FIRE PICTURES.

BY ALICE CAREY.

In the embers all aglow,
Fancy makes the pictures plain,
As I listen to the snow
Beating chill against the pane—
The wild December snow
On the lamp-illumined pane.

Bending downward from his prime,
Like the ripe fruit from its bough,
As I muse my simple rhyme,
I can see my father now,
With the waning flowers of time
Blooming white upon his brow.

Sadly flows the willow tree
On the hill so drear, yet dread,
Where the resting-places be,
Of our dear ones that are dead—
Where the mossy headstones be,
Of my early playmates dead.

But despite the dismal snow,
Blinding all the window o'er,
And the wind, that, crouching low,
Whines against my study door,
In the embers' twilight glow
I can see one picture more.

Down the beechen-shaded hills,
With the summer lambs at play,
Run the violet-nursing rills
Through the meadows sweet with hay,
Where the grey-winged plover trills
Of its joys the live-long day.

Seeming almost within call,
'Neath our ancient trysting tree,
Art thou pictured, source of all
That was ever dear to me;
But the wasted embers fall,
And the night is all I see—

Solemn night with gusts of snow
Blowing wild against the pane,
And the wind that crouches low,
Crying mournfully in vain,
And the dreams that come and go
Through my memory-haunted brain.

ULALIE.

BY ALICE CAREY.

The crimson of the maple trees,
Is lighted by the moon's soft glow;
Oh, nights like this, and things like these,
Bring back a dream of long ago.
For on an eve as sweet as this—
Upon this bank—beneath this tree—
My lips, in love's impassioned kiss,
Met those of Ulalie.

Softly as now the dewdrops burned
In the flushed bosoms of the flowers,
Backward almost seems time to have turned
The golden axis of the hours,
Till, cold as ocean's beaten surf,
Beneath these trailing boughs, I see
The white cross and the faded turf

THE FOLLOWING REMARKABLE PRESENTIMENTS WE EXTRACT FROM AN EXCHANGE PAPER:

Among the unrecorded escapes from the steamer Amazon, recently burnt at sea, was that of a Peer of the realm, the Earl of Sheffield. This nobleman, who is, or is to be, the possessor of a large estate in Barbadoes, in right of his wife, daughter of Earl Harewood, one of the ladies of the bed-chamber to the late Queen Adelaide, had made personal application for a passage in the usual way, but hearing that the voyage was to be commenced on Friday, the presage of ill, associated with that ominous day, by so many eminent minds, alike of sceptic and devotee, seized upon him, and with abiding tenacity too. The noble Earl retraced his way from the office in Moorgate-street to his residence in Portland place, full of misgivings, which the terrible calamity so fearfully justified; and henceforth doubtless, Friday will be a red letter of rejoicing in his domestic calendar. Here is another nut for the metaphysical reader to crack.—As a specimen of the consequences of disregarding the presentiment which saved Lord Sheffield, take the case of one of the passengers who perished, Mr. Best, President of the Council at Barbadoes. This gentleman had been in the habit of passing between England and the West Indies for many years—always in sailing vessels—never would entrust himself to a steamer; but the sight of so magnificent a floating castle as the Amazon, wherein the perfection of safety, speed, and splendour, appeared to be concentrated, overcome his scruples and appeared to convince him of the absurdity of his forebodings. He went—and perished.

A gentleman in New Bedford who employs a number of Irishmen, seeing one of them one day with a jug, asked him what he had in it.

"An, shure, it is vinegar, sir."

The gentleman requested him to assist him in removing a stone, and while he was so engaged, the contents of the jug were scented, and found to be rum.

"Why," said the gentleman, "this is not vinegar—it is rum."

"Is it, be japers?" said Patrick; well I bought it for vinegar, and if it is rum, the spalpeen chated me like the devil, so he did."

RED REPUBLICANISM ILLUSTRATED.—The late Sir Francis Burdett occasionally chatted with a Piccadilly street-sweeper. "Well, Pat," he once said, "what's to be done for the poor people now?" "O, God bless your honor! there's nothing for it, Sir Francis, sir, but to divide. The rich should share with the poor—share an' share alike." "But, my friend, in a year things would be as bad and as unequal as ever. How then?" "Glory be to God! your honor, sir, that's aisy—divide again."

THE ART OF LIVING.—The celebrated John Wesley enjoyed health to a very late period of life. He gave the following account of himself:—I am now 80 years of age, and I have the spirits and almost the strength which I possessed at 50. The cause of this, under Providence, has been, that I rise at five o'clock every morning; I live on the income of my fellowship (£100 per annum from Lincoln College) I travel 6,000 miles in the course of the year; I preach once every day in the week, and twice every Sunday; and when I die I shall not leave £100 behind me."

