Dundas, by his recent action on Reciprocity, has fallen very much indeed in public estimation. To show that we are not misrepresenting his Honor, we will give an extract or two from his despatches to the Duke of Buckingham on the question of Reciprocity. Before the Congressional Committee arrived here, and while our local authorities were considering a suitable way to receive them Mr. Dundas, under the date of the 29th July, 1868, wrote to Her Majesty's principal Secretary of State for the Colonies in reference to certain resolutions which were submitted to the Congress of the United States, that he "did not deem it right to hold out the slightest hope that Her Majesty's Government would sanction any arrangement of this kind (Reciprocity) which did not include the other North American Provinces." Now, in forwarding this despatch to the Duke of Buckingham, instead of not "holding out the slightest hope," he might have pressed our claims on the attention of "Her Majesty's Government." He might have said, without any detriment to his dignity, or the least danger of his truthfulness being called in question, that the people of this Colony anxiously desired Reciprocity; that it would be a great benefit to them in a pecuniary point of view, and that the impetus which it would give to their trade could hardly be overestimated. No! This would not serve his purpose. Promotion would hardly have come fast enough by adopting such a course, and he must use his position against us.

After writing the above despatch, he betook himself to Halifax, from which city, under the date of 27th August, 1868, he says to His Grace of Buckingham:—"I thought it right to express clearly, in writing to my Council, that a Colonial Government has no authority whatever to enter into any exceptional or particular arrangement or agreement with a Foreign Power." The same tone runs through all his despatches to the Colonial Office on this question. Not one word does he say in favor of the people of this Island. Not a single syllable to show that Reciprocity would be a benefit to the Colony. His Grace the Duke of Buckingham could hardly be expected to do anything else than refuse to allow our Government to enter into any "arrangement or agreement with a Foreign Power," when we had such a mouthpiece.

The conduct of His Honor the Administrator on this question is in striking contrast with that of Mr. Dundas. Sir Robert Hodgson pressed the question of Reciprocity on the attention of Her Majesty's advisers, but owing, we presume, to their being prejudiced against the measure beforehand, his efforts did not meet with that success to which they were entitled. We trust that if a measure of Reciprocity be passed by the United States Government, that our authorities also, will give it the sanction of Law, and send it Home for approval. If Her Majesty's advisers refuse to sanction it then we will know what we have to expect from that paternal Government across the water which takes such an interest in our affairs.

GOVERNMENTAL.

Rumours of the disruption of the Government were rife throughout the city last week. The gossips who usually retail second hand stories, were sure that this time at least, the news was true. The opposition were in ecstacies at the prospect of a change, while the officials in the "Building" looked equally depressed and gloomy. The cause of all the talk was that Mr Howlan, in his place in the Executive Council, brought up the subject of a grant for the schools under the control of the Bishop. The Government, as usual, refused to entertain the question. All the members thereof, excepting two (Messrs. Hensley and Howlan,) voting against the application. When the latter gentleman found that he could not obtain the grant of a small sum of money in aid of Catholic schools, he promptly tendered his resignation as a member of the Government. It was supposed in the event of his resignation being accepted, that all the Catholic supporters of the Government would follow him, and as a matter of course there would be a smash up. However, the difficulty was patched up, by Mr. Hensley refusing to accept Mr. Howlan's resignation, and the happy family are again in working order. It is currently reported that the Hon. A. A. McDonald voted against the Bishop's application. We can scarcely believe that there is any truth in the rumor. We were always under the impression that Mr. McDonald was an ardent supporter of a grant in aid of Catholic schools. If, however, the conduct attributed to him be true, we can only say that it is no wonder rigid Presbyterians oppose the question of a grant. A "house divided against itself," &c is an old adage having the weight of scripture attached to it. How then can Catholics expect to obtain their just rights when they are not true to themselves? The question of a grant in aid of St. Dunstan's College is simple justice. No Catholic need be ashamed to advocate it. A properly constituted Government would not refuse it for an instant. On the ground of principle it is justice itself. On the ground of expediency and gratitude it is equally just, and if it were not that the Presbyterian element predominates in the Councils of the Country it would hardly be refused. We never could understand what it is that causes Presbyterians to have such a dislike to give aid or comfort to Catholicity? Can it be that they wish to keep the Catholic portion of the population in ignorance? or is it from some inherent dislike known only to themselves? From whatever cause the dislike proceeds it appears that they are the most determined enemies to the question of a grant of money in aid of Catholic Schools. This week we do not wish to pursue the subject. At another time we may have occasion to give our views at greater length upon it

The editor of the Progress ought to be very much obliged to us for giving him material out of which to manufacture a two column article in his issue of the 22nd inst. Indeed we do not know what he would do for thunder were it not for the much abused Examiner. We are sure Mr. Kirwan himself feels thankful to us for giving him a little notoriety. He was long enough vegetating in obscurity until we took him in hand. Whenever the Summerside animal becomes too obnoxious, and we want a little diversion, we stir him up with a long pole. At such times it is amusing to witness his contortions. This week we will allow him a little repose, as he must be very fatigued after the violent exertions which he has recently undergone.

