

THE DAILY EXAMINER.

OCTOBER 25, 1892.

Elections in New Brunswick.

LATEST advices indicate that the Blair Government will have twenty-seven supporters in the new Legislature; the Opposition only thirteen. The abolition of party lines has not, if the reports be true, prevented a resort to the "human devices" of bribery and corruption. But the general result indicates, beyond a doubt, popular satisfaction with Mr. Blair's administration, and popular forgiveness of his realities. It is not possible that more human devices, however ingenious and verified, could have purchased so large a majority. The defeat of Mr. Blair himself has been ascribed to a belief, delugally impressed upon the Protestants of York County, that he favored the Roman Catholics in respect to the public schools. It is possible that this belief may have tended towards an unexpected success of his candidates in some of the other counties. But we must assume that his triumph is chiefly due to the people's approbation of his measure to rid them of the unnecessary burden of the Legislative Council. He will, of course, easily obtain another constituency; and as, in politics, nothing succeeds like success, his reputation as an "able dealer" will be higher than ever. So far as he is personally concerned, the experiment of conducting a Provincial Government outside of party lines has undoubtedly proved to be successful. But in the easy "purchase of members" and in other shady transactions to which he has, in the absence of strong opposition, resorted while engaged in keeping himself in office, we see some of the objectionable features of the plan. The opposition has small chance, outside of party lines, to make headway against a judicious Premier, no matter how corrupt he may be; and public measures are apt to receive a less careful scrutiny than they do where the party lines are drawn.

Winter Engagements.

It is hoped that other literary and musical societies in the town will, as speedily as possible, follow the example set by the Epworth League. The winter should not be half over before a beginning is made. Let attractions towards that which is good and true be set before our young people before the days begin to shorten again. We learn that the Harbor Light will be reopened on or about the first of November.

In recent years a "Shakespeare Club" has profitably engaged the attention of some of our young people, and it may now, perhaps, be supplemented by a Tennyson club. Almost every line written by the poet who has lately passed beyond the veil may profitably be studied. We hope, too, that the Philharmonic Society will obtain a pianist to take the place of Mr. Heartz and soon again begin practice for a concert.

COUNTY COURT.—The County Court met this forenoon at eleven o'clock, and is still in session.

YOUNG LADIES' JOURNAL.—The November number of this favorite magazine is at the Diamond Bookstore.

MILITARY SPORTS.—We notice by late Winnipeg papers that the military sports of the "B" troop, Canadian Dragoons, held at Fort Osborne, were very successful. The competition extended over two days, and it is pleasing to note that this year, as last, Staff Sergeant Harry Hobbirk, son of the late Dr. Hobbirk of this city, was a most successful competitor. In the mounted events on the first day, he was second in the Turfs Head competition, first in Heads and Posts, and was third in the Victoria Cross competition. In Heads and Posts Sergeant Hobbirk made 23 points out of a possible 25. On the second day Sergeant Hobbirk took first place in the Riding and Jumping competition, showing much skill in horsemanship, and also carried off the officers' cup for the highest number of points in mounted events, with the fine score of 46 points.

ATTENTION TO DUTY.—Cab drivers in all cities are very apt to take undue advantage of stranger passengers. But they are not everywhere dealt with as in the case of a gentleman from this city and his clerical companion, who, passing through Toronto recently, were compelled by caddy to pay $4 for being carried across the city to catch a train. The passengers had not time to stay and prosecute the man. They merely pointed him out and identified him to the policeman on duty. This morning the full amount taken from the gentleman, belonging to this city came to hand, together with a note informing him that the rascally caddy had been fined $10 and costs. Protection such as this extended to strangers is creditable to the police and stipendiary magistrate of Toronto.

EPWORTH LEAGUE.—It was very pleasing to see such a large audience present at the first meeting of the literary department of the Epworth League, held in the basement of the First Methodist Church last evening. This fact shows that we have still considerable interest in literary societies and literary subjects, and that there is here a warm appreciation of the high poetic merit of Tennyson. It was felt that Mr. Henry Smith's paper had but one fault—it was too short. Mr. Smith was highly complimented by the Rev. Mr. Brewer, Mr. F. F. Beer, Mr. Newson, Professor West, Dr. Baer, Mr. Seaman, Mr. Stewart, Mr. Angus and others who took part in the short discussion which followed. The solos by Miss D. Lewis and Mr. G. Frank Beer, and the readings by Miss Ashley, Mrs. G. E. Full and Miss Johnson were very successful. We hope to publish Mr. Smith's paper in the course of a few days.

