

MAXIMS
OF A
MERE MAN
It is only when the mind is relieved from care that it can do its best work.

THE CHARLOTTETOWN GUARDIAN

The People's Paper Read by Everybody
Covers Prince Edward Island Like the Dew

MAXIMS
OF A
MERE MAN
The smaller system must conform to the greater, which embraces it.

CHARLOTTETOWN, CANADA, MONDAY, JUNE 12, 1939 10 PAGES

Annual Subscription Delivered $5.00
By Mail—P. E. I., $4.00; Canada and U. S. $5.00.

NEW YORK ACCLAIMS THEIR MAJESTIES

Conference of United Church is Concluded

BACKVILLE, N.B., June 11.—(CP)—The 14th Maritime Conference of the United Church of Canada concluded five days of business Saturday and adjourned final services today.

Sunday morning the 14th birthday of the United Church of Canada, the union having been made at Toronto on June 10, 1925. The Maritime members decided to observe the 15th anniversary fittingly at the next year's meeting of the Maritime Conference in June.

Preparations were reported well underway for the annual camp meeting at Seaside, N.B., Aug. 4-10. The special camp preacher will be Rev. Crossley Hunter, Toronto, and bible lectures will be given by Prof. John Dow, Toronto.

Other camp plans include a class for young people's workers under the leadership of Rev. C. U. McNevin and W. L. Clark, Leimington, Ont., and a training class under the supervision of Mrs. J. T. Burchell, President of the Maritime Conference Branch of the Women's Missionary Society.

ROYAL COUPLE ENJOY DAY AT HYDE PARK

Attend Church In Morning And Later Go Picnicking With Roosevelt's.

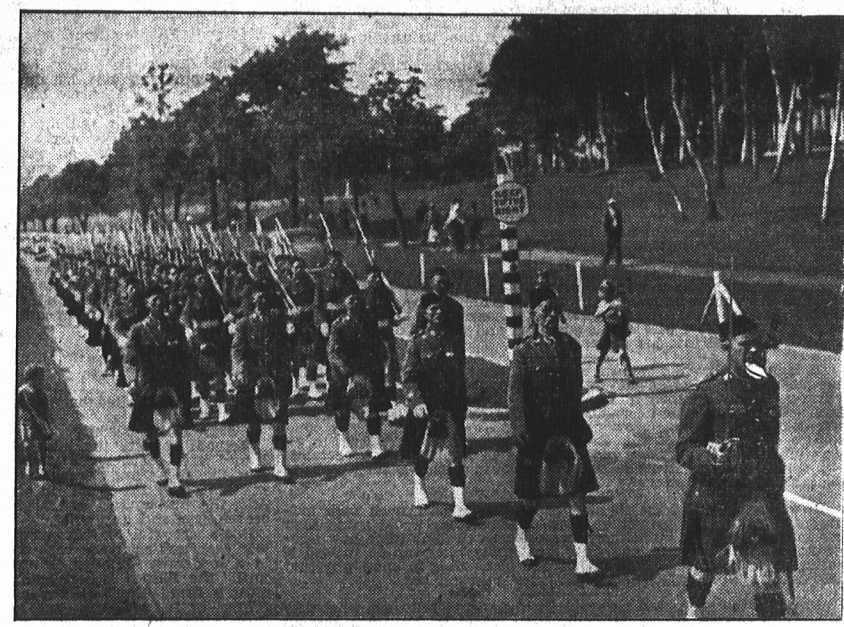

By A. E. FULFORD
Canadian Press Staff Writer
HYDE PARK, N. Y., June 11.—King George VI and Queen Elizabeth, having sampled American ways for four days including a Presidential picnic featuring hot dogs this afternoon, started back to Canada tonight on their return home.

The blue and silver royal train pulled out of the Hyde Park Station at 1:09 a.m. ADT after their Majesties had spent a restful informal night and day at President Roosevelt's Hyde Park estate.

The President and Mrs. Roosevelt, and the President's mother, Mrs. Sara Delano Roosevelt, brought their royal guests down to the plain, red brick station and waved them on their way, just as ordinary hosts do for ordinary weekend guests.