DOWEY.

We understand that the Administrator has respited Dowey until Tuesday, the 6th April, in order to give the unfortunate man the benefit of any particulars that may come by the English Mail, which is now daily expected. If there is nothing further received from the Home Authorities modifying the despatch received by cable, the execution will take place on that day.

THE GOVERNOR'S SALARY.

The people of this Colony are called upon by the Colonial Minister to pay the Governor's Salary. We could hardly expect anything else to be the case. The Governor felt himself aggrieved at the shabby treatment which he received at the hands of the Colonial Assembly in the matter of coal, or some other trifling thing, which he contended should be provided for him at the public expense, but which was not, and the consequence is he has been representing our meanness or something worse at the Colonial Office. The Imperial authorities, it appears, only require a hint to snub and humble us, because of our refusal to enter the Confederacy. In no other light can we view the recent despatch of the Colonial Minister. It is in open violation of their own compact. They willingly accepted the burden of the Governor's salary in lieu of all the claims which this Colony had against them, and their breaking the bargain at this hour is to say the least of it, mean in the extreme. In private dealings the word of an honorable man would be his bond, but the Government of Great Britain, which dictates to this Island, feels no compunction at breaking a bargain of its own making. Why should we be called upon to pay the debts of the British Government? And yet, this is what we have been doing since the first emigrant put his foot on the shores of the Island. Mr. Hensley proposes to raise the amount required—two thousand two hundred and fifty pounds—by an additional tax on lands. We object to this mode of direct taxation. If an Imperial officer, bearing the title of Governor is a public benefit, all classes alike should contribute towards paying his salary. The best way in our opinion to obtain the desired result is by indirect taxation; and the Government in framing their tariff, can best tell which articles will bear additional burthens. To tax the hard working farmers of this Island alone for such a purpose is simply preposterous. And besides it would raise such a hue and cry against the Government as would sweep it out of existence in a very short time. When we are called upon to pay the Governor's salary, we should have the nomination of that officer ourselves, and we hope the Government will make this a necessary part of the stipulation.

THE ORATORIO CONCERT.

We understand His Lordship the Bishop of Charlottetown has kindly given the free use of St. Patrick's Hall in May next, for the above Concert. It will be finished by that time; and certainly the music will be heard to advantage on the occasion. In our advertising columns will be seen the programme and words of the selections which have been chosen for the occasion. The solos are, we believe, in the hands of some of the best vocalists in Charlottetown, aided by a powerful and efficient chorus, already amounting to some thirty singers; and, as no limit is made to number in the invitations, (which, we learn, have been extended also to gentlemen) we hope, for the credit of our community, that many more ladies and gentlemen will yet come forward, as is usual everywhere else, without respect to sect, social position or other motives. We subjoin an extract from a cotemperary about the Halifax Oratorio.

"The brilliant and successful concert of the Halifax Philharmonic Society, on Monday evening, affords a most pleasing proof of the progress making by all classes of our citizens in the cultivation of music Amateurs, male and female, make themselves proficient in the art, WITHOUT DEROGATION TO THEIR POSITION IN THE WORLD, and the practice of an elegant and refined accomplishment enters largely into the social pleasures of life, from the HIGHEST AND MOST FASHIONABLE TO THE HUMBLEST CIRCLES IN EVERY CIVILIZED COMMUNITY."

The Halifax Philharmonic Society is composed, we believe, of about 120 ladies and gentlemen.

The Entertainment of the Literary and Debating Society, in aid of the Whelan Monument Fund, came off on Monday evening, as announced. The audience was highly respectable, though not quite so numerous as could be desired The programme was not too varied; but the length of some of the essays and recitations, protracted the entertainment to nearly 11 o'clock. The President's opening remarks were conceived in a good spirit; the original poetry of Messrs. J LePage and C W. Hall, was of no mean order; the essays of Messrs. G W. Howlan R. Shaw, and R. Fitzgerald, were characteristic of these gentlemen; and the readings of Messrs. P S McGowan, G Peake, G. Millner and F S. Longworth, were such as to elicit high applause; and Messrs. Earle and Vinnicombe, and Mr. J. Welsh, successfuly ministered to the musical tastes of the audience The hero-worship on the occasion was, we think, a little overdone, but altogether the affair passed off well. The total sum realized was about £15.—Pat.

