LOCAL AND OTHER ITEMS. BEER BROS.—The leading fur store.

BEAVER Famous Flax Cheating Tobacco. ARRIVED.—The following schooners arrived yesterday with coal for C. Lyons & Co.

LADIES, clean your kid gloves with Josephine Glove Cleaner. It is not a liquid, leaves no odor, and can be used while the glove is on the hand.

TICKETS for St. Peter's Penitential Reading Concert in the Phillips Memorial Hall on Thursday next may be had at the drug stores of Messrs. Rankin, Watson and Reddie Bros. Price fifteen cents.

CHANGE OF TIME.—For the remainder of the season the Northumberland will leave Charlottetown for Summerside and Point Du Chene on Sunday about noon, instead of on Monday morning as heretofore.

FOOTBALL.—To-morrow the big games of the Eastern colleges in the States will be played. Yale plays Princeton at New York, and the University of Pennsylvania plays Harvard at Cambridge.

POLICE COURT.—This forenoon Thomas Clarke admitted a first infraction of the Scott Act, and was fined in the sum of $50 and $1.95 costs, or two months imprisonment.

TEA AND FANCY SALE.—The tea and fancy sale in the Y. M. C. A. yesterday was well attended, and the sum of $90 was realized in aid of the funds of the Second Methodist Church.

FOOTBALL.—The match between the Abegweit and St. Dunstan's, scheduled for three o'clock yesterday did not take place, the opposing teams being unable to come to a satisfactory understanding as to who should act as referee.

PAINFUL ACCIDENT.—A painful accident is reported from Ellerslie, Prince County. It seems that a few evenings ago, while Mr. P. Williams was at work in his father's mill at that place, his hand came in contact with a saw and it was terribly mutilated from the wrist downward, necessitating amputation.

PRODUCE MARKET.—The schr. Irving G. has cleared for Halifax with 2,200 bush. potatoes, 300 bush. oats, 200 bush. turkeys, shipped by Jas. Egan.

Schr. Willie has cleared with 1,780 bush. oats, 1,534 bush. potatoes, 100 bush. turkeys, shipped by Jas. Egan.

THE GUN SHOOTING.—Lieut. Colonel Longworth has just returned from the Assistant Inspector of Artillery the scores made at practice with 40 pr. R. L. guns in the range firing competition on 10th October last.

THEATRICAL.—The "Irish Senator" has come and gone—and a feeling of disappointment prevails. The "best of all comedies" turned out to be a combination of farce and comedy—mostly farce—that did not "take" with the great majority of those present.

TONKA Celebrated Smoking Mixture. 10c. package, or 1 lb. Tin.

JOHNSON & JOHNSON. The Reliable Druggists.

A Peculiar Firm, We, Who can practice the marvelous without an effort—how can shake a fine article and a low figure into shape, for the asking.

LET US also button-hole attention to one of the finest, most elaborate displays of Rattan and Reed Goods, and Clobber Seat, and oaken Rockers, and that we are assured stand unequalled, unrivalled by any house in the land or out of the land.

THE EVANGELISTIC SERVICES. "What a meeting!" "Surely God is visiting us!" "How full of power!"

The choir has grown in strength and in efficient power, and the singing by Mr. Crossley was better than ever.

Some of the churches were holding their regular prayer meetings, but that did not hinder an immense crowd from assembling there.

THURSDAY EVENING. Although there were several attractions in town last night, and the weather disagreeable, yet a very good congregation assembled in the First Methodist Church to the evening service.

Mr. Crossley's Song Sermon on "The way to heaven" was particularly interesting. He took for his text Isaiah 35: 8-10 and interspersed his remarks with appropriate and pathetic solos.

MERRY WEDDING BELLS. The marriage of Mr. Hedley V. Buntain and Miss Annie Macdonald was solemnized at the residence of Mrs. Allen, Prince Street, on Wednesday evening.

Early in the morning the wind freshened up, and blew with considerable force throughout the day and well into the evening.

Several forces were blown down, including a portion of the high wall surrounding the jail, and trees, etc., were also levelled with the ground.

The St. Lawrence left here at the usual time and got to Pictou about one o'clock. She did not make the return trip.

The telegraph wires were disabled by the storm for a time yesterday, but were made all right by Messrs. James and Morrison, who went out in the midst of the storm and effected the necessary repairs.

The schr. Minnie Bell, owned at Belle Creek, is ashore at Conroy's wharf and the occupants narrowly escaped a watery grave.

The schr. Wm. Dunbar, Capt. Read, came into port from Pugwash in the teeth of the gale and anchored safely.

The schr. General Middleton dragged her anchor in the vicinity of the Ferry Wharf yesterday, and came in contact with the telephone cable, damaging it somewhat.

THANKSGIVING DAY. A Big Storm Prevailed—Schooners Ashore and Other Damage Reported.

Thanksgiving Day was generally observed in Charlottetown. The usual services in the churches were well attended, and the public offices and places of business were closed.

Early in the morning the wind freshened up, and blew with considerable force throughout the day and well into the evening.

Several forces were blown down, including a portion of the high wall surrounding the jail, and trees, etc., were also levelled with the ground.
