Local and Other Items.

COMING.—To-morrow fortnight will be Thanksgiving Day.

POLICE COURT.—One drunk—Malcolm Warren—was fined one dollar and costs this morning.

YOUNG LADIES JOURNAL.—The November number of this favorfte work is at the Diamond Bookstore.

TO-NIGHT.—Meeting of stockholders of Charlottetown Driving Park and Exhibition Association, in McLeod's Hall, at 8 o'clock.

THE FIRST SNOW.—There was a slight snowfall this morning—the first of the season. The thermometer registered 30.5°—1½ below freezing point.

THE BONAVISTA.—The SS. Bonavista arrived here at 8 o'clock this morning, and left again this afternoon. She had a general cargo for and from this port.

SOLD.—The lot at the corner of Great George and Kent Streets was purchased at auction to-day by Mr. Lemuel Poole, for $1,250. Mr. Bearisto was the auctioneer.

POTATO SHIPMENTS.—The St. John Telegraph says: About twenty car loads of potatoes were shipped from Boston yesterday. A special which arrived from the east a day or two ago brought 12 car-loads of potatoes.

AYER'S PILLS, being convenient, efficacious, and safe, are the best cathartic, whether on land or sea, in city or country. For constipation, sick headache, indigestion, and torpid liver, they never fail. Try a box of them: they are sugar-coated.

SUCCESS in life is the result of push and energy. If the blood is impure and sluggish, both body and mind lack vigor. To cleanse and vitalize the blood and impart new life to the system, nothing else has such a marvelous effect as Ayer's Sarsaparilla.

MISSIONARY MEETING.—A meeting of the missionary committee of the N. B. and P. E. Island Methodist conference will be held in Centenary Church, St. John, on the 30th inst. On the following day the conference special committee will meet at the same place.

FREAKS OF THE SEASON.—Our exchanges still teem with items about ripe strawberries being picked throughout the country. The latest is from Yarmouth where, on Friday, Mr. S. H. Pelton picked a bunch of ripe strawberries from his garden.

QUICK RUNS.—The Halifax Chronicle says: The schooner Janie R., Captain Balcom, which arrived yesterday morning from Orwell, P. E. I., made the run in the quick time of 36 hours. The schooner Wm. Taylor, which also arrived yesterday morning from Murray Harbor, made the passage in the same time.

WAS IT POISONED?—A small-sized sensation was created at Memramcook, N. B., some days since by the news that Rev. Father Cormier had received a box of candy similar to those sent to the victims of poisoning in St. John. Father Cormier at once took the box to a doctor, but the result of the examination has been kept secret.

WORKED IT THIS TIME.—Detective Power has worked the "stool pigeon" business in Amherst successfully. He put a bogus criminal in the cell with Brophy, the burglar, and the latter became confidential and told the whole story of his crime. He was rather surprised when he found his prison comrade giving evidence which resulted in his conviction.

SAD.—A young man named John Ring was this morning in a state of senseless intoxication on Queen Street. He would vary his antics with dancing, laughing, and other witless efforts. It was evident that the dreadful dream of the drunkard—delerium tremens—would soon be his fate. Sordid, indeed, must be the heart, and blunted the feeling of those who sell liquor to such an unfortunate for the sake of the few cents they receive.

A NARROW ESCAPE.—The alarm this morning was for a fire in one of the bedrooms at the residence of Mr. B. C. Prowse, on Sydney Street. The fire started in a wardrobe—probably from a drum stove—and before it was discovered had attained so much headway that the life of a baby sleeping in the room was in danger. Indeed, were it not for the heroic conduct of Mrs. Theo. Howe, who rushed through the flames into the room and rescued the child, it certainly would have suffocated in a few moments. The wardrobe in which the fire started, with all its contents, and most of the furniture in the room, were destroyed. The loss is covered by insurance.

