

The "Daily Examiner."

"An abstract and brief chronicle of the time."—Shakespeare.

TWO AND A HALF YEARS have passed away since the first number was issued; and still the DAILY EXAMINER persists in making its daily round of the city and its daily tour of the Province, with its daily "abstract and brief chronicle of the time." It has hung on to life so long, and through so many difficulties that, somehow, people are beginning to have increased confidence in it and, of late, the volume of its business transactions has increased fully a half. If this increase continues (and we hope it may) we shall soon be enabled to print larger paper at a smaller cost. In fact, we now offer to all our readers who advance payment before the 31st day of December next, the DAILY EXAMINER throughout the coming year, for four dollars. The offer is open to those only who pay in advance, within the time named, for the entire year. Accounts will forthwith be made out at the old price for the paper for twelve months from date—instead of for six months as heretofore and those who take advantage of the offer will have the reduction made at the time of payment. There are a few—and but a few—subscribers who have fallen into arrears. If these do not pay up on or before Friday next we shall be compelled to stop the paper, and invoke the aid of the Stipendiary Magistrate and his gentlemanly subordinates.

Charlottetown Hospital.

THE information we have now to give respecting the Charlottetown Hospital and its management will, we are sure, more than satisfy all intending subscribers. On enquiring of Dr. Hobkirk (Chairman of the Medical Committee) and at the Hospital, this morning, we learn:—

1. The house, grounds, furniture, and all appurtenances are given, gratis, by His Lordship the Bishop of Charlottetown.
2. The physicians of this city have volunteered to give their services freely to all poor persons admitted. Two physicians attend the Hospital each month in rotation. This month the attending physicians are Dr. McLeod and Dr. Conroy; next month two others will attend, and so on—according to the arrangements of a committee of physicians appointed to manage the Institution. The visiting physicians also attend at the dispensary in the Hospital every day from 10 to 11 to prescribe and give medicine to the sick poor. This service is also performed gratuitously.
3. The services of the Sisters of Charity—trained nurses—are also given freely.
4. Patients in good circumstances are admitted to the Hospital on payment of board and lodging, in rooms set apart for their use. These may be attended by any physician they may choose, paying him, of course, the fees they would have to pay were they in private houses.
5. The money required is to be devoted solely to the ordinary maintenance of the institution.
6. It is proposed to raise this money by means of donations—given annually or in lump sums; an annual "Hospital Sunday" in all Churches; and an occasional lecture, concert, or other entertainment given in its behalf.
7. The donations, etc., as received by the Committee of ladies (drawn from all the Churches) appointed for receiving them, will be handed over to the Treasurer—Mrs. J. D. Mason—who will deposit them in the Bank of P. E. Island, whence the money will be drawn to meet the requirements of the Hospital as they arise.
8. A statement of the Hospital accounts will be made up and issued every three months.
9. The Hospital is free (as far as its means will allow) to the sick and helpless poor of all denominations; and, as before stated, any patient may have the clergyman he or she asks for.

The writer was shown through the institution this morning, and he cheerfully bears witness to the cleanliness, order and comfort apparent in every part of it. There are at present six patients who came from Tignish, St. Peter's Bay, Summerside, Piquid and Charlottetown, respectively. In the dispensary there is a supply of medicines; and a number of sick poor have already been relieved through it. The work begun is a noble one and we hope it will be nobly maintained. We are glad to learn that some of our leading men have subscribed handsomely—$100 having been given in several instances, and $50 in a good many.

The Methodist Missionary Meeting will commence on Tuesday evening at 7.30 o'clock, not at 7 as previously advertised.

To-day is the last for issuing summons for the coming session of the Small Debt Court. There are two hundred issued—half of these being for city taxes.

A boy named John Doyle was captured by the police to-day while running off with a sheep skin, which he stole from Mr. Patrick McKenna. Doyle is now in "durance vile."

A MEETING of the Calceonian Curling Club will be held at Rankin House, to-morrow (Tuesday) evening, at 8 o'clock, sharp. A full attendance is requested.—A. McKENNA, Secretary.

Mendacity of the "Patriot."

THE Patriot is certainly the most disreputable sheet with which we are acquainted. Downright falsehoods are its stock-in-trade. Speaking of a certain account it said, in its issue of the 15th instant, that it "was lodged in the Public Works Department." This was, of course, a falsehood, the account was not lodged in the Public Works Department. He now says that it was presented to the Commissioner of Public Works himself in the Public Works office. If so, the party presenting it was plainly told that it did not belong to that Department, and was directed to take it elsewhere, which he did. The account was for mottoes, etc., supplied to the Vice-Regal Reception Committee, and was paid by them.

Perished in the Storm.

The Summerside Progress reports:—"A young lad named Inman, aged about 13 years, son of Mr. John Inman, Painter, of St. Eleanor's, perished in the storm of Thursday night, on the road between St. Eleanor's and Miscouche. It seems that he was returning from Lot 14, when met by the storm, and the snow became so deep that his horse could not draw the wagon. The boy got out of the wagon and tried to unharness the horse, but it would appear that he was so fatigued and blinded by the wind and snow, that he lay down near the wagon, never to raise again. On Friday morning the body was found by Mr. Thomas Gaudet, of Miscouche, and brought back to St. Eleanor's. Young Inman was an intelligent and most promising lad, and we sympathise with his parents in their affliction."

The Late Gale.

SOME SERIOUS RESULTS.

THE Point du Chene correspondent of the Sun telegraphs as follows:—

"The steamer 'Princess of Wales' came off the harbor with heavy freight during the storm, and returned to Summerside, arriving there at 11.30 the same night, experiencing tremendous weather. Captain Cameron speaks highly of the seaworthiness of his craft. She arrived here to-day about 2 p. m., arriving some 350 barrels of oysters, chiefly for Quebec and Montreal; also large quantities of other freight and sheep."

"The railway authorities have commenced relaying the track, and will probably be ready for traffic in a few days."

Yesterday orders were received at St. John Station not to forward freight to the Point for the Island for the present, but last evening tickets were sold to passengers as before.

The following is a copy of a telegram received by the several I. C. R. stations, yesterday, from Division Superintendent Coleman:—

MONCTON, Nov. 21.

To ALL AGENTS.—Storm has destroyed all connections by water from Point du Chene for the present. Notify shippers so they can ship by Pictou if they wish. Will notify you when wharf is ready to resume business. Do not send any freight at present.

JAMES COLEMAN.

The following vessels are ashore and damaged:—

Schr. Blue Wave ran ashore at Whitehaven, slipped her cable to keep clear of other vessels adrift and ran ashore.

Schooner A. H. Crowe struck adrift and ran into the schooner Winfield Scott, of Souris, P. E. I., carrying away her own maintop and the Winfield Scott's head gear. To get clear, the Winfield Scott slipped her cable and ran into the schooner Mabel, lying at N. Whitman's wharf, and damaged considerably. She eventually ran ashore in the Tittle. Part of her cargo was discharged to day and sold at auction.
