These boys are members of the Prince County baseball team.

We would like to pen a tribute here to the great pitching job of our Island boys, Donnie MacLeod, turned in against Dartmouth Saturday night. We listened to the broadcast and got a bang out of "Duck's" performance. MacLeod is a fine type of athlete whom younger boys can safely take as an example. We have our share of the other type of star who, if you take away his athletic ability, has little left to commend him. We should be thankful for boys of the type of MacLeod.

In the light of Donnie MacLeod's success in the H & D League, we are more strongly of the opinion than ever that our own Don Simmonds did not get a proper tryout with Kentville. The fact that he never got into a game is a pity. The fact that he was a pitcher that would never be suspected in practice sessions. The fact that he gets better as the pressure increases, for example, How could any coach find out that Don was a pitcher? It could be that Kentville were not particularly in need of new blood when Don made his try. Then the Summerside tag on him wouldn't help in that league. The H. & D. Don't go for Maritime ball tossers as a rule. They pin their faith to college ball players from the U. S. A. Coming up from Boston University gave MacLeod an advantage.

Johnny Carroll is once again in our midst doing the job for which he is particularly well fitted, guiding the youth of our town in sports activities, and instilling in them a much needed, but not too often followed principle: "It isn't whether you've won or lost that counts; it's how you've played the game." Congratulations to Johnny on his ascendancy to the time-honored class of Benevolent Benefactors. We wish him, and his charming wife, whom Summerside people got to know and like so well last summer, their fair share of happiness, and the courage to face the frowns of fortune that come to even the best regulated families.

The baseball skill that kept Summerside in the Maritime limelight for a good many years is giving a decided shot in the arm to softball in Prince County. The baseball boys have invaded the realm of softball in large numbers, and have now added pep and zest to the local game. Particularly noticeable in their fielding. Really good softball pitching can mow these baseball stickers down pretty consistently to date. They are probably not yet accustomed to having the pitcher's arm bloom in to them as they deliver the close to the field they have already contributed a lot of spectacular plays.

Charlie Ballem is not meeting with much success in rounding up a swim team to take part in the aquatic sports at Charlottetown, August. We don't have too many top grade swimmers in town just now, but it is hoped enough candidates can be gathered up to participate in the water sports anyway. No one expects them to win, but they would gain some valuable experience in the water, and in making the effort. How about it, boys. If you have swimming aspirations, get in touch with Charlie Ballem right away.

Charles Monaghan of Summerside was recently graduated from Saint Francis Xavier University with a Bachelor of Education degree, and will teach in Summerside High School next year. He had obtained his B.A. from St. F. X. in 1954. Charlie devoted a long winter's spare time while at college to the instruction of university naval training division cadets. He holds a sub-lieutenant commission as a result of previous summers spent with the U. N. T. D. Besides being active socially, and playing hockey with the post-grad team, Charlie found time to make top marks in his Ed. examinations. Charlie is the grandson of Mrs. M. P. Driscoll, Summerside.

On Tuesday evening June 21, 1955 the teachers of School Unit 1 held their annual banquet at Stonehope Beach Inn. After dinner the guests spent the evening at games, music and dancing. Master of ceremonies for the occasion was Mr. Frank Costello and Mr. Elmer Frank was pianist.

—Mr. John Vincent and his mother, Mrs. E. D. Vincent of Saint John, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. John Cameron, Miss Betty Cameron and Mr. Arthur Vincent, Kensington, visited Mr. Vincent's sister Mrs. Ivan Hill and Mr. Hill at St. Peter's Bay on Sunday.

—Among those attending the Anglican D.C.S. and W.A. semi-annual meetings at Craupaud were Mrs. W. J. Proffitt, Long River, Mrs. A. H. Campbell, and Mrs. W. J. Harrington, Spring Valley, and Mrs. William Gill, Kensington.

—The many friends of Mr. John Coulson, Esq. are glad to see him out again after being a patient in the Prince County Hospital for treatment of injuries received in an accident. Mr. Coulson was operating a cultivator behind a tractor when the pole broke and he was thrown to the ground. Fortunately the operator of the tractor was able to bring it to a stop instantly and so saved the victim from more serious injuries.

—Miss Clara Mountain, Summerside, spent the past week in Kensington, guest of her sister, Mrs. James MacKinnon.

—The many friends of Mr. H. B. MacLeod, regret his recent illness at his home at Burlington, and wish him a rapid recovery.

Canada Welcomes July 16 NATO Conference In Paris

OTTAWA (CP) — Canadian officials Tuesday welcomed the July 16 NATO parley at which the Big Three will consult with their western allies before the "summit" talks with Russia at Geneva two days later. They said the meeting in Paris of the foreign ministers of the 13 North Atlantic Treaty Organization should be "very useful." External affairs Minister Pearson plans to fly to Paris for the meeting, which will probably last only one day. He returned here Monday from Francisco where the United Nations marked its 10th birthday. Keen Ottawa interest in the Paris meeting will be shown by Mr. Pearson's attendance because, generally speaking, he has not been much in favor of one-day meetings. One good reason why the government welcomes the parley is that officials here have long stressed the need for more consultation among allies.

