

ACTIVE YEAR

Committee gave a very vivid picture of how the funds for the past year were raised and emphasized how all must cooperate provincially in money-making projects.

Mrs. C. H. Beer read the report of the Hospitality Committee which showed they had a busy year.

Miss Gladys Hart International Commissioner, stated she had visited Companies and Packs hoping to interest them in the World Knowledge Badge.

Miss Carrie Holman, Commissioner of Lone Guides, reported that there are at present 53 Lone Guides on the Island, and a special letter, "The Merry-Go-Round" is sent monthly to these girls.

Mrs. J. A. Lawson reported for the Music Committee and said the Brownie singing competition will be held in Charlottetown Thursday, April 20th and in Summerside and Kensington April 27th.

Mrs. G. E. Hartline, commissioner of training, reported that training classes under the direction of Mrs. Harry Cudmore, Miss Susan MacKinnon and Mrs. Fred Pickard had been held this past winter and it is hoped that other classes will be formed in the near future.

Mrs. Fred Jenkins, Field Secretary, stated that Guiding is in a much better condition than last year but badge work could be stimulated to a much greater degree.

Provincial Commissioner

Mrs. J. Gordon MacDonald, Provincial Commissioner, mentioned the impetus the visit of the Chief Guide, Mrs. Wishart, had given to Guiding provincially. She spoke feelingly of the great loss suffered through the passing of one of our great supporters, Mrs. W. M. Rowe, who had much of her time and talents to Guiding. The work accomplished by each Department in Guiding was spoken of briefly by Mrs. MacDonald and thanks expressed to one and all who assisted in any way with the furthering of the program.

At the conclusion of the reports Mrs. E. M. Bagnall spoke feelingly of the splendid work accomplished this past year in all departments.

Miss Lillian Duchemin gave a commentary on the World Friendship film. The World Association Conference was held at Cooperstown, N. Y., when the United States, Canada and Brazil were hostesses. Delegates attended from Australia, Belgium, Brazil, Canada, Denmark, Norway, Pakistan, Finland, Sweden, Switzerland, United States, Greece, Italy, and the Philippines.

Mrs. H. L. Palmer then read the report of the Nominating Committee which appears elsewhere in this paper.

Miss Mona Wilson, Head of Awards, expressed the deep thanks and appreciation of the Guide Movement of Prince Edward Island to Mrs. MacDonald, and presented her with the Medal of Merit. A letter from the Chief Commissioner also expressing her thanks to Mrs. MacDonald was read by Miss Wilson.

Mrs. MacDonald thanked those present for the honour accorded her, and welcomed the new Provincial Commissioner, Mrs. J. G. Hutchison and the incoming executive.

Mrs. Hutchison thanked those present for appointing her to such an important position. She also said how interesting the various reports had been and that itself was sufficient proof of the healthy state of Girl Guiding in Prince Edward Island.

The meeting closed with the singing of The King.

ADDITIONAL DIESEL ENGINES

It is expected that four more diesel-electric locomotives will arrive in the Province during the latter part of this week.

The tentative schedule provides for later four-unit deliveries from Montreal during the weeks of May 1 and May 18 respectively.

LEAVES FOR OTTAWA—Mr. J. O. C. Campbell, Deputy Attorney General, leaves today to attend the final sittings at Ottawa of the Royal Commission on Transportation. He will be absent about three weeks. Attorney General Darby will leave later to attend the sittings.

IN HOSPITAL—Reported resting comfortably Tuesday morning and in good spirits was F. G. Kennedy, Veterans' Land Act regional councillor from Charlottetown. He was rushed to Victoria Public Hospital at Fredericton N. B. Monday night with what was feared to be a coronary thrombosis. Mr. Kennedy was in Fredericton attending the 10-day operation preceding a conference at the Lord Beaverbrook Hotel, now in its second week.

land, Switzerland, United States, Greece, Italy, and the Philippines, while Guatemala, Bahamas, Trinidad, Cuba and Mexico were visitors. We belong to one of the few international organizations that is really accomplishing something towards world peace. We must be proud of our record and go out and tell others about it so we will have companies and packs enough to take in every girl in the Province who wants to join the sisterhood of Guiding.

Miss Iphigene Arsenault showed the film to those assembled and it was an inspiring sight to see so many guides, Commissioners, and staff all working together harmoniously in spite of many differences of country, race and religion—Girl Guiding binding them all together so strongly to bigger and better things.

Mrs. H. L. Palmer then read the report of the Nominating Committee which appears elsewhere in this paper.

COOK'S for Photographs.

WINS HAT—Miss Louise Rossiter of 77 McGill Ave., was the lucky winner of the Adela Hat which was lottered at the Spring Bonnet Tea, held by the Junior League of the Charlottetown Hospital yesterday afternoon.

VISIT OF MAJ. GENERAL BURNS — In the near future the officials of the Department of Veterans Affairs on the Island will be given permission to make all decisions concerning veterans' affairs without consulting Ottawa, stated Maj. General E. L. M. Burns, O.B.E., M.C., Assistant Deputy Minister of the Federal Department, who arrived in Charlottetown last night on a routine visit. The proposed new procedure will save considerable time in dealing with Island veterans' affairs, General Burns stated.

