriot, that the editor of that paper is not pleased because the Ballot Act in P. E.
Island has been repealed.
Having had some experience at elections, both under the Ballot Act and at the late Local election, I believe that the present system is the most satisfactory for the following reasons:
Under the Ballot Act the voter, who is unable to read or by reason of any physical incapacity is unable to mark his ballot paper without the assistance of the pressing officer, is required to make oath to that effect; and many men, who attach great importance to taking an oath, refuse to be sworn, as they would rather lose their vote than take an oath. And many, who undertake to mark their ballot paper by themselves, do not do so correctly, as witness the many spoiled ballots at every election.
Under the present system the voting is done quickly and quietly, and I have heard many men on both sides of politics say that it was the best way for taking the votes.
The opposition insinuates that the present system is open to corruption, as the candidates can see who vote for them; but I think that the farmers of this island are getting too independent to be influenced by pecuniary considerations when giving their votes, and that there is just as much bribery under the Ballot Act as under the present system.
The present system saves the country a considerable amount in printing and in the registering of the votes, and, from the very few voters who were sworn at the late local election, I believe that not near so much difficulty or loss of time is caused by the present system as the opposition would wish us to believe.

In fact I have seen a great deal more time lost on election day trying to make a voter understand the reason why he is required to swear that he can't read or mark his ballot paper, than would be required to take down the description of almost any voter's property, and it has always been the rule among the Inspectors of Votes at any election I have seen; that any voter that is known to be good is not questioned.
The editor of the Patriot may say that people who can't read have no right to vote, but he must remember that many old men who own large properties and have considerable intelligence have not had the advantage of education in their youth, and as it is generally considered a slight on a man to be sworn at an election, many of these men when asked to swear consider it an insult and refuse to be sworn which invalidates their vote.
I heartily concur in your article on this subject in your issue of the 12th inst., and believe you have only expressed the views of the majority of intelligent people in this Island.

I am, yours, &c.,
VOTER.
King's County, Jan. 16, 1883.
To the Editor of the Examiner.
MY DEAR SIR,—In your paper of the 2nd instant, we read as follows:
"The grounds upon which the learned Judge based his decision are—"1. That the evidence did not prove corrupt treating, as it is customary in King's County to give liquor and treat the people during elections.
"2. That, even assuming that this custom is contrary to law, the treating complained of was not done by an agent specially authorized by Dr. McIntyre to do so."
We have read or heard something like these paragraphs. A man having borrowed a tea kettle, returned it broken. Being asked he pleaded—
1. That he never borrowed it.
2. That it had not been broken.
3. That he had mended it.
The time has not arrived when we two can understand the logic of the preceding quotations and special pleadings. But, perhaps, your reporter has made a mistake in his shorthand.
We remain, my dear sir,
Yours very truly,
BARA LIPTON,
BARBARA CLARENT.

The Great French Remedy, Dr.
Leduc's Periodical Pills.
For the cure of Leucorrhoea or White's Excessive or painful Menstruation, Green Sickness, Falling of the Uterus, Catarrh of the Uterus or Vagina, Hysteria, Pain in the Back, or Piles, or for the purpose of invigorating and giving tone to the Generative Organs, two pills should be taken twice daily, or in very enfeebled conditions, one pill three times a day. To effect cures in chronic cases it will be necessary to continue the use of the remedy for some months. A reasonable trial will create sufficient confidence in the remedy to insure its being taken until a permanent cure is effected.
