

THE FAIR GOD.

BOOK FIVE.

And in the chamber there again fell a hush... deep that those present might well have been taken for ghosts.

"Good gentlemen," said Cortes, smiling, "why so lagged now? Speak, Diaz del Castillo. Offer what thou canst."

The good soldier, and afterwards good chronicler, of the conquest and its trials, this one among the rest replied: "I confess, Señor, the enterprise is difficult beyond my first thought."

"To hear ye, gentleman, one would think the summer all before us in which to interchange courtesies with the royal barbarian."

"And thou, Señor?" Diaz suggested. "The army shall remain in quarters."

Never man's manner more calm, never man more absolutely assured. The listeners warmed with admiration. As unconscious of the effect he was working, he went on:

"I have shown the difficulties of the enterprise; now I say further, the crisis of the expedition is upon us; if I succeed, all is won; if I fail all is lost."

"And they did the bidding cheerfully. All night the good father was engaged in holy work—confessing, striving, praying. So the morning found them."

The treatment of many thousands of cases of those chronic weaknesses, and distressing ailments peculiar to females, at the Invalid Hotel and Surgical Institute, Buffalo, N. Y., has afforded a vast experience in the most delicate and thoroughly testing remedies for the cure of woman's peculiar maladies.

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is the outcome of the result of a great and valuable experience. Thousands of testimonials, received from patients and from physicians who have tested it in the most aggravated and obstinate cases which had baffled their skill, prove it to be the most wonderful remedy ever devised for the relief and cure of suffering women. It is not recommended as a "cure-all," but as a most perfect Specific for woman's peculiar ailments.

As a powerful and invigorating tonic, it imparts strength to the whole system, and to the womb and its appendages in particular. For overworked, "run-down," debilitated teachers, milliners, dressmakers, seamstresses, "shop-girls," housekeepers, nursing mothers, and feeble women generally, Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is the greatest earthly boon, being unequalled as an appetizing, cordial and restorative tonic.

As a soothing and strengthening nervine, "Favorite Prescription" is unequalled and is invaluable in allaying and subduing nervous excitability, irritability, exhaustion, prostration, hysteria, spasms and other distressing, nervous symptoms commonly attendant upon functional and organic disease of the womb. It induces refreshing sleep and relieves mental anxiety and despondency.

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is a legitimate medicine, carefully compounded by an experienced and skillful physician, and adapted to woman's delicate organization. It is purely vegetable in its composition and perfectly harmless in its effects in any condition of the system. For morning sickness, or nausea, from whatever cause arising, weak stomach, indigestion, dyspepsia and kindred symptoms, its use, in small doses, will prove very beneficial.

"Favorite Prescription" is a positive cure for the most complicated and obstinate cases of leucorrhoea, excessive flowings, painful menstruation, uterinal suppurations, prolapsus, or falling of the womb, weak back, "female weakness," anteversion, retroversion, bearing-down sensations, chronic congestion, inflammation and ulceration of the womb, inflammation, pain and tenderness in ovaries, accompanied with "internal heat."

As a regulator and promoter of functional action, at that critical period of change from girlhood to womanhood, "Favorite Prescription" is a perfectly safe remedial agent, and can produce only good results. It is equally efficacious and valuable in its effects when taken for those disorders and derangements incident to that later and most critical period, known as "The Change of Life."

"Favorite Prescription," when taken in connection with the use of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, and small laxative doses of Dr. Pierce's Purgative Pellets (Little Liver Pills), cures Liver, Kidney and Bladder diseases. Their combined use not only removes blood taints and abolishes cancerous and scrofulous humors from the system.

"Favorite Prescription" is the only medicine for women, sold by druggists, under a positive guarantee, from the manufacturer, that it will give satisfaction in every case, or money will be refunded. This guarantee has been printed on the bottle-wrapper, and faithfully carried out for many years. Large bottles (100 doses) $1.00, or six bottles for $5.00.

For large, illustrated Treatise on Diseases of Women (100 pages, paper-covered), send ten cents in stamps. Address, World's Dispensary Medical Association, 603 Main St., BUFFALO, N. Y.