SODALITY MEETING — The monthly meeting of the Junior Sodality of Notre Dame Academy was held on Sunday afternoon at the convent with the president, Miss Alma Sheehan, presiding. Plans were made for a retreat which will be held at Notre Dame Convent on May 5, 6 and 7 to be conducted by Rev. Joseph Delaney, C.Ss.R. They also decided to hold a dance in Holy Name Hall on Tuesday, May 23. Following a business session, tea was served and the members enjoyed a visit from Mother St. Anne, past advisor of the Sodality.

Rev. Eugene L. Murray, parish priest at St. James Church, Summerside and Rev. J. Douglas McNeill, R.C.A.P. Chaplain at the Summerside airport will leave this morning on the first lap of a Holy Year visit to Rome.

In addition to visiting Rome the two priests plan on visiting several points in France stopping for a time at Lourdes. On the way back from Italy and France they will visit in England and Scotland.

Tomorrow evening they will leave Quebec City on the Cunard White Star liner Franconia. They expect to be away about two and one half months.

Father Murray is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Murray, Grafton Street, Charlottetown, and Father McNeill is the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. B. McNeill, Summerside.

TO CHANGE DATE

and gazetting of such an order-in-council usually takes 30 days. Hence the change of date as requested would not be feasible for 1950.

Fisheries Department officials also pointed out that no similar request for change of date of the lobster season had been received from lobster fishermen in Nova Scotia and New Brunswick.

Commenting on the official decision of the minister, Mr. McLure said he felt the request of the P. E. I. Fisheries Federation had been a most reasonable one. When opening of a fishing season coincided with a week-end, he said, no little inconvenience was caused. He pointed out that lobstermen seeking the change showed great faith in suggesting that the season close two days earlier to compensate for an earlier opening.

The Queen's member said it was a bad commentary on government procedure when it took a month to get through a very simple matter such as a two-day shift in the date of opening of a fishing season. It was just such departmental and administrative delays that are under fire by the leader of the opposition at the present time.

"This is simply another example of the costly and cumbersome methods used by the present government," Mr. McLure said. "It is high time that the cabinet pulled itself out of the horse and buggy age."

He declined to comment on the suggestion that the lobster season be opened the same day each week in future years. This is a technical matter, he said, which no doubt will be discussed by the P. E. I. Fisheries Federation and its members.

Annual Meeting Of Canadian Press

TORONTO, April 19 — (CP) — Herve Major, news editor of Montreal La Presse, today was elected president of the Canadian Press, Canada's Co-operative News Service. He succeeds Victor Sifton, publisher of the Winnipeg Free Press, president for the last two years.

Frederick I. Ker, publisher of the Hamilton Spectator and president of CP in 1946-48, was elected honorary president succeeding Senator W. A. Buchanan of the Lethbridge Herald.

Roy H. Thomson, of the Thomson Dailies, was elected first vice-president; and R. J. Rankin, managing editor of the Halifax Mail-Star, second vice-president.

The new president of the CP has been an active newspaperman for 30 years. After graduating in 1918 from the College de Montreal, he worked for a year as a reporter with Le Devoir, served four years with Le Canada, and joined La Presse in 1923 as a copy-reader and rewrite man. He was appointed assistant news editor of La Presse in 1928 and two years later became news editor. He has been a member of the Canadian Press since 1939 and a director since 1943. He was elected second vice-president in 1946 and first vice-president in 1948.

Officers of the Association were chosen by the Board of Directors after the annual general meeting of members, at which Mr. Sifton reported on the co-operative's operating position, and Gillis Purcell, general manager, on details of the news service.

The meeting re-affirmed the basic principle of CP, an organization which for 30 years has exchanged news between the various areas of Canada, as "the accurate and prompt provision of the news of all member districts for the benefit of members generally."

Five transfers of membership were reported to the meeting. They were: St. John's Daily News from J. S. Currie to L. Chaney Currie; Sydney Post-Record from H. P. Duchemin to Roy D. Duchemin; Woodstock Sentinel-Review from C. O. Taham to C. G. Kinsey; Chatham News from E. C. Young to Joseph Emmott; Nelson News from the late F. F. Payne to C. W. Ramson.

Under a revision of by-laws, the annual meeting reduced the CP's Board of Directors from 21 to 19 members. For the first time directors were elected by secret ballot. Those chosen were: British Columbia — P. C. Galbraith, Vancouver Province; H. P. Hodges, Victoria Times.

Prairie — W. A. MacDonald, Edmonton Journal; R. M. Cantlon, Saskatoon Star-Phoenix; D. B. Rogers, Regina Leader-Post; Victor Sifton, Winnipeg Free Press.

Ontario — Senator W. Rupert Davies, Kingston Whig-Standard; Frederick I. Ker, Hamilton Spectator; Arthur R. Ford, London Free Press; R. A. Farquharson, Toronto Globe and Mail; John E. Motz, Kitchener-Waterloo Record; Roy H. Thomson, Timmins Press.