ANOTHER COMBINE SUGGESTED.—An exchange says: The latest iconoclast is a "lady phisician of extensive practice" who declares that spanking must be given up on account of its harmful effect upon children's spines. Thus, one by one, the traditions of household management are swept away. One must not cuff a naughty boy's ears for fear of breaking his drum, or lock him in a dark closet because of the injurious influence of twice-breathed air, or stand him with his face in a corner, lest it should hurt his vision, or send him supperless to bed out of regard for his digestion. The medical press is evidently subsidized in the interest of the small boy. It is time for parents to combine in defence of their inalienable rights.

Personal.

Senator Prowse, Murray Harbor, is registered at the Hotel Davies.

Richard Hunt, Esq., Summerside, was registered at the Davies yesterday.

Mr. S. N. Earle has been appointed choir master of Zion Church. The church and congregation are to be congratulated upon having secured the services of a musician of so much ability and experience.

It is reported that Mr. S. G. Chase, the first officer of the steamer Carroll, and Mrs. Chase, will make their home in Charlottetown next summer. Mr. Chase will, it is said, engage in the potato business; but will be open for all engagements, as before—especially picnics.

News Notes.

A company has been formed in Winnipeg to deal in Japanese goods at wholesale.

At Baie Verte, N. B., last week, ten square-rigged Norwegian vessels were loading deals in the Bay.

The bridge across the Firth of Forth, one of the greatest of engineering and mechanical works, has been completed.

The Liberal Conservative majority in Richelieu was, the other day, 334; in 1887 it was only 58.

Eight hundred and seventy-five miles of railway will be constructed in Canada during the current year.

TELEGRAPHIC NEWS.

SPECIAL DESPATCHES TO THE EXAMINER.

International Marine Conference.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 22.

Considerable progress was made at this morning's session of the International Marine Conference in the consideration of rules of the road. The amendments were proposed to the text. The changes were generally of an unimportant character. Articles covering the following topics were laid aside: Steering and sailing rules for sailing vessels; rules for steam vessels meeting; for two steamers crossing; steamships to keep out of the way of sailing vessels; for a steam vessel approaching another vessel; signals of steamers showing the course of a vessel. Overtaking another steamer in a narrow channel, right of way. Considerable discussion ensued upon changes in the rules necessary to lessen the chances of collision. No action was taken up to recess. The Conference concluded the reading of the rules of the road. In the afternoon a number of changes were suggested in several articles, but no action was taken. The Conference adjourned until Monday at 11 a. m.

On a Special Mission.

PARIS, Oct. 22.

The Rome correspondent of the Figaro says that General Ignatieff has arrived there on a special mission to the Vatican. Ignatieff, the correspondent says, bears an autograph letter from the Czar accepting the arbitration of the Pope on the Balkan question, leaving His Holiness free to accept any course which will conduce to the establishment of a modus vivendi between Russia and Austria.

Those Bonds Again.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., Nov. 22.

A despatch from the City of Mexico says that the Government bonds supposed to have been stolen have turned up all right. Through the carelessness of a clerk in the Treasury department the bonds were taken to a stamp printing department some months ago to be stamped and had been forgotten. They were brought to light yesterday by a careful search.

DIED.

In this city, on the 23rd inst., Bridget Stewart, in the 14th year of her age. May her soul rest in peace.

[Funeral from her late residence, Sydney Street, to-morrow at 2 o'clock, to Roman Catholic Cathedral.]

At St. Peter's Road, Oct. 5th, of congestion of the brain, Flora Mabel, youngest child of Bella and Isaac Bears, aged one year and four months.

Suddenly, on the 19th inst., at North Lake, Lot 47, Margaret Ann, daughter of the late Andrew Morrow, Esq., in the 56th year of her age., trusting in Him who is able to save to the uttermost. Sister Morrow was a member of the Church of Christ at South Lake. Her life was quiet and inoffensive, and her death leaves her aged mother, with whom she resided, in loneliness and sorrow, as well as a brother and sisters, with many friends. May the kind Father of all sustain the aged parent until the meeting in a happier clime!
