MRS. HANNAH E. LING

On the evening of Saturday, January 15, 1955, Mrs. Hannah E. Ling, widow of the late William Ling, of Brackley Beach, P. E. I., passed peacefully away in the Prince Edward Island Hospital, Mrs. Ling, who was in her 85th year, was born at Wheatley River, a daughter of the late Thomas and Sophia (Andrews) Seaman. She had been in her usual fairly good state of health until a couple of months previous to her death when she seemed to be suffering from a bronchial condition. After receiving medical attention and tender nursing at home for some weeks she was removed to the Prince Edward Island Hospital where all that could be done by way of medical skill and kind attention was obtained but all to no avail, as after a tracheotomy of four weeks her gentle spirit winged its Heavenly flight.

Mr. Ling, husband of the deceased, passed away after a few days illness when a very young man, leaving their family of five small children to be cared for by their mother. One son, Arthur, made the supreme sacrifice during the First Great World War. He was the only one of twenty-two years she now leaves to mourn the loss of a kind and loving mother one son Albert, on the homestead, and three daughters, (Gertrude) Mrs. James Wares, Wheatley River, (Mina) Mrs. Alder Dickieson, New Glasgow, and (Emma) Mrs. Elvin MacLure, North Milton. Mrs. Ling was one of a family of twelve children. Of these only five now remain, namely: Ernest of Pouce Coupe, Alberta; William of Springfield, P. E. I.; Mrs. Emma Fairweather, Dedham, Mass.; Mrs. Ada Church, Montreal; and Mrs. Lillia Neill, North Milton, P. E. I.

The deceased was a lady who was held in high esteem by all who had the privilege of knowing her and she will be greatly missed by the large circle of friends and relatives. To her home all worthy mourners found a hearty welcome. To children especially she was ever sympathetic and kind. Since her passing many of those children, now grown to manhood and womanhood, have spoken of how they recall the many happy memories of the hours spent in her home. One of those children who was under Mrs. Ling's care for some years writes in his letter written after her death: "It made me cry when I read about 'Grannie'. I began to think of all the nice things she did for me. One thing I am sure of, she sure will receive her reward in Heaven, because she always believed in God and did what was right, so always remember what she stood for and teach your children in the same way, because all along my life I remember how she used to read the Bible and how she could explain it in her own words, and it sure helped me, so we can't let what she stood for die too, and we will keep her way (God's way of life) going until our time on earth comes to an end." By her many deeds of kindness and love she will long be remembered by all who came in contact with her. Hers was indeed a well spent life and she has only gone on to receive the "well done" of the good and faithful servant.

"She nobly lived and calmly went away
Great heart thou wouldst be sad were we to pay
In tears our tribute, rather shall we weath your grave
With joy, and write the happiness
you gave;
These will pay you greater homage than our tears.
These will live beyond your own
brief span of years.
Dearest mother, forever dear, the selfless path you trod
Has marked for us the sainted trail to God."

Being a great lover of flowers, she spent many happy hours in her garden, and on many occasions her heart was gladdened when both friend and stranger would pause to admire the profusion of bloom to be found there. The deceased lady was a faithful member of the Fairview Baptist Church and until recent years a willing worker in the Women's Missionary Society of which she was the efficient secretary for many years. In community life she was ever ready with the helping hand, and the needy never appealed to her in vain. Generous, open-hearted, kind, her many virtues, like crystal gems, shine resplendent on the walls of memory.

Following a short service in the home her remains were conveyed to the Fairview Baptist Church on the afternoon of Tuesday, January 18th, where her funeral services were conducted by the Rev. Owen Cochran and also officiated at the grave. Hymns sung were "In the Sweet Bye and Bye" and "Peace Perfected".

MR. BRUCE MacAULAY

February 5th will ever recall sad memories to the family and many friends of the late Mr. Bruce MacAulay of Tracadie Cross who died, aged 71, at the home of his daughter, Mrs. W. B. Peters, Charlottetown.

The late Mr. MacAulay enjoyed good health until a short time previous to his death. During his brief illness loving hearts and willing hands did all they could to stay the Grim Reaper, but to no avail, for the Divine Master had marked his time, and, as the shades of eve were falling, Saturday, February 5th, his loving soul went forth to meet its

The deceased was a highly respected citizen, of quiet and gentle nature, peaceful and deeply religious. His great devotion to daily Mass and Holy Communion, even to the day of his last illness will never be remembered by his family and friends.

He was visited frequently during his illness by the priests of the Basilica staff and the Last Sacraments were administered by Rev. Reginald Phelan.

