KILLED BY THE LIGHTNING
John McMillan Loses His Life.

STRUCK DOWN WHILE WORKING IN A FIELD.

The Deceased Was a Young Man and Unmarried.

The storm of thunder and lightning which passed over Charlottetown this forenoon was very severe in the eastern section of the province, especially in Cardigan and vicinity.

A man named John McMillan, while working at the hay in a field on the Peter's Road, about five miles from Cardigan, was struck by the lightning and killed. Mr. McMillan was unmarried.

The father of the deceased died about a week ago.
