Union Squabble Threat To Two Maritime Groups

SYDNEY (CP) — An international union squabble is threatening to wreck the organization of two of the strongest labor groups in the Maritimes.

In what labor leaders here consider as a serious situation, the dispute between the United Mine Workers international and the Canadian Congress of Labor could spell the end of both the Nova Scotia Federation of Labor and the Cape Breton labor council.

Both the federation and the council are composed of unions affiliated with the CCL. But the non-payment of dues by John L. Lewis' UMW to the CCL could mean that the dozen or so UMW locals in Cape Breton will not be entitled to sit at the October national convention of the CCL. This is the convention of the CCL. This is the convention that will discuss possible merger of the CCL and the Trades and Labor Congress.

If the UMW's 11,000 members in district 26 — the Maritimes—thus lost their association with CCL it could mean they would no longer be entitled to sit on the labor council or the federation.

COULD WRECK BOTH

This could wreck both bodies. The presidents of both groups are UMW members and, as representatives of the largest single labor force in the Maritimes, UMW leaders have always provided a militant and experienced voice in labor affairs.

A Cape Breton labor council meeting during the weekend took no action on UMW connections. But it did reaffirm that the membership of UMW locals is essential to a "strong and militant" labor council and labor federation and "no matter what developments come to pass membership of the UMW Cape Breton and mainland locals in the various CCL bodies in the province must be maintained."

Have Celebrated 36 Joint Birthdays

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Linkletter of Linkletter Road entertained on Sunday honoring Mrs. Linkletter's father Mr. T. J. Inman and his friend Mr. Clifford Wright on their birthday. A beautifully decorated birthday cake centered the table. This was the 36th year that these two gentlemen have been celebrating this important event in their lives together.

As Mr. Inman has recently returned from an extensive trip to the West he showed slides of a number of former Islanders with their families and beautiful homes, also scenery of Banff, Victoria, the Calgary Stampede, Yellowstone Park, which all proved very interesting as Mr. Inman had just recently returned from visiting these places and friends.

Mr. Wright's daughter, Mrs. James Brady with her husband and son were present. Also present were Mrs. Inman and Mrs. Lillian Schurman, Bedeque, Mrs. W. A. Smith and son, Charlottetown. As the party broke up it was the wish of all present that these two dads will celebrate many more birthdays happily together. S.

Miscouche H & S

The first meeting of the Home and School Association of Miscouche was held September 21st at 8.30 p.m. in the grade seven and eight clssroom. The president Mr. J. L. McMillan called the meeting to order and asked the secretary to read the minutes of the last meeting which were adopted as read. The treasurers report showed a favorable balance.

At this point entertainment was provided in the form of a debate by the pupils of Grade Twelve. The subject was "Resolved that poverty is a hindrance to success in Life." Speakers on the pro side were Edward LeClair, Yvonne Cromier and Eleanor Tuplin; on the con side were Della Gaudet, Helen Ballum, and Erma Gallant. The speakers brought out excellent points on both sides and merit well-deserved credit for preparing the debate in a very short time. They kept members present highly attentive.

The judges, Mr. J.C. Poirier, Mrs. P.C. Martin and Mr. Jerry Richard submitted results in favour of speakers on the con side. Mr. D.H. Gallant congratulated speakers on their very good debate and commented on the wonderful opportunity pupils had for practise in public speaking at the convent. The meeting then made all arrangements for a field day which is to be held on the first suitable fine day. Arrangements included ribbon, prizes, a bingo, field day committees etc. Arrangements were also made to improve swings and tilts. Before adjourning, the Home and School Association passed a motion that $25.00 be donated towards expenses now being incurred in the new school. The program next month will be sponsored by the Grade Eleven Class.

Argument Continued

Common Law of England then became the law of this Colony as was applicable having regard to conditions here at that time. He then pointed out that the total population of the Province in 1768 was between 200 and 300 people both French and English and that there were no such things as Trade Unions at that time.

SAME AS REST OF CANADA

Mr. Bentley made reference to the fact that it had been established by the highest courts in the land that general legislation concerning Trade Unions was a matter for the Provinces and not for the Dominion and that every Province in the Dominion had its own Trade Unions, the same as in Prince Edward Island.

He spoke of the purpose of labour legislation in the promotion of industrial peace, stating, "What was good for the electrical worker of the Town of Summerside was good for the whole Town."