He leaves to mourn his loss his wife, Mrs. W. B. Peters, Charlottetown; Frances, Mrs. Everett Belford, Halifax; Sally, Mrs. D. J. Atkinson, at home; James, teletype operator with C. P. R., Charlottetown; a brother, Rev. Frank MacAulay, Winnipeg; and a sister, Mrs. Leo Reid, Hope River. Four brothers and three sisters predeceased him, among whom were Sister St. Angela and Sister St. Anastasia of the Congregation of Notre Dame.

The funeral was held from the Charlottetown Funeral Home, February 9th. The celebrant was Rev. Frank MacAulay, brother of the deceased, deacon and sub-deacon were Rev. K. C. MacMillan, pastor and Rev. Earl Dalton. Rev. Reginald Phelan was Master of Ceremonies.

Present in the sanctuary were: Reverends K. C. MacPherson, W. V. MacDonald, William Simpson, Vincent Wood, and David MacTague.

The mortal remains of Mr. MacAulay were laid to rest in the family plot.

The pall bearers were: W. F. Power, Basil MacDonald, Hugh MacDougall, John Dougan, Peter John Smith and W. Hogan.

Education Week At Grand

Tracadie School

Education Week was marked at Grand Tracadie School by a Visitors' Day on Thursday, March 10th. Many parents and visitors came to the school in the afternoon and some educational activities were presented by each of the grades.

In the Primary Room classes were conducted in Arithmetic and Language. The parents remarked on the promptness and enthusiasm with which the children answered. A Spelling Match and Choral Speaking were also commendable presentations by the young pupils. In the Senior Department some interesting experiments were demonstrated during a Science Lesson. Mary MacDougall was the winner in a Spelling Match for Grades VII and VIII.

The pupils were congratulated on the ability they showed in their first debate as they discussed the resolution, "Resolved that a horse is more beneficial than a tractor." Deborah Connolly, Earl Wats and John Hughes supported the resolution and Theresa MacDonald, Mary O'Connell and Kelvin Hughes spoke for the negative. By vote of the audience the con side were declared the winners.

Mrs. Alfred Morrison, on behalf of all present, expressed appreciation of work done by pupils and teachers. Tickets on the lottery in aid of school equipment were drawn by Mrs. Roy Keizer: First Prize, Mrs. J. F. Wats, Grand Tracadie; Second Prize, Mrs. Charles Clow, Pleasant Grove; Third Prize, Master Gary McQuaid, Bedford.

It was not realized that the end of the earthly journey was so near until the morning of the above mentioned date when his condition worsened and in the early afternoon he passed peacefully away.

The late Mr. Livingston was born in Clyde River, the son of the late George Livingston and Elizabeth Beer, March 20, 1878, and remained on the old homestead until a few years when he retired from the farm, at which time he and Mrs. Livingston moved to a new home at Clyde River Corner.

The late Mr. Livingston was a man of sterling character, following in the footsteps of the earlier pioneers of this community, honest, hard working, friendly, and neighborly. He was a member and elder of the Clyde River Presbyterian Church for many years, and had borne testimony to the fact that he possessed eternal life by his love for the gospel and his faith in the Lord Jesus Christ as a personal Saviour.

The late Mr. Livingston was twice married. In 1907 he married Charlotte Ann MacNevein who passed away in 1941 and in 1943 he married Caroline Gillespie who tenderly cared for her husband during his illness.

He leaves to mourn his passing besides a sorrowing widow one daughter, Edith May, (Mrs. Keith Young), Clyde River and four grandchildren namely: Bruce, Anna, Christine, and David, and one brother, George, Clyde River. A brother William, predeceased him some years ago; also two sisters, Mrs. Albert Boyle and Mrs. Austin Hyde.

The funeral which was largely attended was held from the Cutcliffe Funeral Home and was conducted by his pastor, the Rev. Donald Nicholson; the body was tenderly laid to rest in the family plot in the Clyde River Cemetery.

The pallbearers were: Messrs. George Hyde, Calvin Hyde, Montague Hyde, Frank Gillespie, Reginald MacKinnon, and Lloyd Murray.

Hampton

Friends of Mr. Charlie Pooley, Tryon, regret to learn of his illness, and are extending best wishes for an early recovery.

Friends of Mr. Neil Ferguson, are extending best wishes for a complete return to good health, following his recent return from the P. E. I. Hospital, where he underwent a major operation.

At Crapaud Rink, on March 14, the game between Long Creek Bull Dogs and Borden Nationals, Hampton players participating, resulted as follows: Bull Dogs 9, Borden Nationals 8.