Last event at Hyde Park house was a small dinner party. Afterward the President and his family, the royal party and some members of their suite chatted until it was time to go to the station. Before departing, King George gave the President a silver and gilt ink well as a token of appreciation.

Highlanders Go Under Canvas At Ordnance Grounds, Brighton

Five companies of the Prince Edward Island Highlanders under the command of Lt. Col. C. C. Thompson went into camp over the weekend in preparation for the visit here of Their Majesties the King and Queen here on Wednesday. Above is pictured a detachment of the Highlanders.

MARITIMES IN GALA ATTIRE, AWAIT ROYALTY

Provinces By The Sea Anxiously Look Forward To Visit This Week.

(By The Canadian Press)

The Canadian Maritimes, a country teeming in associations of royalty, are on tiptoes of eager expectancy as they crane a collective neck down the route that is bringing their newest and most anxiously-awaited royal visitors, King George and his Queen can't get to the seaside provinces fast enough to suit their people.

A day from the coming of the royal guests, the suspense has reached a breathless crescendo. A seafaring people await their seafaring King, to tender him a welcome such as never before has been heaped on a visitor to these shores.

It's been like that for days. With the arrival more than a week off, Maritimers already were dressed up in houses, business places and public buildings. A look at almost any of the royal stopping-places today would convey the idea Their Majesties were due any minute.

Flags are sprouting out of the houses. Great streamers of red, white and blue bunting ran from ground floors to roofs of the business buildings. And prints and lithographs of the King and Queen and their children confront the observer at every turn.

Even towns that won't see Their Majesties are putting on Sunday regalia. A good many of these, too, will be heavily depleted of population when they are in the vicinity, for thousands from other communities plan to converge on the place where the King and Queen appear as they proceed through New Brunswick, Prince Edward Island and Nova Scotia.

Halifax, the city where Canada will make its debut to the Monarch and Queen Elizabeth June 15, has been in carnival mood for days. Streets are avenues of colour. Workmen clamour over buildings sending up new decorations by the hour.

The same eagerness is reflected in the other two provinces. It is even keener right now in New Brunswick, which has the honor of first greeting the royal pair as they make their first Maritime stop at Newcastle tomorrow.

From that old town they go to Fredericton, Saint John and Moncton before sailing for the Island Province. Hundreds of Nova Scotians living near the New Brunswick border are moving into the city to see the couple in a brief appearance decided on just recently at the pleas of people of that region.

In Charlottetown, King George will be renewing acquaintance with a city he visited 26 years ago as a young prince. He was there in 1913 as a naval cadet. That time, the city's welcome was subdued.

King And Queen Are Tumultuously Received By City

Unprecedented Reception Is Accorded British Sovereign And Consort By Populace.

(By Sam Robertson, Canadian Press Staff Writer)

HYDE PARK, N. Y., June 11.—King George and Queen Elizabeth spent a restful weekend in the Hyde Park ancestral home and estate of President and Mrs. Roosevelt that contrasted with the tumultuous reception given them by 3,000,000 New Yorkers Saturday.

The doors of the Hyde Park house, a plain, box-like structure that dates back to 1844, swung open to Their Majesties Saturday evening after they had passed a hot, wearying but triumphant day in Manhattan, riding through 51 miles of streets, seeing the great World's Fair, and constantly in view of the city's millions.

Beginning with a ride in the United States destroyer Warrington that brought them to Manhattan's Bay and in sight of New York's sharp skyline and ending with their drive up the beautiful green valley of the Hudson to President Roosevelt's 1,200 acre estate, it was perhaps the most crowded and most exciting day of the whole royal tour. Certainly Their Majesties have not driven past such milling throngs since their Coronation two years ago.