We are pleased to find that the Honorable Mr. HOWLAN has brought before the Assembly the subject of stocking the rivers of this Island with salmon. The Hon GEORGE BEER, some weeks ago, by a communication to the newspapers, introduced the same subject to the notice of the public We have several rivers well adapted for salmon, and we need but say that salmon are a very valuable fish, for which there is an unlimited demand, and if they abounded in our rivers, they would annually bring us large sums of money There would not be the least difficulty in creating an extensive and valuable salmon fishery in ST PETER'S BAY and the rivers which empty into it. WINTER RIVER, the DUNK RIVER, and several other rivers might also be stocked.—provided always that the salmon could be protected from depredators. It would be easy to fill the rivers with salmon, if the rivers could be protected. The difficulty of protecting the fish is the chief one. Let the Government pass the requisite laws, and sell by auction the exclusive right to the salmon in the several rivers of the Island, and ere long we shall have abundance of salmon, and a new branch of industry,—a new source of wealth will have been created without any cost to the revenue, and by the withdrawal, for the general good, of individual privileges now little more than nominal and altogether valueless —Isl.

We understand the Messrs Palmer have offered their portion of Lot 1, for sale to the Government. It is a well settled Township, occupied by good paying tenants, and we hope they will, ere long, become freeholders.—IB.

C. Y. M. L. Institute.

Stephen Swabey, Esq., delivered a lecture in St. Andrew's Hall, before the Catholic Young Men's Literary Institute on Wednesday evening last, on the political and public life of the late Hon. Edward Whelan. The learned lecturer reviewed the political career of the late Mr. Whelan from the time of his first arrival in the British Colonies; and so ably did he portray his character, that the members of the Institute unanimously agreed to request Mr Swabey to furnish the manuscript to enable them to get the entire lecture published.

Mr. Henry G. McIntire will lecture before the above Institute on Wednesday evening next, on the life of O'Connell.

Y. M. C. A. Literary Class.

The subject for debate next Wednesday evening will be, "Was the Reformation an Intellectual or a Religious Movement?"

The annual meeting of the Wesleyan Young Men's Missionary Society will be held in the Wesleyan Chapel this (Monday) evening. The Chair will be taken at seven, p. m. An interesting meeting may be anticipated, as several young gentlemen will deliver addresses appropriate to the occasion.

Our own correspondent informs us that the Congregation of St. James' Church, Chatham, has given a call to Rev Mr. McWilliam, of P. E. Island to succeed the late Dr. Henderson.—Presby. Witness.

WANTED.

A number of Lady Singers wanted to assist at the Sacred Oratorio Concert, to be given in May next, in aid of the Whelan Memorial Fund, by the Musical Ladies of Charlottetown.

N. B.—The following rule will be observed:—Any Lady, after attending one or more Practices, every Monday and Thursday evening, at 4 o'clock, at Mr. Scott's Hall, and afterwards withdrawing her services, will be charged at the rate of five shillings for each lesson that she may have attended.

The beef exhibited in Saturday's market was the best we have ever seen. Messrs. Blake exhibited five carcasses, which weighed in round numbers about 6000 pounds. Mr Robert Bridges had four, the weight of which was about 3,500, and Messrs. McKay and Comeford four, which weighed 3,174. We can hardly give too much parise to the four butchers we have mentioned; their enterprise in procuring such meat deserves to be encouraged. The Messrs Blake especially deserve special mention. They are young men scarcely out of their teens—mere boys, we might say,—yet for enterprise and sagacity in their business, they have no equal in this Colony. We trust they may long live to cater to their customers in such style as they did on Saturday last. The value of the beef exhibited by them was about £300. The following is the dead weight of the heaviest cattle:—

Blake's Ox [Mutch's]	1366 lbs.
" Heifer	1202 "
" Cow	1028 "
" Cow [Wright's]	920 "
" Cow	730 "
" Cow [Holman's]	700 "
Bridge's Ox	1220 "
" Cow [Haythorne's]	785 "
" Cow [Tweedy's]	710 "
" Cow [Wright's]	600 "
McKay and Comerford's Heifer [Alex McKinley's]	850 "
" Ox [McKinley's]	900 "
" Cow [McKinley's]	693 "
" Ox [McDonald's]	820 "

We have to remind our Subscribers—those indebted for the EXAMINER for 1868—that our liabilities are very heavy, and we will be thankful to them one and all—to pay without delay the small amounts severally due by them. Although the amount may appear small to each individually, still, to us, when taken in the aggregate, would sum up some hundreds of pounds.

