Grain

WINNIPEG, July 24 - (CP) - Aggressive demand for Canadian barley today highlighted trade today on the Winnipeg Grain Exchange, where most prices showed a firm undertone. Buying for barley came from exporters and American milling interests and also from shippers, who picked up oats. Offerings were well absorbed. There were reports that a moderate quantity of barley had been worked for export to the continent.

Trade was light in both rye and flax. Further industrial orders appeared in flax, while rye attracted some American buying and scored fair gains. The trend of the market was aided by firmness on United States markets.

Export loadings of Canadian wheat included 280,000 bushels to India and 120,000 to the United Kingdom.

Class two wheat price advanced three-quarter cents, while I. W. A. prices declined one-quarter cent. Closing prices: Oats: Jly 80 1/2 B; Oct. 81 1/2 B; Dec. 80 1/2 B; May 81 1/2 B.