Coming Events

- Rate for Notices in this column 3 cents per word.
- Talkies and Dance—Bradabane Tuesday. L-255-6-10-21.
 - Talkies—Malpeque Wednesday. L-255-6-10-21.
 - Buying live fowl daily. Bowman's Store, Hunter River. L-306-6-12-15.
 - Island B. Y. P. M. Camp. Marshfield July 5th to 15th. Register now. L-12-11.
 - Borden Line Club loading hogs. Lams, calves every Tuesday. Hours 2 to 3. L-348-12-2-5-11.
 - Dance, Vernon Hall, Monday, June 12th. Friendly Four Orchestra. L-282-6-10-21.
 - Mermald Y. P. U. present two at one act. Play and dance at Mount Herbert Orphanage, June 18. L-339-6-12-13-16.
 - Help the A. Y. P. A. by attending Marfield-Dunstan drama play in Milton Hall, June 15th. L-353.
 - Come and see Dundas players present "In the Saddle" at the play hall, Friday, June 16th. Webster's Orchestra. L-346-6-12-21.
 - Big show and dance, Cance Cove Hall Tuesday, June 13th, featuring Uncle Frank and others. Music by the Novelists Orchestra. P. 25 and 15. L-356-6-12-21.
 - All teams and cars delivering milk or cream to the Pure Milk Company on the 14th must be away from the plant by 7 a. m. Streets will be closed at that time. L-349-6-12-21.
 - Feeder pigs for sale: All treated for worms, will make rapid gains and mature for a profitable sale and August market. Good chance to make dollars. Price listed. Livestock Marketing Board. L-352.
 - Commencing today we are reducing our price on Bran Shorts, Middlings, Barley Meal (best grade) round wheat, etc. in line with slight easing up in mill quotations. Visit our warehouse for better feed at lower prices. Livestock Feeds, Fitzroy Street. L-352.
 - Horse Feed: In response to demand we now have for sale a large quantity of horse feed at a price bought for less than $2.00 per cent. Not half the cost of other feed value considered. Livestock Feeds, Fitzroy Street. L-352.
 - Hog sales will net a price closer to values when hogs are sold en masse at a bargained price, instead of through opposing marketing channels, at the buyer's quotation. Universal co-operative marketing is the one remedy. Livestock Marketing Board. L-353.
 - Hog prices will probably be at their peak in July and August. Push yours along. Nothing better than our "balanced rations" including "Weaner," "Growing" and "Finishing" mixtures. Our prices are as low as quality and service will permit. Livestock Feeds. L-352.
 - The Pure Milk Co. will deliver to the city from 5 P. M. to 1 P. M. on Tuesday 13th (General Trip). Customers are asked to kindly have their bottles out. There will be no delivery on Wednesday 14th. The office will be open until noon for the convenience of customers. L-283-6-10-31.
 - Hog prices are lower in the Maritimes than we would expect, and lower than they need be, in view of the present hog shortage in Canada. Improper marketing is the main cause. If all Island hogs were sold co-operatively, a higher price level could easily be maintained. Livestock Marketing Board. L-352.

FEAR RETURN TO POLICY OF APPEASEMENT

HYDE PARK, N. Y., June 11.—(CP)—In a tiny church, nestling picturesquely among the trees two miles from President Roosevelt's family estate, King George, Defender of the Faith, and Queen Elizabeth, worshipped today with an American congregation as their triumphal four-day visit to the United States drew to a close.

Later, under a bright sun and a clear sky, they went to a typical American Sunday afternoon picnic arranged by Mrs. Roosevelt near the President's hill-top cottage retreat, 400 feet above the winding Hudson River from which they looked across forest stretches to the brilliant-hued palisades.

Highlanders Receive The King's Colors

The Prince Edward Island Highlanders in camp at Brighton until after the visit here of Their Majesties the King and Queen here on Wednesday. Above is pictured a detachment of the Highlanders.

PROBE MASS POISON PLOT AT SHANGHAI

SHANGHAI, June 11.—(AP)—Japanese reported tonight 20 high Japanese and Chinese officials of the Nanking Reformed Government were in the former Chinese capital from drinking wine allegedly poisoned in "a daring attempt of Chinese enemies of the new regime at wholesale killing of the officials."