At Crapaud Rink on March 16, Argyle Shore team defeated Hampton by the score of 6-0.

The score of the game played between Albany St. Pats and the Bull Dogs was 10-3, favor of Albany team. As this game has been protested, and the protest accepted we are advised that this game will be played again at a later date.

Mrs. Boyd MacQuarrie was a visitor among friends in the City during the week, including the sick in hospital, who are progressing favorably.

It is pleasing indeed to the many friends of Mrs. C. C. Ince, former teacher at Argyle Shore School, to learn that she is favorably progressing, following a major operation in the P. E. I. Hospital. They are looking for an early return to her home at DeSable, and complete restoration to former good health.

Hampton School pals of Nat. Merrill, son of Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Merrill, Crowfield, are looking forward to his return to school, following a prolonged period of illness.

Mrs. Stanley Murchison, North River, has been a welcome visitor among relatives and friends at Argyle Shore, DeSable, Hampton, during the week ending March 15. Mrs. Murchison was Miss Bertha MacPhail previous to her marriage, and a sister of Mr. and Mrs. Ivan MacKinnon, who reside on the old homestead at DeSable. During this visit, Mrs. Murchison was the guest of Mr. Bert MacPhail, and Miss Jamima MacPhail, Argyle Shore.

Mr. Ian MacQuarrie, student at Dalhousie University, Halifax, N. S., spent a brief holiday visit at the home of his parents, during the week ending March 19.

Mrs. John MacQuarrie was a visitor at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Whitefield Howat (formerly of Victoria, P. E. I.) at Amherst, N. S., on March 19, and will also visit her son, Mr. Ian MacQuarrie, student at Dalhousie University, previous to returning to her home at Hampton.

Mr. and Mrs. Milton Willis, North River, and baby daughter, have been welcome week-end visitors at Hampton, among friends, guests of Mrs. W. A. MacQuarrie.

Miss Sadie MacFadyen, Charlottetown bank employee, was a recent visitor to Canoe Cove and Hampton, guest here at the home of her sister, Mrs. J. W. Morrison.

Other week-end visitors at South Melville and Hampton included: Misses Ruth Dunsford, and Ada Campbell.

The services of public worship in this Pastoral Charge, on March 20, were largely attended and the inspiring message taken from St. John's Gospel bearing on the Text, "The Master Hath Need of Him."

CORNWALL W. M. S.

The March meeting of the Cornwall Auxiliary of the W.M.S., met at the home of Mrs. Walter Gregor on March 14th, with eighteen members and two visitors present.

The theme for the devotional period was "Let This Mind Be In You," and was led by Mrs. Hoston Herlihy, assisted by Mrs. Walter Boyle, Mrs. Nell Salmon and Mrs. Earle Moore. Mrs. Gregor had the study book and brought out the point that: Co-operation is necessary in all departments for effective church work.

The president, Mrs. Hazen Howard conducted the business part of the meeting and several secretaries gave a report of their department, the treasurer giving a good report for the first quarter.

Mrs. Walter Boyle led in prayer for the society's special missionary in prayer, Miss Olive Shaw. A quilt which is to be included in our box to Korea was proudly displayed.

A letter was read from the Presbyterian president, Mrs. Cutcliffe in which she urged us to plan in a definite way to meet our allocation to have a generous amount for gifts for building.

The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Walter Boyle and Mrs. Vickerson will lead the devotional period. The president read an article from the United Churchman, "Invisible Friends in Africa," by Dr. Giehrst of Algoma, and the meeting closed with Mizpah benediction.

A delicious lunch was served by hostess and committee in charge and a social hour enjoyed by all.

HUNTER RIVER UNITED W. M. S.

The regular meeting of the Auxiliary of the W. M. S. met on Thursday evening, March 3rd at the home of Mrs. Montgomery. Mrs. MacLeod presided and opened the meeting with Silent Prayer and hymn, "Come, Holy Ghost, Our Hearts Inspire," was read in union.

Scripture readings from Philippians were given by Mrs. Fred Smith and Mrs. Lepage, hymn, "Come Let Us Sing of A Wonderful Love," was sung and the story, "The Boy With A Cart" was read by the president.

Mrs. Moase gave interesting selections from the study book, Theme, "Let's Adjust Our Attitudes," based on the Church of India. The study covered the look for attitude of the Missionary going to India. The question of financial aid to India was also discussed.

A letter from Rev. George Barrett at present in London, India, was read. He presented a very interesting picture of his preparation for his work in India.

Reading from the Book of Joshua were given by Mrs. Seaman and Mrs. Sellar. The circle of Prayer and the Benediction closed the Worship Period.
