Stewart Motors Ltd. ... Charlottetown, P.E.I.

To the Citizens Of Prince Edward Island

Eighteen years ago, this month, I established STEWART MOTORS LIMITED, at 224 Great George Street in Charlottetown.

We are still doing business at "The Old Stand" and still selling the famous "MERCURY" line of fine Ford Products as well as "GENUINE FORD PARTS". We are proud of this record, and sincerely grateful to the buying public of this Province, for their continued loyal support. I am extremely proud of our very efficient staff, the majority of them have been with the firm since its birth, and thankful to them for permitting me to devote so much of my time to the public life of this Province.

By way of celebrating our birthday, and at the same time expressing tangible appreciation to our purchasing public, I have requested our Manager, Mr. Eric Foster, to stage a "GIANT BIRTHDAY PARTY" beginning June 17th and continuing through the week. We will have gifts for everybody, we will slash prices on NEW and USED automobiles and trucks to the bone, we will really "HAVE A BALL".

We wish to see all of our old friends and we hope to make many new ones.

I invite you to call at "The Island's Largest Automobile Showroom" and be an active participant at our "MAMMOTH BIRTHDAY PARTY" June 17th to June 22nd.

Pride In The Past And Faith In Future Convention Theme

Pride in the Past - Faith in the Future" was the theme for the Central Prince District Convention held in the Lot 16 Hall. This area is made up of the following Women's Institutes: New Annan, Traveller's Rest, Sherbrook, Read's Corner, St. Eleonors, Linkletter, Belmont, and South West.

With Mrs. Kenneth MacLean presiding and Mrs. John Macdonald as secretary, the convention opened by the singing of "O Canada" followed by the Mary Stewart Collect.

Mrs. Frank MacLaughlin of Central, Lot 16, gave the address of welcome and Mrs. Garth Linkletter of Linkletter Road, responded.

A compiled report of the years activities of the various institutes was given by Mrs. Donald Schurman of New Annan and the exhibit of handicrafts, which included many beautiful quilts, mats and other articles, was displayed by Mrs. Roger MacLean and Mrs. Gordon Campbell of Southwest.

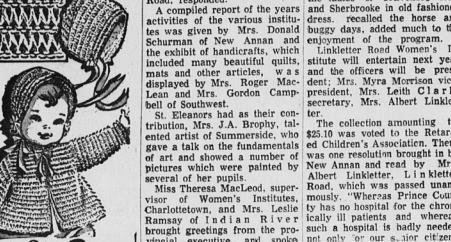

St. Eleonors had as their contribution Mrs. J. Brice, talented artist of Summerside, who gave a talk on the fundamentals of art and showed a number of pictures which were painted by several of her pupils.

Miss Therese MacLeod, supervisor of Women's Institutes, Charlottetown, and Mrs. Leslie Ramsay of Indian River, brought greetings from the provincial executive and spoke briefly on the 50th anniversary of Women's Institutes on P.E.I.

A memorial service was held for the 50th anniversary of the P.E.I. Women's Institutes. Mrs. Heber MacQuarrie, Read's Corner and Mrs. W. Cannon, St. Eleonors.

Mrs. Annet Simpson of Belmont introduced the special speaker, Mrs. Marjorie Mitchell who spent four years in Russia when her husband, Group Captain Mitchell was air attaché with the Canadian Embassy in the U.S.S.R.

Mrs. Mitchell gave an informative commentary on the slides shown by her husband among them were scenes in the Kremlin as well as the markets and the shabby apartment houses where several families often have to live in one room. To have a home of one's own is unheard of in Russia, it was said.

LIKE OUR FISH
NORTH BAY, Ont. (CP) - Northern Ontario garnered a new group of supporters Tuesday when 30 weekly newspaper editors from the United States toured this area. On the second day of their tour the editors ate pickled and then went fishing at Newnam Island, one of the Manitowish islands. "We thought our catfish were good," said Walter Burkner of San Marcos, Tex. "but these pickled sure beat everything I've eaten." GEN BRIEFS
