

THE DAILY EXAMINER.

APRIL 29, 1891.

Erroneous Statements and Methods.

We have a short reply to the Patriot's statement that...

"If the application of Mr. McLeod had been granted, when would the general elections have been off? Right at the time when every one will be almost too busy to think of anything but farming."

These statements are simply and absolutely untrue. The late Government never contemplated the idea of having a general election in May.

It is also untrue that, "When the Tories could get money to spend, they said nothing about reducing the legislature to fifteen men; now, however, when the treasury is at least $130,000 worse than empty, they are strong for retrenchment."

(1.) The Tories could have had money by the same method as that adopted by the grists, viz., by taxation. But they preferred to abolish the taxes, to economize, and to collect the debts due the Province.

(2.) THE EXAMINER repeatedly advised the reduction of the Legislature to fifteen men when yet the Province was entirely out of debt to the banks.

(3.) We venture the assertion that the debt due by the Province to the banks will not after the second week of July next be more than $50,000—notwithstanding the accession of the Grists.

The Government withholds the Public Accounts, and, by the Patriot, raises a hue and cry concerning the financial state of the Province. These be the tactics of the grists! But the people will judge only by what is shown in the Public Accounts.

Imports and Exports.

THE Monetary Times quotes the Trade and Navigation Returns as showing the imports and exports of P. E. Island. The Monetary Times should know that only a small proportion of the trade of this Province is represented by the Trade and Navigation Returns.

Notes and Comments.

—La Moniteur de Commerce calls upon the schoolmasters and the members of the French Canadian clergy in this province to instruct the people in the duties they owe the soil.

—The Fremdenblatt and the Neue Freie Presse, in commenting on President's speech at Galveston, agree that a European Zollverein is the only answer to American protection.

—The Breeders' Gazette of Chicago reports "for the nine months ending March 31" of this year our cattle exports amounting in value to $23,702,440, an increase over the corresponding period last year of $3,218,774.

—The road to Victoria Park, through Government House grounds, has been closed owing to the fact that cattle have been getting in through the open gate and trampling over the newly planted land.

—A sale of horses at Toronto last week has shown again that in ill-bred animal is of but little value, and very difficult to get rid of at almost any price, while the well-bred horse commands a ready sale with a good profit to the breeder.

Dyspepticure—Is not a palliative, but a cure; it first relieves, then controls, and finally entirely subdues the irritation and inflammation of the stomach that causes indigestion and dyspepsia.

Harbor Works in P. E. Island.

According to the report of the Minister of Public Works, the sum of $10,777.56 was expended in the past year on account of harbors and rivers in this Province.

At Cascumpec, the work of excavating a channel through the inner bar has been continued, and some 4,000 cubic yards of rock have been blasted, ready for removal by a dredge.

At Chapel Point a contract has been entered into for repairing the superstructure of the existing pier and extending it a distance of 44 feet; at the close of the fiscal year about half of the work was completed.

At China Point, extensive works of renewal and repairs were commenced by the Department, under contract, nearly half of the work undertaken being completed at the end of the year.

General repairs and improvements were made on the following piers, viz.: Annandale, Belfast, Hickey's, Kier's Shore, Lambert's, Melpeque breakwater, New London breakwater, North Rustico, Pinette, Port Selkirk, Pownal, St. Mary's Bay, Souris (or Colville Bay) breakwater, South River and Stephen's.

Von Moltke's Last Days.

Count Von Moltke, during the last few days previous to his death, worked with his wonted regularity. He had no premonition of death.

He had nearly completed plans for the fortification of the island of Heligoland, and sent a report to Emperor William on Tuesday last. The work that passed out of his hands showed no trace of any abatement in his constructive genius and his mastery of detail.

The Count told Chancellor Von Caprivi that when his plans for the fortification of Heligoland were approved he would go to Schaugenbad to take the waters, as he was suffering from a slight affection of the skin. Intimate friends of the Count who greeted him in the Reichstag say he showed no symptom that he was suffering from illness.

He appeared to be enjoying excellent health. He walked home after he had finished his labors in the Reichstag. He had been out every day for a week. He dined with the Swedish minister and during the evening he was very animated. He retired, but it was supposed by the others present that he would soon return, but as he did not, his nephew went after him. He found his uncle in a sitting position gasping for breath.

Personal.

Judge Hensley has been granted leave of absence till October 30th.

Mr. Harry N. Goff, of this city, is among the B. A. graduates at McGill University, Montreal, this year.

The Rev. Alfred Osborne, B. D., has passed successfully the examination of Trinity University for the degree of Doctor of Divinity.

