

Kinsmen Club Boosts Blood Donor Campaign

"A pint may save your life sometime" says the sign being carried by Mr. Percy MacDonald, president of the Charlottetown Kinsmen Club in a parade held through the streets of the City yesterday. The number of donors who attended the Charlottetown Red Cross Blood Donor Clinic yesterday was 466. At least another 500 are needed today. Barter's Film Lab.

IN MEMORIAM

MRS. DANIEL MACEachERN
In the hospital at Souris on April 4, 1955, Margaret E. MacPhee, beloved wife of the late Daniel MacEachern, passed away at the age of 81, after a brief period of illness.
She had lived a life devoted to the love and service of her family, friends and people of the community. She was always ready and willing to extend her loyal support and co-operation when encouragement and assistance were required.
The quiet dignity, charm, and kindly disposition which were characteristic of the late Mrs. MacEachern will no doubt be cherished in fond and lasting memory by all who had enjoyed friendly association with her.

Card of Thanks

The following committees were appointed: health, Jean Ann Munro and Bob Stuart; water, Cameron Munro and David Moore; tidiness, Norman Clary and the teacher; police, John Clary and Marjorie Clary; sick, Beverley Moore and Cameron Munro. The penny sale was held by Norman Clary and the lucky ticket was held by Brian MacBeth.

"PLAN LIGHTS FOR HALL - A special meeting of the Whim Road W.I. was held at the school house on Thursday evening to discuss the possibilities of installing electric lights in the hall. A good number of members attended the meeting, which was opened by the president, Mrs. Wesley Campbell. It was unanimously agreed that the Institute would pay the cost of a line to the hall and the contract was accordingly made out. Further discussion of the subject will be brought up at the regular meeting of the Institute.

"BIRTHDAY SOCIAL - The guest speaker at the annual birthday social of the Presbyterian Women's Missionary Society was Rev. Wm. R. MacKay of Kingsville, Scotland who is at present serving the Church of Scotland in this province. Mr. MacKay, in his inspiring address, spoke of the three different fields of foreign missions, medicine, education and
