"TO ARMS!"

The London Telegraph publishes a poem by Alfred Austin, poet laureate, "To Arms." The following are two of the stanzas:

"From English hamlet, Irish hall, Welsh hearth and Scottish byres,
They throng to show that they are still sons worthy of their sires;
That what these did we still can do, that what they were we are,
Whose fathers fought at Waterloo and died at Trafalgar.
Shoulder to shoulder see them stand wherever menace be,
To guard the lordship of land and trident of the sea.

Nor in the parent isle alone, spring squadrons from the ground,
Canadian shore and Austral zone with kindred cry resound;
From shimmering plain, and snow-fed stream across the deep we come,
Seeing the British bayonets gleam, hearing the British drum;
Foot in stirrup, bill in the hand, freemen to keep men free.
All, all will help to hold the land while England guards the sea.

Earncliffe Notes.

It was a sad Xmas for the poor Grits! Mr. Amos Jenkins is spending his holidays with friends in Bethel.

Mr. J. W. Young, the new principal of Spring Park School, paid us a brief visit last week.

The prize offered last fall by a city buyer for the heaviest geese, has been won by Mr. Frank Mutch, whose fine flock averaged sixteen pounds.

Mr. Ralph Iago, Kappoch, spent a few days recently with his China Point friends. He brings the good news that "Gritism is fast disappearing from his locality," and no doubt our friend is doing his share towards bringing the benighted ones to the light.

We have much pleasure in extending a cordial invitation to Sir Louis to pay us another visit, as the Conservatives are anxious to tender him a banquet for assisting them in recent by-elections. We also invite him to bring his fine-tooth comb and see if he can scratch out a few Grits from beneath the heavy snow drifts. And if the comb won't work, he might try to resurrect them by means of a "threat!"

As many young ladies are just now wondering what New Year resolutions they will write down on Monday next, we will try to assist them by submitting a few, for 1900: we trust they will fill the bill. They are, as follows:—

I resolve that,—
I will not read my love letters any oftener than once a day.

I will not spend more than an hour at a time before the looking-glass.

I will strive to keep my temper when I hear another girl spoken of as 'pretty and smart.'

I will give up wearing boots two sizes too small for me, and thus discourage the gown and corset.

I will try to discourage the practice of 'hugging' amongst the boys,—by doing it all myself.

I will not give all my smiles to other girls' brothers: I will reserve a few for my own.

I will try to reform my stomach and appetite by giving up the use of "Iye tea," so dear to the feminine heart.

The lips of a Girl shall never touch mine.

If through his stomach I can't reach my "Harry's" heart, in time;

I'll blame it on dyspepsia, and—
Throw out another line.

And now as we watch the old year slowly and calmly passing away, it is pleasing for many of us to remember the great amount of instruction and enjoyment afforded us by the daily or weekly visits of THE EXAMINER. And we heartily thank you, dear old friend, for your pleasant companionship through many a weary hour; and it affords us great pleasure to voice the sentiments of hundreds of your readers by wishing that the Editor of THE EXAMINER and its staff may, one and all, enjoy
A Bright, Happy and Prosperous New Year.

Rex.

The camel is a beast of great strength and endurance. Nothing hurts it until the proverbial "last straw" is added to its burden. The human digestive system is very much like a camel. It is really astonishing how much abuse it will stand. Sometimes, however, something worse than usual will be eaten, and will go through the stomach into the bowels, and there it will stick—that's constipation. Nine-tenths of all sickness is due to constipation. Some of the simplest symptoms are coated tongue and foul breath, dizziness, heartburn, flatulence, sallowness, distress after eating, headaches and lassitude. A little thing will cause constipation, and a little thing will relieve it. Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets are a certain cure for constipation. They are tiny, sugar-coated granules, mild and natural in their action. There is nothing injurious about them. Sold by druggists.

Send 31 one-cent stamps to cover cost of mailing only, and receive free a copy of Dr. Pierce's Medical Adviser. Address World's Dispensary Medical Association, Buffalo, N. Y.

