FAMILIAR REPORT

HALIFAX — (CP) — Annual report on penal institutions said some Nova Scotia jails "are still far from being in an acceptable or satisfactory condition." The report noted that "adverse reports have been submitted on more than one occasion," applying to some larger centres as well as smaller places.

O'Leary and Vicinity

—Mr. and Mrs. Leigh Chisholm left O'Leary on the morning train, March 10th, to return to their home near Kerrobert, Sask.

—Perley McNeil, Mount Royal, recently underwent an operation at the Prince County Hospital, Summerside. The many friends of this young lad wish him a speedy convalescence.

—Hon. Forrest Phillips and Mr. Phillips, O'Leary, left on Monday, March 10th, to attend the opening of the Provincial Legislature in Charlottetown. Hon. Mr. Phillips is the Speaker of the House.

Miss Hattie MacPadyen of Brae is a patient in the Prince County Hospital in Summerside. Her many friends wish her a speedy recovery.

Mr. James Lockhart of the R. C. A. F. has been spending a few days in Coleman, the guest of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Stanford Lockhart.

Mr. Russel MacLean of West Point, a veteran of both World Wars, is a patient in the Veterans' Wing of the Hospital in Charlottetown. His many friends hope to see him home again soon.

Mr. and Mrs. Lorne Jelly, Charlottetown, have been spending a few days in O'Leary, guests of Mr. Jelly's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Milford Jelly, and other relatives.

Mr. C. Bulger of Milburn, has entered the Prince County Hospital in Summerside for an operation. All unite in wishing him a speedy recovery.

Miss Blanche Matthews, who is employed with the Summerside Branch of the Bank of Nova Scotia, spent a recent week-end in O'Leary, the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John A. Matthews.

Mrs. George Matthews, O'Leary, left on Monday morning's train, March 3rd, for Halifax, N. S., where she will visit her son, Welton, and family. She will also visit her son, Elmer, and family at the Greenwood Air Base, N. S. Elmer is a member of the R. C. A. F.

—Mr. Allan Matthews, son of Mr. and Mrs. John A. Matthews of O'Leary, an employee of the Bank of Nova Scotia in Ottawa, has received his transfer to the branch of the Bank in New York. He formerly served at the branch of the Bank of Nova Scotia in Truro, N. S., and O'Leary, P. E. I.

On Wednesday, March 5, the road was opened from O'Leary to Summerside but to date the road is still blocked from O'Leary to Alberton, being cleared only as far as Bloomfield United Church and St. Anthony's Roman Catholic Church. There's a tremendous depth of snow on the hills from there on. Much credit is due the snowplow crews.

Dr. and Mrs. Templeton left on Wednesday, March 5, for Summerside, where they will board a plane to return to their home in Bell Island, Newfoundland. While in O'Leary they were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Jelly. They were called to O'Leary on the death of Mrs. Templeton's father, the late Mr. Walter F. Neal, who for the past five years had been the Clothing Manager of Jelly's Department Store in O'Leary.

Mr. James MacGregor, who is with the Army in British Columbia, arrived in O'Leary on Wednesday night, March 5. He was called home by the death of his father, the late Mr. Alonzo MacGregor, who was laid to rest in the Springfield West Baptist cemetery that afternoon, following service in the O'Leary United Church. Mr. MacGregor will visit his wife and family, also his mother, and other members of his family.

ALBERTON W. I.

—Mrs. R. E. Macdonald was hostess to Alberton Women's Institute on Friday evening, March 7th, when twelve members and four visitors assembled for the March meeting.

Mrs. C. H. Weeks presided and roll call was answered with a place name on Prince Edward Island beginning with the letter M. The treasurer, Mrs. Eric Corbett, reported a balance of $24.66 with some outstanding bills. These were ordered paid.

Correspondence was read by the secretary, Mrs. Arthur Wilkie, who also gave a condensation of a paper on school lunches. Supper menus and recipes were distributed and notice was received that the mobile X-ray unit will visit Alberton in May.

The visiting committee, Miss Annie Leard and Mrs. R. E. Macdonald, reported 16 home and 9 hospital calls. The secretary was asked to send cards to a member who has been ill and to two hospital patients. Mrs. Erskine Hardy and Mrs. Arthur Wilkie volunteered to act on the visiting committee for the coming month.

The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. C. H. Weeks when an auction will be held and each member was asked to contribute an article or articles to the value of one dollar. There will be a ceiling of one dollar on bids. It was suggested that each member bring a guest to this meeting.

Friday evening's program was in charge of Mrs. A. C. Green, Mrs. Michael Ahearn and Mrs. Cedric Hunter. It was comprised of the reading of two poems, "The Sorry Hostess," by Edgar Guest, and "Be The Best of Whatever You Are," by Douglas Malloch. A St. Patrick's contest and an observation contest. Delicious refreshments were served.—B.
