White House Tickled Nuclear Row Ignored

WASHINGTON (CP) — A White House informant described President Kennedy's advisers as being "tickled pink" that the president was asked no questions Thursday on the Canada-U.S. nuclear controversy.

In the 30-minute press conference, there was only one brief reference to Canada-U.S. differences on the nuclear issue.

That was when an American correspondent referred to U.S. difficulties with French President de Gaulle and "in a slightly lesser and slightly different way with the Diefenbaker government in Canada."

The correspondent wanted to know whether some new formula could be worked out to provide the allies with actual control over U.S. nuclear weapons "and the kicker is, could this formula be sold to the U.S. Congress?"

CITES PURPOSE

Kennedy replied that the Anglo - American Polaris agreement at Nassau had as its purpose the prevention of the North Atlantic alliance dissolving over the sensitive question of nuclear weapons control which, he said, is tied up with sovereignty.

Without referring to Canada, Kennedy said the United States and Europe would have to do a lot of negotiating to be successful in getting more than a different facade of U.S. nuclear control.

The White House informant said the president came to the press conference well-briefed on the Canadian issue but he volunteered no statement at the outset of the gathering.

Just before the conference opened, an official said Kennedy wanted to play the Canadian issue in low key. This contrasted with a view expressed earlier this week that the president was ready to make a statement on the issue. Since that time Parliament was dissolved and a Canadian general election called.

Heart Stops For Repairs

TORONTO (CP) — Surgeons stopped five-year-old Gregory Elliott's heart for 45 minutes here during a delicate heart operation.

Circulation was maintained by an artificial heart - lung pump.

The two-hour operation was a success, a spokesman for the Hospital for Sick Children said.

Gregory, who comes from Tiverton, N.S., was sent to Toronto with money raised by residents of the village.

Surgeons corrected two heart defects. A narrowed pulmonary valve obstructing the flow of blood from the heart to the lungs was cut open, and a hole between the atria, the smaller chambers of the heart, was closed.

Liberals Plan Non-Nuclear Role Is Claim

MONTREAL (CP) — Lionel Chevrier, Liberal PM for Montreal Laurier in the last Parliament, said here that if his party wins power April 8 it will demand a non-nuclear role for Canada.

But he said Canada will first have to honor commitments made by the government to accept nuclear arms.

Mr. Chevrier said in an interview Canada would "have to stand by this commitment, and I think it will take some time before we can change anything.

"But I think we should work for a conventional role for Canada in Western defence."

Mr. Chevrier also said the Liberals expect difficulties in Quebec province.

"There is no need to hide that fact," he said. "The fight in Quebec is not against the Conservatives but against Social Credit."

In the last federal election, Liberals won 35 seats in Quebec and Social Credit 26, with 14 going to the Progressive Conservatives.

The bidding:

South	West	North	East
1 ♥	Pass	2 ♦	Pass
2 ♥	Pass	4 ♥

Opening lead—jack of spades.

You play a great many hands where the outcome depends largely on how the opponents' cards are divided. The best thing to do in such cases is adopt the course of play that has the greatest chance of success.

Look at this hand where South fell short of his goal. He covered the jack of spades with the queen and won the king with the ace. He then played a heart to the ace and finessed the jack on the return. When the finesse succeeded, he cashed the king of hearts.

But when he led the king and another diamond and West showed out, South was licked. He had to lose two spades and two clubs to go down one. He was lucky that the hearts were divided 3-2 and East had the queen, but was unlucky to find the diamonds divided 4-1.

Nevertheless, he should have made the contract. South should have played on the basis that the trumps were favorably divided, that is, that East had the queen, either doubleton or tripleton, and gone ahead on that assumption.

Once the queen was granted to East, the next step was to do what he could to guard against a bad diamond division. This was where South failed and why he was defeated.

The proper play is to win the spade lead with the ace and play a diamond to the queen at trick two. A low heart is then led to the jack, the finesse succeeding. Now the king of hearts is cashed, and when both opponents follow suit, further trump leads are temporarily abandoned.

Now is the time to find out whether the diamonds are divided 3-2. The king is led to see whether both defenders follow, the intention being to play the ace of hearts next if the diamonds prove to be favorably distributed. But when West shows out on the king, a diamond is played to the ace and followed by a diamond ruff.

Now a heart to the ace permits a discard on dummy's last diamond and fulfillment of the contract.

DAILY CRYPTOQUOTE — Here's how to work it:

A X Y D L B A A X R
is L O N G F E L L O W

One letter simply stands for another. In this sample A is used for the three L's, X for the two O's, etc. Single letters, apostrophies, the length and formation of the words are all hints. Each day the code letters are different.