In making a review of his pleadings, the counsel for the plaintiff contended that practically all of the statements of fact made by the plaintiff had been admitted by the defendant.

The funeral will take place Wednesday morning with services at the Sacred Heart Church at 9..30. Interment will be in the church cemetery.

Associated Press 60-stock average.

It was the second biggest tumble in the history of the AP averages—a plunge of $11.40 to $170.10.

It was exceeded only by the fall of $15.40 to $109.70 on Oct. 28, 1929 in the days of the big crash. But Monday's drop was less severe proportionately because the average is much higher now.

The flood of sell orders boosted trading to 7,720,000 shares, highst in 22 years.

Bonds of corporations slumped, too, in sympathy with the stock market. But U. S government bonds went ahead, hewing to their traditional course of reacting opposite to the stock market.

Moderator Of United Church In Summerside

The Right Reverend George Dorey, B.A., D.D., LL.D., of Toronto, Moderator of the United Church of Canada will speak in Trinity United Church in Summerside this Wednesday at 8 p.m.

Special Showing Fight Pictures

Through the courtesy of the management of the Regent Theatre in Summerside, press and radio personnel were privileged to attend a special showing of the Marciano-Moore fight pictures which had their first of a two-night public showing in Summerside last evening.

Seen on the theatre's wide screen, the close-up, blow-by-blow action is shown in clarity that undoubtedly surpassed the view of those at ringside.

Added to this were the slow motion scenes of each knockdown as the film retraced, in slow motion, the action involved.

For fight fans this is certainly a film treat that provides fast action throughout its entirety. S.

Emerald Couple Celebrate Fortieth Wed. Anniversary

On the evening of August 10th many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Emmett Clow gathered at their home in Emerald to celebrate with them their fortieth wedding annicersary. Their four sons, Louis of Newton; Claud, R.C.A.F. Montreal; Earl and Ivan at home, were with them.

On this happy occasion an address was read by Claude and several beautiful gifts from the boys were presented by Louis.

An address was also read by Mr. Lloyd McCourt and a presentation made by Mrs. Earl Clow on behalf of friends and neighbors.

The groom of forty years ago, on behalf of his lovely bride, thanked their boys and friends who helped to make their fortieth wedding anniversary a happy occasion to be remembered.

Present at the celebration was Mrs. Robert Glover of Spring Valley, bridesmaid of Mrs. Clow the groomsman, Mr. Cameron, has passed to his eternal reward.

After a delicious lunch, the guests had a delightful time dancing to the music of Mr. Stephen Toole, Violin, and Miss Catherine Cash on piano.

The following addresses were read:

Dear Mother and Dad: The glad occasion of the fortieth anniversary of your wedding gives us, your children, an opportunity to offer you a public tribute of our love and gratitude.

We rejoice with you while we share your glad memories of forty years of happiness in the Christian home which you started on that sunny day in 1915 when you knelt at the foot of the altar of God and plighted your troth, "for better or worse." As the years went by there may have been times when we, as thoughtless children, made you wonder if it was mostly for worse as you toiled and sacrificed to give us your best.

But now we wish to say a very sincere "thank you" for all you have been to us and all you have done for us, giving us a pattern of what good parents should do in a Christian home. You have prayed with us and for us. You have taught us by your own fine example. You have cared for us in sickness, cheered us in our sorrows, and laughed with us in our joys. For these and all the lovely things that made you such a wonderful mother and dad to us, we are deeply grateful.

May we offer you tonight a small gift which is symbolic of the greetings and good wishes we have for this occasion. May the good God who has given you so many happy days together bless you with an abundance of joys in the future, and may He grant that we may all be together again in ten years time to close the links of the golden chain. From your devoted children.

Dear Mr. and Mrs. Clow; We, your friends and neighbors, wish to add a word of greeting on this happy occasion.

We congratulate you on the completion of forty years of wedded life. Many happy memories must fill your hearts today as you look back on the fourfold decade. Some of these are your own treasured secrets of love and companionship. Some of them you share with your fine family with whom you celebrate this happy anniversary. Others we too enjoy with you, as many of us have known you for many years, and we have reason to be thankful for the happy associations we have had with you as we worked or played or prayed together in our happy little community.

We offer you our very best wishes for many more years of health and happiness, and we ask you to accept a small remembrance of this happy occasion from your friends and neighbors.
