

After 52 Year Absence Visits His Native Home

J. Alfred Robison of Dayton, Ohio, paid a visit to his native home on P.E.I. after an absence of 52 years. Now in his eightieth year he saw many changes in and around Grand Tracade where he was born and attended school, the main one being the National Park. While here he visited with his brother, Joseph Robison of Stanhope, and sister Mrs. Agnes Macaulay, Spring Park Road. He is also a brother of the late Michael Robison, Sr., and the late Mrs. B. McKinnon of Charlottetown.

Accompanying him on his visit were two daughters and grand children, Mrs. Earl Baker and sons James and William and Mrs. Agnes Crabtree.

His wife Teresa Kloebe passed away on January 7, 1958. After spending a very enjoyable holiday, the visitors left for their homes on July 9.

Reopening of Public Schools

School Boards of districts which have a fall vacation of two weeks should plan to have their schools reopen for the year 1958-59 on August 12 or 13. School Boards of districts having other arrangements for vacation should keep in mind that the school year consists of 200 teaching days (including convention days) when determining the date of reopening their schools.

IN MEMORIAM THOMAS WIGMORE

Thomas Wigmores passed away on June 16, 1958, at his home in Kensington, Thomm Wigmore, after several months illness.

He was born at Graham's Road on August 7, 1877, the youngest son of the late Henry and Mary Wigmores.

On January 30, 1907, he was married in marriage with Katie Wigmores, of Pleasant Valley who survives him. Of this union were born four sons and four daughters: Dr. Fred of Moose Jaw, Saskatchewan, and Cecil of Montreal, both of whom arrived before their father's passing. Hazen was in the Civil Service in Ottawa, and was ill at the time and unable to be home and Elmer of Charlottetown. The daughters are: Christine, Mrs. Edgar MacKinnon, Mrs. Edna, Mrs. Kenneth White, Hunter River, Adelaide, Mrs. Milton Weeks, Pleasant Valley, Mildred, Mrs. Harold Macdonald, Kensington.

There are also twenty-three grandchildren. Three brothers and three sisters predeceased him.

Mr. Wigmores was a member of the Kensington United Church, the A.F. and A.M. Masonic Lodge and the Stanley Bridge and the Royal Orange Lodge at Breadalbane.

Mr. Donald MacKay, Clinton, is spending a holiday in Kensington, guest of his uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Hodge Montgomery and family.

The many friends will be pleased to know that Mr. Frank Bagole in making a good recovery following his recent illness and has returned to his home in Kelvin Grove, from the P.E.I. Hospital, Charlottetown.

The many friends of Mrs. Horace Paynter will be pleased to learn that she is recovering from her recent illness and has returned to her home in Kelvin Grove from the Prince County Hospital.

Mrs. Esutace Paynter who is a patient in the Rehabilitation Center, Provincial Sanatorium, Charlottetown, was a weekend visitor to her home in Norborn. Her many friends are happy in her continued improvement in health.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Caseley have returned from Hamilton, Ontario, to Kensington where Mr. Caseley has accepted a position as manager of the Kensington Cooperative Association, succeeding Mr. Keith Stewart who has accepted a position with a Summerside Cooperative business.

Mrs. D. Roy Ingraham has returned to her home in Kensington after an enjoyable visit with relatives and friends in Louisburg.

Cpl. Donald B. MacKay, R.C.A.F. of Centralia, Ont., paid a brief visit to Breadalbane where he was the guest of his mother, Mrs. Hugh F. MacKay, and also called on his sister, Mrs. Robert Stewart-MacMillan Government.

In 1915 he was appointed Shipyard Magistrate for the town of Kensington and afterwards for Charlottetown, a position which he held until his health forced his retirement.

On January 30, 1957, Mr. and Mrs. Wigmores observed their Golden Wedding Anniversary surrounded by many members of their family, relatives and a large number of friends.

A kind neighbor and a good friend, together with his sociable disposition won him many friends who enjoyed him. A tribute to his kindness was shown in the many expressions of sympathy and the largely attended funeral service, possibly the largest in the area, which was held from the Kensington United Church on the 18th.

The service was conducted by the Rev. Lewis M. Murray, B.A. B. who chose as his text 2 Timothy 4: 7, "I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course; I have kept the faith". The hymns sung were, "The Lord's Prayer" and "We'll Sing We Have in Jesus". Mr. Wigmores Walker rendered a solo "The Old Rugged Cross".

The honorary pallbearers were Messrs W.R. Shaw, M. W. Wood, Frank Myers, Frank Arnett, Aubrey Cutcliffe, John Weeks, C.C. Preston, Preston Sentner, R. R. George Brookins, Louis O. Kennedy, P.J. Kennedy and Charles Kennedy.

The active pallbearers were: Messrs William Buchanan, Frank Campbell, Reginald Healtz, Ray Macdonald, Harold Sharp and Borden Campbell.

Flower bearers were Messrs Donald MacKinnon, Joseph Wigmores, Hugh MacKinnon, Francis Wigmores, Austin Wigmores, and C. C. Macdonald.

The Masonic service at the funeral was conducted by Mr. Reginald Healtz, Intervent was in the Kensington Memorial Gardens, Charlottetown.

Following are the Floral Tributes:

MEET YOUR IMPERIAL ESSO DEALER

While viewing the many historic exhibits housed in Prince Edward Island's far famed Provincial Building, visitors to the province can leave their cars for any necessary check-up at the Grafton Street Imperial Esso Service Station which is located almost directly across the street to the rear of the Capitol Theatre.

Operated by Edgar S. Hayes, this recently built Imperial Oil outlet is situated in the centre of a large spacious paved area and includes large free parking space at the rear of the premises.

A veteran of World War II, Edgar spent six years in the Canadian Army; five of them overseas. A brother Bill Hayes is also associated in this Service Station business.

Four other mechanics and attendants are also employed at this big Imperial Esso Station. One of them Omer Gorveatt has been employed in this service station for the past eight years.

At the Grafton Street Imperial Esso Service Station, motorists can purchase Atlas Tires, Batteries and accessories in addition to other regular Imperial Oil products such as Esso and Esso Extra gasoline.

This station is open each weekday from 7:45 a.m. to 9:00 p.m. and on Sunday's from 9:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m.