Married in England

The Maidenhead Advertiser, (Oct. 5) chronicles the marriage of Mr. Francis J. Forsa, of Maidenhead, Berks, England, solicitor, son of the late Rev. F. S. Forsa, Vicar of Winsley-cum-Simpley Stoke, and Miss Mary Ann Swabey, daughter of the late Stephen Swabey, Esq., of France Edward Island, which was solemnized at St. Michael's Church, Paddington. The bride was given away by her brother, Mr. A. L. M. Swabey, the bridegroom's best man being Mr. Osborne Jones. The witnesses present were the Rev. G. F. Prescott and the Rev. F. C. Hartley. The bride wore a pretty dress of white bengaline silk, trimmed with white chiffon and orange blossoms, and tulle veil, with wreath of orange blossoms. She carried a bouquet, the gift of the bridegroom. The bridesmaids were Miss Forsa (sister of the bridegroom) and Miss Louise Swabey and Miss L. Swabey (cousins of the bride). The two first-named wore white Pongee silk dresses, trimmed with green velvet ribbon, and black hats, with green velvet and pale pink feathers. The little bridesmaid (Miss C. L. Swabey) wore a dress of sateen with white nun's veiling, with a pink tulle sash and hat trimmed to match. Each wore a gold bangle and carried a white bouquet, the gifts of the bridegroom. After the ceremony a reception was held by the bride's mother at 12, Cambridge Terrace, Hyde Park, the following relatives being present, viz.—Mrs. G. Forsa, Mrs. Bowman, Mrs. Rev. H. Swabey, Mrs. H. Swabey, Mr. Maurice Swabey, Mrs. Fredk. Swabey, Mrs. Thomas Swabey, Miss Rose Swabey, Miss Jessie Swabey, Mr. Herbert Swabey, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. M. Swabey, Miss Marie Swabey, Mr. and Mr. Wm. Clowes, Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Clowes, and Mr. and Mrs. Calender. There were also present:—Sir Kenneth Cumming, Bart., General Morberly and the Misses Morberly, the Rev. G. F. Prescott, the Rev. F. C. Hartley, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. J. J., Miss Fanny Nowell, Miss Montague, Mrs. Stabrook, Miss Hayward (Limpsey Stoke), Miss Sainsbury (Bradford-on-Avon), Mr. J. Shaw Hillier, Mr. Mallam, Mr. and Mrs. Pye, Mrs. Tylee, Mrs. E. Tylee, Mrs. Macnab, Miss Macnab, the Rev. O. borne Jay, the Rev. F. G. Brathwaite, and Miss Stewart. The bride and bridegroom subsequently left for Preston, en route for Scotland. The bride's travelling dress was brown tweed, with crimson velvet vest and tweed jacket to match. She wore a felt hat trimmed with velvet and white wings. The presents were numerous and handsome.

Wedded at Georgetown.

CHARLES LYONS, merchant of Charlottetown, and Nellie Murphy, of Georgetown, were united in marriage at the latter place this morning at seven o'clock. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Stephen Phelan. Miss Lucy Caven was the bridesmaid, and Mr. Geo. H. Reddin supported the groom. THE EXAMINER wishes Mr. and Mrs. Lyons the best success in life.

Personal.

John McLean, M. P., Suis, was registered at the Hotel Davies last evening. Miss May Leahy, left this morning by the steamer St. Lawrence for Boston via Halifax. Mr. W. A. Brennan, of the Summerford Journal, was in the city last evening, on his way to Georgetown.

King George of Greece has conferred the decoration of the Order of the Saviour upon Dr. Waldstein, of the American Archdiocesan School at Athens. Richard Edgell, of Summerside, and Mrs. Hunt were among the passengers in the western express last evening. They are registered at the Hotel Davies.

We heartily sympathize with Mr. James McLeod, of the firm of McLeod & McKenzie, on account of the sad loss he has sustained in the unexpected death, at Boston, of his eldest son.

At the Hotel Davies yesterday there were registered: R. F. Morin, Halifax; J. F. Farrell do; N. Berry, do; John Sterling, Montreal; H. W. Macdonald, Halifax.

Some three or four months ago Baron Hirsch distributed all his earnings on the turf for the previous year, amounting to $700, among deserving English charities. He has since accumulated fresh profits from the races won by his horses, and he intimates that a further sum of $100,000 will be available for charitable purposes at the beginning of 1893.

At the Queen Hotel yesterday there were registered: Rev. S. James, Little York; Rev. R. F. Brine, Mrs. D. Rogers, York; Rev. R. McDonald, Glendalade, Mr. Terrell, Albany Station; R. Hornam, Montreal; H. A. Stewart, and wife, Hunton; S. O. Wells, Sackville, N. B. To-day there were registered: W. Murch, Edin; Mrs. Cowan, Mount Stewart; Mrs. Ross, do. The friends of Father James' Feast Monday, P. E., Hope River, (and they are not a few) will learn with pleasure that he is about attaining the twenty-fifth year of his priesthood. Few Catholic clergymen of this diocese have done the same work during the past quarter of a century as the untiring, big souled, generous Father James. A sage in Eastern Ontario has been predicting an earthquake. The atmospheric disturbance which suggested it to him was probably the approaching meeting on the same platform at Victoria College of Sir Oliver Mowat and Professor Goldwin Smith. The police have been notified.

The Queen will present to Princess Marie, daughter of the Duke of Edinburgh, on the occasion of her marriage this month to Prince Ferdinand, the heir apparent to the throne of Romania, a pleasure barge fashioned in the form of a swan. The neck and head form the prow, which is eighteen feet in height. The body forms the cabin, and the feet are employed in propelling the beautiful craft.

MARRIED.

At Point Prim, Oct. 19 h, by the Rev. A. McL. Sinclair, Simon A. Murchison, of Pincoette, to Mary Ann, daughter of the late Malcom Murchison, Point Prim. At the Methodist parsonage, Cornwall, on Wednesday, Oct. 12 h, by Rev. E. C. Turner, assisted by Rev. G. C. Palmer, Miss E. Matilda Croker, of Kingston, to Mr. U. Brian Matthew, of North Wiltshire, P. E. I.
