E. J. Hodgson, Esq., was registered at the Russel House, Ottawa, on the 24th inst.

A CITIZEN was fined five cents and costs today for having a dangerous cellar hatch in front of his premises.

DON'T fail to be with the Scots in the "Auld Kirk" this evening, when the entertainment given a few weeks ago will be repeated.

THE Northern Light has worked her way inside Georgetown light and is now discharging freight and "coaling up." Whether she will proceed to the Capes or not, is, as yet, unknown to the agent here.

FIVE "hoodlums" arrested for corner loafing on Saturday, were sentenced to six weeks imprisonment with hard labor. The magistrate, in sentencing them remarked that when their time expired, they would either have to discontinue corner loafing or leave the country.

THREE companies of active militia—Major Morris', Major Dogherty's and Captain Longworth's—attended divine service in St Paul's Church yesterday, in full dress. The companies were headed by the 82nd battalion band on the march from church their fine appearance was the subject of complimentary remarks from the numerous spectators.

THE barque "William Owen" which sailed from Rouen, France, for Worthington, England, on the 26th of January last, has arrived all safe at Fortress Monroe, U. S. During the passage from Rouen the rudder broke and the vessel was carried off to sea. She has since been tossed on the stormy Atlantic, and at length driven into the above-named American Port. The wife, family and many friends of Captain Brown will be glad to hear of his safe arrival.

THE Argus hints that we publish articles from the EXAMINER unacknowledged. The EXAMINER knows that we have the same authority to publish those articles as he himself has, and that they are as much ours as his, though some of them may per chance appear in the Daily first.—Presbyterian.

THE EXAMINER knows nothing of the kind. The EXAMINER knows that the Presbyterian has no more right to appropriate its articles without acknowledgment than it has to publish the Presbyterian's.

BRILLIANT DECORATIONS.—In St. Dunstan's Cathedral, yesterday (Easter Sunday) at 7 o'clock, vespers were sung, benediction was given, and an excellent sermon, on the "Resurrection," was preached by the Rev. A. McIlvray, P. P. At Benedictions in the Cathedral the Sanctuary is always elegantly decorated, but its beautiful appearance yesterday surpassed all previous occasions. The decorations were in natural and artificial blooming flowers, displayed with the taste of a true artist, while lights and mirrors were so arranged on the altar and in the sanctuary as to produce a most magnificent sight. After Benediction many remained in the Cathedral admiring the beautiful appearance of the altar.

By enquiry at the office of Messrs. Peake Bros. & Co., we learn that the bark "George Peake" sailed from Brunswick for Rio de Janeiro, on the 25th February.

Extracts from Old Songs.

COMMUNICATED BY VICH DHOMNUL NAN ORD.

Psalm 58th. By N. Brady, D. D., and N. Tate, Esq.

Speak, O ye Judges of the Earth,
If just your sentence be;
Or, must not Innocence appeal
To Heaven from your decree?

NOTE.—The remainder of the above old song is too personal, and might possibly be ACTIONABLE.—Verbum sat Sapient!

CHORUS OF JUDGES AND GOVERNORS.

(From an unpublished Opera.)
We, for the voice of the Populace amorous,
Willing to do anything they require,
Shall, if hereafter they chance to grow clamorous,
Yield just precisely the thing they desire,
We are quite ready to
March with a steady toe
Out of the frying-pan into the fire;
Sunk, like the inmates of Huxtable's piggery,
Up to the knees in an exquisite draft,
Stand the determined Apostles of Whiggery,
Chewing the grain, and rejecting the chaff;
Aye, Mr. Huxtable!
Not from your muck stable,
Issues so hearty a grunting and laugh!

DIED.

LORNE HIGHLAND WHISKY.
AN ANALYTICAL SANITARY INSTITUTION,
54, Holborn-viaduct, E. C., London, Aug. 18, 1879
REPORT on the LORNE HIGHLAND WHISKY:
"We have visited the bottling stores of Messrs. Greenlees Brothers, and have selected from the vats, samples of their Lorne Highland Whisky, and have subjected them to careful examination and analysis. The samples were very fragrant, mellow, and of pleasant flavor, and possessed all the characteristics of pure and well-matured Scotch Whisky of the first quality."