They asserted the attempt occurred last night at the Japanese Consulate General when Japanese Shimizu, parliamentary vice minister of foreign affairs in Tokyo, at a banquet.

"Immediately following the drink of the initial toast to the guest of honor," a Japanese report said, "the entire assemblage was stricken. Japanese civilian and military physicians checked the effects of the poison before it had a chance to have fatal effects."

It added that "the brains behind the outrage still were at large although Nanking is being scoured for those responsible."

Japanese reports from Tientsin meanwhile said "a tense calm before the storm" prevailed in the North China port where the British concession had been threatened unless four Chinese there were surrendered to the Japanese.

Japanese said "isolated process" was due to start "in a few days" but so far there has been no effort to carry out a reported 48-hour ultimatum which expired last Saturday for turning over the Chinese refugees.

Japanese military officials here declined to confirm that an ultimatum had been issued but one asserted "strong action" was in prospect unless the British met the Japanese demand.

Japanese said the French concession also might be isolated, if action were taken against the British zone, as the two are adjacent and the British area could not be cut off if the French were open.

Historical Sword Will Be Carried

A sword steeped in historical lore will be waved in salute to King George and Queen Elizabeth when they land here Wednesday.

The claymore to be carried by Captain James Coles, M.M., who composed of Prince Edward Island Highlanders of the Black Watch, belonged to Sir Duncan Campbell, first Colonel-in-Chief of the Black Watch Regiment, Queen Elizabeth is the honorary Colonel-in-Chief today.

Still a thing of beauty and bearing the basket hilt of the sword was lined originally with oriental silk and decorated with jewels and tassels. The settings for the 16 jewels can still be seen in the network.

Inscribed on the hilt are the initials "D.C." and the date "1601." Known as a "Gentlemen's Claymore," the blade of the instrument is two feet, six inches in length. Sir Duncan, the first owner of the sword, died in 1632 in his 70's.

Present owner of the claymore is Mr. Ernest Ellis of Tyne Valley, P. E. I. Mr. Ellis, who is a descendant of Sir Duncan, loaned the sword to the Highlanders here for the celebration of the royal visit.

His great-grandfather, Douglas Campbell, who was a grandson of Sir Duncan, brought the sword with him to Prince Edward Island when he emigrated here about 1783. Douglas Campbell died in the western part of the province in 1823.

Cyclonic Winds Hit Quebec Town

ST. JOHN'S, Que., June 11.—(CP)—Property damage estimated at thousands of dollars was caused here today when a wind of cyclonic proportions tore through a section of this city in Quebec's eastern townships, blew off roofs of houses and toppled scores of trees. No one was injured.

The wind, whose velocity was estimated at 50 miles an hour, was accompanied by the worst down-pour of rain and hail ever experienced here.

The city, to be seen for a few minutes tomorrow by King George and Queen Elizabeth, will present a sad appearance. The wind tore to shreds most of the city's decorations. The royal train, bearing Their Majesties to Sherbrooke, is scheduled to stop here briefly.

Italy Seeks To Link Spain In Pacts With Axis Powers

MADRID, June 11.—Spanish newspapers reported today that Count Ciano, Italian Foreign Minister, would visit General Franco soon and suggested the possibility that Spain may join Italy in a political and military accord similar to the ties between Rome and Berlin.

Reports Count Ciano possibly would come to Spain June 21, according to the newspapers which said his conversations with Franco "may resolve a political-military accord between Madrid and Rome." They also held the possibility of a similar link between Madrid and Berlin.

In Rome it was said report of a forthcoming visit by Count Ciano to Madrid had circulated for weeks but no definite announcement had been made.

Diplomatic quarters in the Italian capital meanwhile speculated on the possibility of an Italian-Spanish alliance as an outgrowth of current conversations between military and naval officers.

(Both Germany and Italy aided General Franco in the Spanish civil war. Rome and Berlin signed a military pact May 22.)

Spain repeatedly has demonstrated close friendship with Italy and Germany and in both of those nations there now are Spanish missions which accompanied legationals returning from victorious participation in the civil war.

