Marshfield Farm Wins Lamb Trophy

AMHERST, Nov. 5.—(Special)—S. C. Stewart and Sons of Marshfield today won the Canada Packers trophy for the best market lamb carcass at the Maritime Winter Show. The cup was presented tonight by Mr. G. E. Hartley to Allison Stewart, who with a younger brother, Wilfred, showed the farm's sheep and swine here. The trophy is a challenge one and is competed for annually. But along with it the winner was presented with a beautiful silver plate which he may retain.

Almon Boswell of Dunstaffnage won the Provincial trophy for the best market lamb.

Other placings from the Island in the market lamb class included Wilfred Stewart, third; Allison Stewart, fourth; Joseph O'Rourke, fifth; and George Callbeck, sixth. In the Maritime pacing stake division of the horse show today Ann Clegg, owned by George Callbeck of Summerside placed fourth. Callbeck's Bow Tie was third and James MacNeill's Lorraine Abbe fifth.

Tonight the registered standard breeding class was shown. Callbeck's Ann Clegg won the class, his Bow Tie was fourth and James MacNeill's Thelma M. Clegg fifth.

Tonight featured, too, a fur fashion parade, sponsored by the Canadian National Silver Fox Breeders' Association along with a Montreal fur house. It was under the direction of Mr. George A. Callbeck, manager of the fur marketing department of the C.N.S.E. B.A. Six models displayed the garments.

Transport Case Continues Before Privy Council

LONDON, (CP)—Canada would have little business today if it had not been for provincial legislation and enterprise, it was contended Thursday before five law lords at the Privy Council.

Ontario, Prince Edward Island and Alberta, backed by other provinces, say the provinces have that control. A United States bus line and Canada's two main railways have entered a cross appeal, implying that such traffic is a federal matter. The federal government is intervening on their behalf.

Canada's Population Near 15 Million

OTTAWA, (CP)—Canada's population may hit the 15,000,000 mark before the new year. In the three months ending last Sept. 1, the national population jumped from 14,781,000 to 14,893,000, the Bureau of Statistics estimated Thursday.

Three Championship Ribbons For Island Holstein Showmen

Three championship ribbons including one grand championship award, were won by Prince Edward Island Ayrshire breeders at the Maritime Winter Fair today in as keen and as heavy competition as has been seen here for many years.

The Island had some of the reflected glory from those wins as the herdsman is George Darrach, a native of the Brae from western Prince and a former herdsman at Falconwood Farm. The Oland herd took most of the female dry classes last afternoon and had a total of seven red ribbons, by far the most of any exhibitor in the day's competition.

World Tinplate Boom Is Reported

SWANSEA, Wales, (Reuters)—A world boom in tinplate has set British employers and ministry of labor officials scurrying to recruit Italian workers for the Welsh tinplate mills. About 150 will be brought here next month to help man old factories which are being rushed back into production.
