

A GLOWING TRIBUTE

To the Wonderful Efficacy of Dodd's Kidney Pills.

By Mr F W Harris, of Central Waterville, York Co., N B. Who was Cured of Kidney Disease by Them, After Other Remedies had Failed.

Central Waterville, N B., Nov 9.—Mr F W Harris, a well known and highly respected resident of this place, has made, over his own signature, a statement that should be read in every household in the Dominion, for it points a way to banish from our country the greatest evil and the greatest danger that threatens.

Mr Harris writes in these words: "This is to certify that after having suffered for two years and a half with Kidney Disease I have been cured thoroughly and completely by three boxes of Dodd's Kidney Pills.

"During the greater part of the period named, I was unable to work, and my complaint was steadily growing worse. I tried many different remedies, but received not the least benefit from them.

"From the time I commenced taking Dodd's Kidney Pills, my condition began to improve, and continued to improve until I had used three boxes of the medicine. I then required no further treatment, for I was cured absolutely and thoroughly.

"I make this statement voluntarily, and of my own accord, never having been asked to do so."

A statement like this should carry the greatest weight with those who read it. It is a glowing tribute to the wonderful efficacy of that far-famed remedy, Dodd's Kidney Pills, the one and only known cure for all forms of Kidney Disease.

Dodd's Kidney Pills are sold by all druggists, at fifty cents a box; six boxes $2.50, or sent, on receipt of price, by the Dodd's Medicine Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

THE KINETOSCOPE

The war correspondents need not go out of business. The football season is about to open.—St. Paul Globe.

The ushers in one of the New York theaters have struck against being obliged to wear powdered wigs and we don't blame 'em a little bit.—Boston Herald.

Talking of a coal station in the Pacific, that important coal station, the cellar, is becoming a burning question in the household.—Philadelphia Times.

A bicycle club offers a handsome prize for the most appropriate ode to be sung at their coming annual meeting. What's the matter with "Old Hundred?"—Denver Post.

If these stirring international questions are not soon settled, the annual chrysanthemum shows will come along and divert public attention from everything else.—Baltimore News.

Those people out in Oklahoma who turned out and lynched a judge of the court must be very fastidious concerning the quality of justice in that territory.—Washington Post.

Of course it is an Ohio baby that enjoys the proud distinction of being born in a Pullman car. Wonder if the porter received an extra quarter for the additional birth.—Boston Transcript.

A San Francisco girl now takes a four mile swim in the Pacific every morning. But as likely as not some other girl will be mean enough to charter a tug in order to kiss Dewey first.—Chicago Times-Herald.

A jockey boy, 17 years old, has signed a contract which calls for $10,000 a year salary. In view of this, why should ambitious young men strive to be baseball pitchers or professional bicycle riders or even college presidents?—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

Mrs. Matilda B. Carse still has hopes of saving the W. C. T. U. temple in Chicago and also has a plan. She wants 100 persons to give each $1,000 and 100 other persons to give each $100 toward lifting the debt from the building. The plan is simple, and if Mrs. Carse can only find the persons she wants the temple will be saved.—Bloomington Pantagraph.

CURIOUS CULLINGS.

Girls in New Guinea have small chance of eloping. Every night they are put in a little house at the top of a tall tree. The ladder used to reach it is then removed.

A Persian never takes a dose of physic until he has previously obtained a favorable answer from heaven in the shape of an omen. Should he happen to sneeze when he has the potion at his lips he throws the medicine away.

It used to be the custom when the chief priest of one of the Kongo tribes showed symptoms of illness to kill him forthwith either by strangling or by aid of a club, the natives believing that if he were allowed to die by disease all the rest of the world would perish.

POLITICAL QUIPS.

Secretary Day is not the least bit superstitious. There are Ohio men who would not think of resigning an office on Friday or any other day.—Washington Post.

How quick we are to adopt current phrases into political slang! Here is a headliner who says to a "Pol" means "Are you going to resign?"—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

Cured His Cramp.

At an evening party in London some time ago a gushing girl was introduced to Mark Twain.

"On, Mr. Clemens!" she said. "Now, please, do tell me! I've been thinking of taking up writing, but I am so afraid of that dreadful writers' cramp one hears so much about. Did you ever have it?"

"I did, madam."

"And what did you take for it?"

"Beefsteak."

"Just fancy! But how and where did you apply it?"

"Broiled and internally," said Mark Twain gravely. "I can't answer for its being a panacea, but it cured the kind of cramp I had, all right."

When they put a man in jail, he cannot follow his natural inclinations. He cannot eat what he wants to—he is limited to a very frugal diet. Is it not equally true of a dyspeptic? For all the real enjoyment he gets out of life, he might as well be in jail. He cannot eat what he likes, nor enough. He suffers much, gets little sympathy. At first, perhaps a little heaviness in the stomach, a little sourness, windy belchings and heartburn; headaches and biliousness and a foul taste in the mouth in the morning. Chronic constipation is almost inevitable, and means that the body is holding poison, impure matter that should be gotten rid of. The poison is being reabsorbed into the blood and the whole body. Impurity in the blood may lead to almost any disease. Constipation is the start of it all. Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pills cure constipation, cure it so it stays cured. No other remedy in the world will do that.

STOP IT NOW!

Before it is too late, stop that succession of colds that means nothing more nor less than catarrh. Stop the disagreeable catarrhal discharges that are so humiliating to you and offensive to your friends. Don't let it run on until your condition causes you to be ostracized as if you were a leper. Don't neglect yourself until consumption makes its fatal appearance. You can be cured—not merely relieved, but absolutely and perfectly cured.

Dr. Agnew's Catarrhal Powder

will restore you to complete, perfect health. It gives relief at once. It cures in an incredibly short time. Hundreds of cases of from 5 to 20 years' standing have been cured—cases that physicians had pronounced incurable. The catarrhal powder acts like magic, not only in catarrh, but in colds, sore throat, tonsillitis, hay fever, loss of smell, deafness and all similar diseases.

Mr. C. G. Archer, of Brewer, Maine, writes as follows:—"I have had catarrh for several years. Water would run from my eyes and nose for days at a time. About four months ago I was induced to try Dr. Agnew's Catarrhal Powder, and since using the wonderful remedy I have not had an attack. I would not be without it." At druggists.

Dr. Agnew's Cure or the Heart cures all cases of organic or sympathetic disease of the heart—relieves in 30 minutes. Dr. Agnew's Liver Pills are at once a mild cathartic, invigorator and system renovator. 20c. for 40 doses. Dr. Agnew's Ointment relieves in a day and cures eczema, salt rheum and all diseases of the skin. Cures piles in 2 to 3 nights. 50c.