Messrs. FALCONER & PATRICK will please accept our thanks for a box each of Gipsy Enameled and Linen Finish Shirt Collars. They were just the fit. We would recommend those wishing a nice Collar and a good fit to give Messrs. Falconer & Patrick a call These Collars are now selling at half their former price.

It will be seen, by an advertisement in another column, that the Steamer ALHAMBRA will leave Boston for Charlottetown about the 10th April next.

It will be seen that Mr. EARLE is to preside as Director at the Oratorio Concert to be given in May next.

The "Patriot" says that a woman, representing herself to be the wife of a seaman, one of the crew of the "Clara Novello" supposed to be lost is going about from house to house soliciting charity. She accompanies her petition for relief with profuse abuse of the Messrs. Peake, declaring that though wages are due her husband, she cannot get a penny from them Now we are informed on the best authority that not one of the men who sailed in the ill-fated vessel left a wife or family on the Island The whole story is consequently a fabrication We are quite sure that had any of the seamen left wives behind them on the Island the Messrs. Peake would have seen them comfortably provided for until the fate of the vessel was ascertained

WESLEYAN TOTAL ABSTINENCE SOCIETY.—A public Temperance Meeting will, (D.V) be held in connection with the above Society, in the basement of the Wesleyan Church, on the evening of Wednesday, the 31st inst. Chair to be taken at eight o clock. Mr. J. H. Fletcher (of Orwell), and other gentlemen may be expected to address the meeting. FRED. S. MOORE, Sec'y.

QUEEN'S COUNTY AGRICULTURAL SOCIETY.

A meeting was held in Scott's Hall on Tuesday evening last, to take into consideration the propriety of organizing an Agricultural Society for Queen's County. Between 40 and 50 leading farmers, from different sections of the country were present. The Hon. Robert P. Haythorne, M. L. C., was called to the chair, and Mr. D. Currie was requested to act as Secretary. Mr Haythorne having stated the object for which the meeting had been convened, pointed out the necessity for an Agricultural Society, and enumerated some of the advantages which, if properly conducted, it would confer upon the farmers, it was moved by the Hon George Beer, M. L. C., seconded by Thomas Essery, Esq., and unanimously Resolved, that this meeting do organize itself into an Agricultural Society, to be called the Queen's County Agricultural Society.

On motion of Charles Palmer, Esq, the following was adopted as a basis of the constitution and objects of the Society:—

The objects of the Society shall be to hold exhibitions of Cattle, Corn, Roots, and other objects, and offer premiums therefor; to procure and disseminate accurate information, affecting the interests of agriculture; it necessary to import, to order, seeds and implements, and to assist generally the local government in carrying out Exhibitions of local industry, ploughing matches, and the breeding of live stock at the Stock Farm, and such other objects as the nature of the Society shall require.

That the said Society do consist of a President three Vice Presidents and members; and that an annual subscription of 6s be paid by each member, on payment of which he shall be entitled to all the privileges of membership.

That the affairs of the Society be managed by the President, or in his absence by one of the Vice Presidents, and a Committe of twelve members.

The President, the three Vice Presidents, and the twelve Committee men, shall be chosen at an annual meeting of the members, by a majority of votes there present, and shall hold office till the next annual meeting. Seven to be a quorum

The annual meeting shall be held in Charlottetown, on some day of the week preceding Easter Sunday. The day, hour and place of meeting to be made known by public advertisement; but the said meeting may be adjourned, if necessary, for any period not exceeding twenty-one days, and the powers of the retiring officers shall continue during the adjournment.

The Committee shall have power to appoint a Secretary and Treasurer, and to pay him for his services such sum as they may think proper, and they may cancel the appointment whensoever they see fit. Agreed to.

The Hon. G. Beer, Hon. R. P. Haythorne, Hon J. C. Pope, C Palmer, H. Longworth, Alex. Robertson, Wm. Swabey, W. S. McNeill, M. P. P., John Johnson, and David Mutch, Esquires, were appointed a committee to prepare an act of incorporation and a code of bye laws, to be submitted to a general meeting of the members, which Committee shall, in the meantime, have power to transact all business of the Society, to call general meetings, &c.