Spaniards were agreed, however, at General Franco would go slowly before committing his nation to any agreement calling for military aid. The Nationalist Leader has declared Spain's first concern now was her reconstruction.

She already is aligned with Germany and Italy through the Anti-Comintern Pact whose other signatories are Japan, Hungary and Manchoukuo.

Royal Program For Monday

By The Canadian Press
Back in Canada after four days in the United States, the King and Queen make three stops. Following is the program for today:

Sherbrooke
1:50 P.M. A.D.T.—Arrival. Presentation of Council members and other duties next Thursday when the King and Queen sail from Halifax. But he is not expected to end the election question suspense until perhaps a month or more later.

Ottawa
A popular belief in Ottawa is that the Prime Minister will seize the opportunity presented by the banquet to be tendered him in Toronto Aug. 8 to advise his followers, and his opponents whether there will be an election.

The banquet will celebrate the 20th anniversary of Mr. Mackenzie King's selection as leader of the Liberal Party. Even if the

Party Workers Active In Preparation For Election

OTTAWA, June 11.—Political workers in the capital are more or less marking time during the dog-days which always follow a prorogation of Parliament and which are particularly quiet this year because of the Royal visit. The one outstanding question is whether there will be a general election this year.

Prime Minister Mackenzie King, absent since early in May as minister in attendance upon His Majesty, will be freed from those duties next Thursday when the King and Queen sail from Halifax. But he is not expected to end the election question suspense until perhaps a month or more later.

A popular belief in Ottawa is that the Prime Minister will seize the opportunity presented by the banquet to be tendered him in Toronto Aug. 8 to advise his followers, and his opponents whether there will be an election.

The banquet will celebrate the 20th anniversary of Mr. Mackenzie King's selection as leader of the Liberal Party. Even if the

Places Fifth In Studies At McGill

(By The Canadian Press)

MONTREAL, June 11.—Dorothy Bentley of Charlottetown placed fifth in aggregate standing in the first year medical course at McGill University, according to reports announced yesterday. William A. F. Davis of Ottawa led the year.

Architect Dies At Saint John

SAINT JOHN, N.B., June 11.—(CP)—Walter W. Allingham, 59, resident architect here for the Department of Public Works for the last 17 years, died Saturday after a few months' illness. He had charge of construction and repairs of all Dominion government buildings in New Brunswick and Prince Edward Island.

Details Of Plans For Royal Visit

Orders and instructions for military and other units participating in the Royal Visit to Charlotte Town on Wednesday as authorized by Lieut. Colonel C. C. Thompson, M. C., V. D., Officer Commanding the Charlotte Town Area, are given in full on page three of today's Guardian.

Fight Flames To Save N. S. Village

YARMOUTH, N.S., June 11.—(CP)—Forest rangers said tonight volunteer firefighters at Yarmouth had managed to save that village 12 miles from here when a fire raged through 40 acres of dry timberland on its outskirts.

With water transported a half-mile by cart and horse-drawn buckets, the villagers fought the flames 24 hours Thursday and Friday, keeping them in check as they threatened to impinge on the community. Tonight, only a few smoldering were left of the blaze.

TORONTO, June 11.—(CP)—Minimum and maximum temperatures

Dawson	40	60
Vancouver	40	68
Edmonton	48	64
Regina	40	64
Winnipeg	48	68
Toronto	50	74
Ottawa	62	86
Montreal	66	84
Quebec	60	70
St. John's	48	62
Halifax	56	72
Charlottetown	48	76

FORECAST
Maritime East: Fresh or strong easterly to southerly winds; overcast with occasional showers and considerable fog.
High tide this morning at 5:50 and tonight at 6:42.
Sun sets this evening at 7:46 and rises tomorrow morning at 4:13.
Sun moon June 17, 9:37 A. M.
Summer time 1 1/2 hours later than Charlottetown.

THE CAR FERRY SAILINGS
Leaves Toronto 9:45 a.m., 1 p.m., 4:30 p.m.
Leaves Charlottetown 11 a.m., 2 p.m., 6:30 p.m.