

THE POPULAR CANDIDATES

KING'S: A. C. Macdonald.
ST QUEEN'S: Dr. Jenkins.
EAST QUEEN'S: Alexander Martin.
WEST PRINCE: Edward Hackett.
EAST PRINCE: Richard Hunt.

The Liberal-Conservative Committee Rooms in the Philharmonic Hall are open every day and evening (Sundays excepted). All electors are invited to be present, and will be made welcome.

LOCAL AND OTHER ITEMS.

Beer Bros. for Dress Goods.
Ladies—Seats will be reserved at the Market Hall this evening for ladies.

C. M. B. A.—A meeting of Branch 216, C. M. B. A., will be held in St. Patrick's Hall at 7:30 o'clock, sharp.

METHODIST CONFERENCE.—The annual session of the Methodist Conference of New Brunswick and Prince Edward Island will open at St. John on Thursday morning.

NEXT MONDAY, the 22nd, is the date for the Templars' Moonlight Excursion on the steamer Jacques Cartier. Be sure to take 3 o'clock train, vocal music and refreshments.

LECTURE.—The lecture given in the First Methodist Church last evening, by Rev. J. W. Bell, was fairly well attended. His subject was "The Saloon vs. the Citizen, Home and State," and it was well handled. Magic lantern illustrations accompanied the lecture. The Rev. Mr. Bell lectures again to-night in the same place.

THE SILVER STRIP.—The C. W. A. and C. A. C. C. had their regular "run" last evening, presenting a splendid appearance. After the run, whilst the members of the C. A. C. C. were enjoying themselves in their room, some young miscreants punctured the tires of several wheels with tacks. Mr. William Payne's wheel was punctured in seven places, and others were more or less injured. Had the miscreants not been discovered in time it is more than probable that all the tires would have been similarly treated. It is understood that the guilty boys will be brought to justice.

THE OPERA HOUSE.—The Harry Lindley Company gave their closing performance last evening to a fairly large audience, presenting "Little Lord Fauntleroy." The play was capably put upon the boards, and all the characters were well sustained. Little Ebel Lindley as "Little Lord Fauntleroy" was excellent, and Miss Flett's impersonation of Mrs. Erroll (Dorcas) left nothing to be desired. Mr. Chappin as the "Earl of Dorchester" acted his part excellently, and Mr. Lindley was very funny as "Mr. Hobbs" the groceryman. Before the last act Mr. Lee, on behalf of Mr. Lindley, thanked those who had patronized the company during their season in Charlottetown, and his announcement of a return later on in the season was received with applause. The company opens at New Glasgow, N. S., to-night. Mr. Lindley has a splendid company and an excellent repertoire, and large houses should greet them wherever they may appear.

AT THE BILLS.
Following is the score of the Montague team in the Inter-Provincial shooting on Saturday:—

Table with 2 columns: Name and Score. Includes Gunner H. Martin, Lieut. G. A. Thompson, Gunner D. F. Macdonald, W. Murphy, W. L. Poole, Lieut. W. A. Johnston, Corp. H. C. Dewar, Sgt. R. W. Stewart, Gunner J. A. Stewart, N. McLaren.

—Mr. Laurier at Winnipeg: "We shall give you free trade as it exists in England to-day."

Mr. Bertram, a Liberal manufacturer of Toronto, to Mr. Laurier: "I do not believe it is possible or desirable to have free trade in Canada as it is in England."

Mr. Laurier to Mr. Bertram: "The intention of the Liberal party is not, and never was, to establish absolute free trade in this country."

Montreal Witness: "Mr. Laurier is in favor of free trade as they have it in Great Britain."

The Liberal party (to themselves): Where are we now?

TO LET.—The pleasantly situated dwelling house, facing south on Adolphus Street, near Brighton Road, adjoining the residence of Mr. J. Bullman. Five minutes' walk from bathing house and lawn tennis grounds in Victoria Park, five minutes from Post Office, Drawing room, dining room, large verandah, square hall, pantry, kitchen and back porch, gas and electric light, two bedrooms, bath room on first floor, two bedrooms in attic. Apply to Mr. J. Bullman, 125-127, Adolphus Street.

NEWS NOTES.

Kentucky distillers have agreed to stop producing whiskey for a period of eighteen months from the 1st July. It is not said whether this course is rendered necessary by the great production of the diminishing demand for the cup that cheers and doth inebriate. In view of the preparations the barkeepers of St. Louis are making for the Republican convention, it is likely that the first is the cause.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR.

A CORRECTION.

Sir,—In your issue of yesterday there appears a telegram from Ottawa referring to the present enquiry into the deterioration of lobster, in which the name of my colleague does not appear. Will you permit me to say that Dr. Bruere has worked from first to last with me, and that without his co-operation the work could never have been undertaken. Permit me to add further that I have no connection with McGill University; as was implied in the despatch.

ANDREW MACPHAIL. (The telegram referred to was inserted as received. We regret that an injustice was done Dr. Bruere.)