On motion of D. W. Palmer, Esq, a subscription list was opened, when thirty-three gentlemen enrolled themselves as members. The subscriptions range from £2 downwards, and amounted in all to £22 5s. 6d. Several farmers present expressed themselves highly favorable to the object for which the meeting had been called, and others did so by letter We wish the Society success, and hope the agriculturalists of Queen's County will rally to its support, and show that they appreciate the advantages of corporation and mutual consultation —Pat.

GEORGE LEWIS, Market Clerk.

PROGRAMME OF THE
ORATORIO CONCERT
To be given in May next.

No. 1. Introduction, Instrumental, Conductor.
The representation of Chaos

No. 5. Soprano, Solo and Chorus.—The marvellous work behold

"The marvellous work behold amaz'd,
The glorious heirarchy of Heaven;
And to th'ethereal vaults resound
The praise of God and of the second day."

No. 8. Recitative, Soprano —And God said

"And God said, Let the earth bring forth grass,
The herb yeilding seed, and the fruit tree
Yielding fruit after his kind whose
Seed is in itself upon the earth, and it was so.

No. 9. Air, Soprano.— With verdure clad.

"With verdure clad the hills appear.
Delightful to the ravished sense;
By flowers sweet and gay.
Enhanced is the charming sight.
Here fragrant herbs their odors shed;
Here shoots the healing plant;
With copious fruit the expanded boughs are hung;
In leafy arches twine the shady groves;
O'er lofty hills majestic forests wave.

No. 10. Recitative Tenor—And the Heavenly Host.

And the Heavenly Host proclaimed the third day, praising God and saying:

Awake the harp, the lyre awake,
And let your joyful song resound
Rejoice in the Lord the mighty God:
For He both the heaven and the earth
Hath clothed in stately dress.

No 15. Recitative Soprano.—And God said.

"And God said Let the waters bring forth abundantly the moving creature that hath life and fowl that may fly above the earth in the open firmament of Heaven.

No. 16. Air Soprano.- On Mighty pens.

On mighty pens uplifted soars
The eagle aloft, and cleaves the air
In swiftest flight to the blazing sun.
His welcome bids to morn the merry lark,
And cooing calls the tender dove his mate.

No. 23. Solo, Bass—Now Heaven in fullest glory Shone.

Now heaven in fullest glory shone;
Earth smil'd in all her rich attire;
The room of air by fowl is fill'd;
The water filled by shoals of fish;
By heavy beasts the ground is trod:
But all the work is not complete:
There wanted yet that wondrous being,
That, grateful, should God's power admire,
With heart and voice his goodness praise

No. 24. Recitative, Tenor—And God created Man.

And God created man in His own image;
In the image of God created He him;
Male and female created He them;
He breathed into his nostrils the breath of life,
And man became a living soul.

No 27. Trio, Soprano, Tenor and Bass—On thee each living soul.

On Thee each living soul awaits,
From Thee, O Lord, all seek their food.
Thou openest Thy hand,
And all are filled with good.
But when Thy face, O Lord, is hid,
With sudden terror they are struck;
Thou tak'st their breath away,
They vanish into dust.

Intermission.

No. 1. Overture. Instrumental. Conductor.
THE MESSIAH.—HANDEL.

No. 17. Chorus—Glory to God.

Glory to God in the Highest, and peace on earth, good will towards men.

No. 45. Solo, Soprano—I know that my Redeemer liveth.

I know that my Redeemer liveth, and that He shall stand at the latter day upon the earth; and though worms destroy this body, yet in my flesh shall I see God.

For now is Christ risen from the dead, the first fruits of them that sleep.

No. 38. How beautiful are the feet.

How beautiful are the feet of them that preach the gospel of peace, and bring glad tidings of good things

No. 31. Recitative, Soprano—He was cut off.

He was cut off out of the land of the living for the transgressions of his people was he stricken.

No 32. Air, Soprano—But thou didst not leave.

But thou didst not leave His soul in hell; nor didst Thou suffer Thy Holy one to see corruption

No. 51. Instrumental—The Trumpet shall Sound. Conductor. Trumpets, &c.

No. 56. Chorus—Commencing at the Larghetto and concluding at the Adagio—Blessing and Honor.

Blessing and honor, glory and power, be unto Him that sitteth upon the throne, and unto the Lamb, for ever and ever. Amen