The election of Sir James Bain for Whitehaven on Friday makes the third bye-electional success won by Lord Salisbury this year. The Liberals have won nothing.

The Canada Gazette received this morning, contains the following under the heading of "Appointments": "Edward Jarvis Hodgson, of the City of Charlottetown, in the Province of Prince Edward Island, Esquire, one of Her Majesty's Counsel learned in the Law, to be Master of the Rolls in Chancery and an Assistant Judge of the Supreme Court of Prince Edward Island, vice the Honourable Mr. Justice Peters, resigned."

News Notes.

On Tuesday last $1,699,000 in gold was ordered to New York for export.

At Iquique, Chili, recently, $20 was paid for a can of preserved milk, and beef sold at $10 a pound.

Heavy rains have caused destructive floods in Peru. Many lives have been lost.

Telegrams received in London report that the Roumanian Government has issued orders stopping the export of maize in consequence of the depletion of the stocks of maize in Roumania.

Notes from Baldwin's Road.

Once more the recurrence of the vernal season awakens a feeling of gladness in every heart. People no longer dwell upon the severities and hardships of the late winter, so happy are they in the realization that the warm weather has come when they can walk forth once more to enjoy the balmy air and refreshing breeze.

But, although this is a season in which all should feel glad, yet they cannot afford to spend it in pleasant recreation, for they must be "up and doing," preparing for the exigencies of another winter, especially the farmer, whose avocation is one of toil, must be out from the "rising of the sun to the going down thereof," tilling and sowing for a harvest which he hopes will give him remunerative returns for his labor.

The farmers of Baldwin's Road are wide awake to the injunction that "a man must sow if he intends to reap," and have started the plough in several places. The land being high and dry and suitably adapted to early working, they have made rapid strides, while others of surrounding districts have scarcely begun.

Considerable shipping has been done here this spring. Mr. Ely has loaded a car at 48 Station, and Mr. Dennis McQuaid is loading a couple of cars at Baldwin's Station. Prices range from 32 to 35 cents.—COM.

A WORD IN SEASON.—The attention of THE EXAMINER has been called to the fact that some person is depositing manure in the vicinity of the Ferry Wharf at Southport, much to the annoyance of the people of that neighborhood.

At the End of the Journey.

Fold the hands gently, press the eyes closely, Tenderly pillow the head— Hands that are pulseless, eyes that are sightless, A weary wayfarer is dead.

Ears dull of hearing, lips cold and voiceless, The tongue its last message has said, Feet that were weary are resting forever— An earthly sojourn is dead.

Pause, then, as we come to the end of the journey, Whence a soul life forever has fled; Speak softly, tread lightly, where Infinite Presence Enwraps and embraces our dead.

Then fold the hands gently, press the eyes closely, And tenderly pillow the head, Last words have been spoken, last messages given, And last adieus waved to our dead.

—John Wentworth in Good Housekeeping.

Moncton Notes.

Mr. W. C. Davidson, a former resident of this city, is here visiting friends.

Mr. Geo. Douglass, ex-city surveyor, one of Charlottetown's old citizens, is also in the city on his return from Toronto, where he had been rejuvenating. Mr. Douglass was an old resident of Moncton, having lived here some 35 or 40 years ago.

A gong connected with the fire alarm system has been placed in the engine room of the railway works. When an alarm of fire is sounded the engineers will sound two short whistles and thus notify the firemen in the works. Something of this sort was greatly needed, as a number of firemen working in the shops were unable to hear the fire bell.

This morning Dr. E. O. Steves amputated a toe from the right foot of an infant born in Moncton a short time ago. The foot was perfect in shape, except that on the outside of the right foot was an additional toe.

The steamer Arbutus will begin her trips on Monday. They will arrive here about 12 o'clock.

Mr. Pascal Herbert, of Memramcook, and Mr. J. C. Steadman of Moncton, met on Tuesday, and arranged a trotting match between the colts of the former and Mr. Steadman's "Sir John," the race to take place on the 20th of May, on the Moncton Trotting Park, and will be the best two in three heats. The first deposit, $50 a side was made with Mr. P. S. McManus. The final deposit of $50 will be made about May 1st. April 25, 1891.

Victoria Park Roadway.

Sir,—I see by this morning's Guardian that the pathway through Government grounds to Victoria Park is to be closed. Surely this cannot be so. Surely our good Governor is not going to be cruel enough to deprive us of one of the greatest pleasures we poor people enjoy. I am a sick woman, and have been looking forward to the warm summer when I may commence my quiet walks to the Park, fanned by the strengthening breeze from the ocean. Will you not, Sir, intercede in our behalf. Governor Carvell is, I know, a kindly christian gentleman, and will surely cancel this order. INVALID.
