S. D. U. STUDENTS ARE X-RAYED

Students of St. Dunstan's University are the most recent to be tested for TB. A group of them is seen on the campus as they take their turn at the Mobile X-Ray Unit operated by the Prince Edward Island Tuberculosis League. The Unit was Purchased by the League in 1945, and has been used extensively in all parts of the Province since then.

Currently, The Tuberculosis League, in co-operation with the Provincial Department of Health, is making use of the Unit in the Heaf Tuberculin Testing Survey. In the past year over 25,000 people in the Province have been tested, with approximately one-third of this number of people being x-rayed.

Funds for operating the vehicle are obtained by The Tuberculosis League through their Annual Christmas Seal Sale Campaign which opens this year on November 18th.

It is expected that upon completion of the current survey between 60,000 and 70,000 individuals, school age and older, will have been tested on Prince Edward Island with from 20,000 to 25,000 people being x-rayed by the above Unit.

The X-Ray Technician is Joseph MacKinnon.

THOUGHTS FOR OUR TIME

BY HIS EMINENCE CARDINAL McGUIGAN

ALL NEEDS EXPRESSED IN PRAYER

No set of words is dearer to the hearts of Christians than those phrases we know as the Lord's Prayer, or the Our Father. They are revered because they are the gift of God's son to us; because they express all our needs, and because they are a way of life. The order of the phrases of this prayer shows us how to put out own lives in order; spells out the injunction of Our Lord, "Seek ye first the Kingdom of God and His justice."

At the very centre of this great prayer is our plea: "Thy will be done on earth as it is in Heaven" — a plea that individuals, families. nations and families of nations will live in perfect obedience to God's will.

In the opening phrase we acknowledge God to be "Our Father", a word that sums up the creative love that brought us from nothing, keeps us in being, and will give us eternal life. then we ask that God's name be "hallowed"; that is, that God that is accomplished: God is glorified among us when "His Kingdom comes," when He rules the minds and heart of men.

And then Our Lord tells us to pray for obedience: "Thy will be done." It is our own personal obedience to God's will which alone can affect the establishment of His reign in our hearts, which can give Him the glory He demands of us.

LOGICAL OBEDIENCE

The obedience that God asks us is far different than the servile adherence to an arbitrary command of a tyrant. Because He loved us, God made us, and He made us to return to Him by living our lives according to his plan. We are His and His alone. Our obedienec to Him and to His loving laws is simply the acceptance of His plan for our existence in this life and for our happiness with Him in the life to come.

God, of course, has revealed His law to us in Scripture — the commandments. But He made us social beings, members of societies which we call nations. These nations have rulers; men who guide the members of the state to the achievement of natural happiness; who strive to achieve for the citizens of that state, the natural means that will help them to live a life of virtue, a life of holiness.

The authority that these civil rulers possess and exercise is not a power apart from or contrary to, the authority of God; it is an extension of and subsidiary to the authority of God. This is true, not only of the authority of a federal parliament; it extends through the authority of the provinces, the counties, the townships, the cities and towns, right down to the policeman at the traffic light. All this authority is a share in the authority of the Divine governance by which God orders His world.

ALL POWER FROM GOD

Many of us look at civil authority — especially perhaps as exercised by tax-collectors, customs officials and traffic police — as a merely human power. We forget Our Lord's words to Pilate: "You would have no power if my Father had not given it to you"; and St. Paul's reminder that "all authority is from God." Obedience to civil authority is a debt of justice which we owe; it is a real part of the obedience we owe to God.

We tend perhaps to limit the idea of "obedience" to our personal religious duties, to the obligations of our children, to our own adherence to the commandments. But obedience goes farther than this; in our highly complicated society it reaches in many corners of our lives.

It should be a help to realize that this basic virtue of obedience, the living acknowledgement of God's loving Fatherhood, and the virtue by which we let His Kingdom come into our hearts can be guiding us at each moment in our personal life, our family life, and in our life in civil society.

DIPLOMAT DEAD

PARIS (AP)—The death was reported Friday of Count Jean de Hauteclocque, 64, veteran French diplomat. After the liberation he represented the provisional government of Gen. Charles de Gaulle at Brussels. Later he was ambassador to Canada and Portugal and resident-general in Tunisia, then still a French protectorate.

"KEEP MY - - -"

A hypocritical old business tycoon once said to Mark Twain: "Before I die I mean to make a pilgrimage to the Holy Land. I want to climb to the top of Mount Sinai and read the Ten Commandments aloud." "I have a better idea," suggested Mark Twain. "Why don't you stay right at home and keep them?"

Many of us aspire to do spectacular things for God, often neglecting every day opportunities for service. Few of us are able to carry the Gospel far afield, but we can help at home by contributing to the Bible Society, whose avowed mission is to give the Gospel to every man in his own tongue. To date the Society has translated and distributed the 'Word' in more than eleven hundred languages and dialects. In assisting in this great work we keep Christ's commandment to: "Love one another" and also share in carrying out the great commission: "Go ye into all the world. ." In Prince Edward Island we also help when we make a purchase at The Bible House in Charlottetown . . . an enterprise of the Society.

Returning to the Island in 1922 she took further studies in P. W. C. and again departed from the province in 1924. Since that time she has made several brief visits to her Island home.

Her death followed an operation in the New Westminster Hospital. Besides her husband, who was formerly from West Royalty, she is survived by three sons: Frank, with the Standard Oil Company in Iran; Glen and Brian of B. C. Two daughters, Margaret and Lynda also of B.C.

IRISHTOWN W.I.

RIVER SYSTEM

England's Severn River, flowing 210 miles to the Bristol Channel, is linked by canals with the Thames and the Mersey.

"THE PEOPLE OF GOD"

They who are the people of God, must with fixed resolve and perfect confidence, keep their eyes directed towards whatever may be conducive to the betterment of the world and the education of its peoples.

They who are the people of God have no ambition except to revive the world, to enoble its life, and regenerate its peoples. Truthfulness and good will have, at all times, marked their relations with all men. Their outward conduct is but a reflection of their inward life, and their inward life a mirror of their outward conduct. Verily I say unto thee: Of all men the most negligent is he that disputeth idly and seeketh to advance himself over his brother.

O people of God: that which can ensure victory are such righteous deeds, such conduct and character as are acceptable in the sight of God.
