Head Of Aussie Syndicate Concedes Odds With U.S.

By WILL GRIMSLEY

NEW YORK (AP)—Sir Frank Packer, head of the Australian syndicate which hopes to take away the America's Cup, concedes the odds are with the Yanks in the historic yacht race off Newport, R.I., this summer.

"You've had the cup 110 years, you're more experienced in 12-metre sailing and you have the advantage of home waters," the robust, florid newspaper publisher from Sydney told a press conference Thursday.

Asked which of the four possible U.S. boats he expected to be the defender against Australia's mystery challenger, Gretel, Packer replied quickly:

"It should be the Columbia. I'd hate to think you Americans can come up with a better boat."

The sleek sloop, Columbia, beat Great Britain's Sceptre in the last challenge in 1958 but she must win the right to defend in a series of preliminary tests this summer. Other possible defenders are Easterner, Weatherly and an unnamed boat to be launched Saturday in Marblehead, Mass.

POOH-POOHS SPY STORY

Sir Frank, puffing away on a curve-stem pipe and looking at his questioners through horn-rimmed glasses, "pooh-poohed" a report out of Sydney that the new U.S. boat was so similar to Gretel that some Australians suspected that there had been American spies.

"Very unlikely," he said. "From the dimensions I've read, this new boat is much broader than the Gretel (13-foot beam to the Gretel's 12). She's more like the Columbia."

Sir Frank said the Gretel probably wouldn't use a navigator. "If it's clear, we can see where we're going."

Questioned about the Australians' concern for weight, the Sydney publisher was asked what was being done about the crew.

"We're collecting a bunch of runts," he said. "Also, we're not going to let them eat until a week before the race." The series starts Sept. 15.

Yankees Edge Bosox 2-1; Redbirds Shut Out Giants

By THE CANADIAN PRESS

Courageous Marshall Bridges and veteran Bob Turley combined for a superb three-hit pitching job Thursday as New York Yankees edged Boston Red Sox 2-1.

Despite being floored by a line smash off his forehead, reliever Bridges climbed back on the mound and completed the final two innings for his first American League victory. It moved Yankees into a tie for first place.

The defending world champions broke a 1-1 deadlock in the eighth by scoring without aid of a base hit. Mickey Mantle drew a walk off Gene Conley, who lost the five hitter. Mantle stole second after one out, then continued to third when catcher Jim Pagliaroni threw the ball into centre field. Mantle scored the winning run on Elston Howard's sacrifice fly to deep left.

CARDS BLANK GIANTS

In the only other afternoon game in the majors, St. Louis scored an unearned run off Billy O'Dell in the ninth to beat San Francisco 1-0 behind the 6-hit pitching of Bob Gibson.

It was Gibson's fifth victory against two losses. He struck out 10 Giants and often had them swinging late at his fast ball.

Stan Musial, needing one hit to become the all-time National League hits leader, did not play.

One night game was scheduled in the American—Los Angeles at Baltimore. In the National, Cincinnati was at Philadelphia, Milwaukee at Pittsburgh and Houston at Los Angeles.

Island Gunners Open Outdoor Season Sat.

At 1.00 p.m. Saturday, May 19 some 30 of the Island's top rifle shots will settle down on the 200 yard firing point to open the 1962 outdoor season at Squaw Point range, below Tea Hill.

Different from previous years this first competition, which will be fired at 200, 500 and 600 yards, will be one of four qualifying shoots for the eight places on the annual Inter-Maritime Team.

This latter event is scheduled to be fired at the Bedford, N.S., ranges, on Saturday, June 16. This match, the oldest of its kind in Canada, is an annual battle between teams representing Nova Scotia, New Brunswick and Prince Edward Island and for the past two years has been won by the Island contingent.

With this match under their belt the Island marksmen will return to their home range to settle down to stiff practice matches in preparation for the annual prize meet being conducted by the P.E.I. Rifle Association on July 19, 20 and 21.

At that time, when more than 50 competitors are expected, the big scramble will be for the 24 places on the team which will go to Ottawa's Connaught ranges for the annual Dominion of Canada Rifle Association's annual prize meet, which gets underway August 6 and runs for a week.

It is at this Ottawa match that the 18 top marksmen from across Canada will be selected to form the 1963 Bisley team.

After Ottawa, the Islanders will return home and resume further weekly practice matches leading up to the City Championship match and later the United Services Officers Club service conditions match.

With the exception of the annual prize meet all the local events will be conducted with Sgt. Pere Landrigan, secretary, filling to post of range officer.

Japanese Sign Don Newcombe

NEW YORK (AP)—Don Newcombe, once one of baseball's top pitchers, has signed a contract to play with Chunichi Dragons, an official of Japan Central Baseball League club said Thursday.

Kuzuo Takata, vice-president and general manager of the Nagoya team, said he had signed Newcombe personally.

Takata said the big, 36-year-old righthander, who won 21 games with the old Brooklyn Dodgers in 1956, will leave for Japan sometime between June 10 and June 15.

Newcombe said he had been contacted by the Japanese representatives but denied that he had signed a contract.

Eskimos Sign Import End

EDMONTON (CP) — Import end Jim Letcavits has signed a 1062 contract with Edmonton Eskimos of the Western Football Conference.

Letcavits, 25, is a graduate of Kansas University and joins Eskimos for his fifth season. In 1960 he was the top Edmonton pass receiver, snaring 28 of 34 attempts for 474 yards. He was voted the most valuable Eskimo in the 1960 Grey Cup game by sportswriters and sportscasters at the game.