Churchill Reported To Be "Taking Things Easily"

LONDON (Reuters) — Sir Winston Churchill, for the first time in his life, is "taking things easily," friends close to the veteran statesman said Tuesday. In the peaceful and relaxed atmosphere of his private country mansion, Chartwell, in Kent, he is spending the days writing a book, "The History of the English Speaking Peoples."

Between spells of dictation, he roams the Chartwell grounds in his famous blue overall-like suit, enjoying the sunshine, feeding the fish in his ponds, sitting on a bench offering bread crumbs to the birds.

But even in "retirement," the 80-year-old Churchill is active enough to keep a team of secretaries busy taking dictation at unpredictable hours and for lengthy spells. His intimates say that he feels fit and happy. Since he stepped down from the premiership April 5, he has shown no anxiety to plunge into the rough and tumble of the House of Commons, though they are looking forward to the day when some big debate will tempt him to open up with his first post-war speech from the back benches.

Algoma Steel Profits Down

SAULT STE. MARIE, Ont. (CP) — Algoma Steel Corporation Ltd. had consolidated net profit in 1954 of $4,464,478 compared with $6,427,603 in 1953. Sir James Dunn, president, in his report to shareholders, said that as a result of general reduction in the level of business activity and substantially lower purchases by foundries, a 11 w a y s, automotive and construction industries, the dollar volume of the company's sales decreased approximately 30 per cent from 1953.

Let's Talk It Over

Swimming and Water Safety is a program which has been carried on in Prince Edward Island for eleven years. The enrollment has grown from approximately 100 pupils in the first year to over 3,400 in 1954. The expansion has been so rapid that it is becoming increasingly difficult to obtain instructors to look after the large group who are taking the course. Those responsible for the inception and continuance of this important summer program can feel justly proud of their achievements. The art of swimming provides mankind, and especially the pre-teen and teen-age groups, with some of the keenest pleasures of their experience. The water-safety phase of the program is extremely important because the larger the number of people who enjoy swimming, the greater the chance, in no sense that drownings may occur. On the other hand, of course, the ability to swim is a water-safety measure in itself, and will sometimes prevent drowning accidents.

If highway safety were given such concerted attention in Canada as water-safety is on this Island, car accidents, and with them highway fatalities and car insurance rates would probably decline. So a big hand from this column to the Summerside Y's Men, the Red Cross, and especially to Mrs. Evelyn Cudmore, the leader of the movement, for the valuable service accorded our citizens by this fine program.

900 To See Softball Game In Penitentiary

KINGSTON, Ont. (CP) — A Kingston penitentiary softball team called the Saints will play a game against the Belleville, Ont. Orphans inside the penitentiary on Wednesday night before 900 invited guests. Warden Walter F. Johnstone said the game is the first he has known where an "outside" team will play a penitentiary team with such a crowd of spectators. He said the Saints have played since 1949 when baseball was reintroduced as part of the recreation team. Up to now their audience has been made up of prisoners and guards.

For two years, in 1951 and 1952 the Saints played in the Kingston Amateur Softball Association and won 20 of their 22 games in their last season. Since then they have played only exhibition games and this year have won each of their six starts. One pitcher won six games for them and this year he has struck out 37 batters, allowed only 27 hits and has a .90 earned-run average.

Despite the high walls many of their home runs have high averages and home runs are frequent.

Economic Council

On over, a half million on apples and a half million on potatoes. The beef of P.E.I., N.S. and N.B. brought to farmers $35 per head less than the farmers of Ontario received last year due to improper marketing," he stated. Dr. Walsh noted, although conditions were far from perfect, there had been quite a change in Nova Scotia in the past five years and there would continue to be a great change if intelligent people work to better conditions for themselves as they did in Holland and Denmark and other countries.

Speaking of the fishing industry he stated that the fishermen of Nova Scotia had done a better job of organizing, processing and marketing their products than had farmers. He pointed out that Nova Scotia fishermen own and operate many of their own processing plants. The panel began their discussion on electric power after hearing from Father MacKinnon there were certain things about which adult education could do nothing, something that was a great deal, something that was pointed out by Dr. Walsh that cheap power was needed and Mr. Mann stated that the Atlantic Provinces Economic Council have a committee surveying the power situation in three of the Maritime Provinces.

Speaking of the fishery industry it was pointed out by Mr. Dickie that fisheries had come a long way in the past decade. He stated that the whole nature of the fishing industry was going through a revolution but that one of the major problems centered around the handling of fish at the retail level. "We still lack an adequate system of retail distribution. The consumer is not getting the fish in the state he should receive it."

Dr. Forsey stated that the real difficulty was in getting people to eat fish. "The consumption per capita is too low. It must be eaten fresh before the flavor is lost and it needs careful cooking," he stated. On the subject of the tourist trade Mr. Mann stated that this industry offers tremendous opportunities. He pointed out that in the United States private industry pays for 80% of the publicity and in Canada the government pays for 80%. He also pointed out that the Economic Council plans to sell this area as the Atlantic Region not just a province.

In an Open Forum after the panel the matter of processing gypsum in Nova Scotia was discussed as was the pulp wood industry, education and unemployment. The conference continues this morning and concludes at noon.