It is reported that the Emperor of Germany has arranged the marriage of his eldest son, the Crown Prince of Germany and Queen Wilhelmina, of the Netherlands. The Prince is 18, the Queen 19 years of age.

CONTAGIOUS DISEASES.

Board of Health Regulations.

At a meeting of the Board of Health held yesterday, the following resolution was carried unanimously:

Rule 1. Any householder in whose house in the City of Charlottetown, the case of Smallpox, Cholera, Diphtheria, Scarlatina, Scarlet Fever, Typhus Fever or Typhoid Fever, shall immediately notify the Board of Health through its Health Officer or Secretary of the same.

Rule 2. When a physician knows or suspects that any person to whom he has been called, is sick or has died of, any of the diseases named in Rule 1, he shall immediately notify the Board of Health, through its Secretary or Health Officer, of the same.

Rule 19. Every physician who has been furnished with proper blanks for the purpose under Rule 15, shall immediately make such returns as the said blanks shall indicate, to the Health Officer or Secretary of the Board.

PERSONAL.

Mr. Alfred McWilliams, M. L. A., is in the city.

Mr. J. J. Horby left this morning on return to Halifax.

Mr. Cumming McKinnon returned home from Montreal last evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. A. Sharp returned last evening from New Brunswick.

Dr. and Mrs. Dickie were passengers by the Princess last evening, returning from Halifax.

Mr. and Mrs. Daniel McLeod were passengers by the train from the east this morning.

Mr. James McDonald, Sheriff of King's County, is among the guests at the Hotel Davies.

Mr. Archibald McKenna, of Picton, is visiting Charlottetown. She is registered at the Hotel Davies.

Mr. R. E. Johnston, who spent the Christmas holidays in Charlottetown, returns to Summerside today.

General Lawton, recently killed in the Philippines, was a native of Indiana, where a monument will be erected to his memory.

Mrs. William Knight's class in the Presbyterian Sunday school presented that lady with a valuable teachers' Bible.—Moncton Times.

Sir Charles Tupper was at Grand Forks, British Columbia, yesterday. It is reported that great enthusiasm for the Conservative cause prevails throughout the Northwest.

Mr. Avon Saxton, who was in Charlottetown some months ago, is singing at the Palace theatre, London, England, the new patriotic song, "We accept your Ultimatum," or "Old England's Boys Once More are in the Field!" It is highly exciting, and the crowds in the theatre rise, cheer, join in the refrain, and make great exhibitions of loyalty.

Mr. Sharp is confident that this portion of the road will be completed within the time specified. He goes to Village Green on Saturday to negotiate with the farmers regarding rights of way.

ST. JOSEPH'S CONCERT.—The concert in St. Joseph's Convent last evening was attended by a large audience, and everyone was delighted with the performances of the little ones. The programme included choruses and recitations, graphophone selections and two operetta's, "The Enchanted Apple" and "The Little Baker." The principal parts in the "Enchanted Apple" were taken by Misses M. Dongan, F. DesRoches, W. Curley, G. Heanessey and B. Wynne, all of whom did exceedingly well. In "The Little Baker" Misses M. Morgan, L. Emonds, Maud A. Murphy, F. Curley and B. Knight had the leading parts, which they sustained with much cleverness. Miss G. Griffin's recitation was also good. The accompaniments were all played by the Sister Superior. The stage was artistically decorated.

CORAL SERVICE.—The Coral Service in the First Methodist Church last evening was a grand success. Not alone the singing, but the instrumental music, was magnificent. The Cantique "Noel" was sung by Mrs. W. H. Waits, who is rich also voice charmed her hearers. Miss Collings sang the "Star of Bethlehem" in her own pleasing manner. The elaborate choruses, "Hallelujah" and "Brightest and Best," were admirably rendered, in the latter the trio by Miss Webster and Messrs. J. A. Moore and J. R. Davidson being particularly fine. Of Prof. Waits' performance on the organ they were splendid. His rendition of Offertoire in D, by Batieste, was exceedingly fine. The service closed with "God Save the Queen." The programme was not strictly adhered to, as some of the choir were not in the city till the Princess arrived.