A bad reputation is like an earthen pitcher, easily fractured, and hard to mend. A good reputation resembles a vase of gold, injured with difficulty, and quickly restored to its pristine perfection.

It is a bad sign when a preacher tries to drive home his logic by thumping the desk violently with his left hand. His arguments are so-fist ical.

Politics used to be a science; it is now nothing more than a game!

A man cannot possess anything better than a good woman, nor anything worse than a bad one!

One of the saddest things about human nature is, that a man may guide others in the path of life, without walking in it himself—that he may be a pilot, and yet a cast-away.

One unquiet, perverse disposition, distempers the peace and unity of a whole family, in society, as one jarring instrument will spoil a whole concert.

Boston City Wharf, with ten granite stores thereon, and other rights and appurtenances was sold at auction, on the 20th inst., for $411,000, to Josiah Quincey, sen.

JUDSON'S CHEMICAL EXTRACT OF

CHERRY AND LUNGWORT,

FOR THE CURE OF

Coughs, Colds, Hoarseness, Spitting of Blood, Night Sweats, Asthma, Liver Complaints, and CONSUMPTION.

DO NOT NEGLECT IT:

Consumption can be and has been cured,

in thousands of cases, by this only certain remedy,

JUDSON'S CHEMICAL EXTRACT OF CHERRY AND LUNGWORT, and no remedy has ever before been discovered that will certainly

Cure Consumption.

The most strongly marked and developed cases of Pulmonary Con sumption, where the lungs have become diseased and ulcerated and the case so utterly hopeless, as to have been pronounced by Physicians and friends, to be past all possibility of recovery, and at times thought to be dying, have been cured by this wounderful remedy, and are now as well and hearty as ever. It is a compound of medications which are peculiarly adapted to and essentially necessary for the cure of

COUGHS AND CONSUMPTION.

Its operation is mild, yet efficacious; it loosens the phlegm which creates so much difficulty, relieves the cough and assists nature to expel from the system all diseased matter by expectoration, producing a delightful change in the breathing and chest, and this, after the prescriptions of the very best medical men and the inventions of kind and sorrowing friends and Nurses, have failed to give the smallest relief to the Consumptive sufferer.

THOUSANDS OF CONSUMPTIVE

persons have been deceived repeatedly in buying medicines which were said to be infallible cures, but which have proved only palliatives, but this medicine is not only a palliative but a cure for ulcerated lungs. It contains no deleterious Drugs and one trial will prove its astonishing efficacy better than any assertions or certificates in curing consumption and all diseases of the Lungs, such as Spitting of blood, Coughs, pain in the side and chest, night-sweats, &c. &c.

About 1000 certificates of almost miraculous cures, performed by this medicine, from some of the first Doctors, Clergymen and Merchants, have been sent us for this medicine, but the publication of them looks too much like Quackery, [we will show them to any person, calling at our office.] This medicine will speak for itself and enough in its own favour wherever it is tried.

Caution—This medicine is put up in a large bottle and you must find the name of Judson & Co., Proprietors, New York, on the splendid Wrapper around the bottle. All orders must be addressed to Comstock & Brother, No. 9 John St. New York.

To Owners of and Dealers in Horses.

CARLTON'S FOUNDER OINTMENT,

For the cure of Founder, Split Hoof, Hoof-bound Horses, and contracted and Feverish Feet, Wounds, Bruises in the Flesh, Galled Backs, Cracked Heels, Scratches, Cuts, Kicks, &c. on horses.

CARLTON'S RING-BONE CURE.

For the cure of Ring-bone, Blood Spavin, Bone Spavin, Windgalls, and Splint—a certain remedy.

CARLTON'S CONDITION POWDERS FOR HORSES AND CATTLE.

The changes of weather and season, with the change of use and feed, have a very great effect upon the blood and sinuous fluids of horses. It is at these changes they require an assistant to nature to throw off any disorder of the fluids of the body that may have been imbibed, and which, if not attended to, will result in the Yellow water, Heaves, Worms, Botts, &c. All of which will be prevented by giving one of these powders, and will at any time, cure when any symptoms of disease appear, if used in time. They purify the blood, remove all inflammation and fever, loosen the skin, cleanse the water, and invigorate the whole body, enabling them to do more work with the same feed. The action of these powders is direct upon all the secretive glands, and therefore has the same effect upon the Horse, the Ox, the Ass, and all Herbivorous animals—all diseases arising from or producing a bad state of the blood, are speedily cured by them.

Remember and ask for CARLTON'S CONDITION POWDERS, and take no others.

CARLTON'S NERVE AND BONE LINIMENT FOR HORSES, and for the cure of all diseases of man or beast that require external application, and for contracted cords and muscles, strengthens weak limbs, and is also used for sprains, bruises, saddle galls, swelled legs, sores of all kinds on horses.

CARLTON'S articles for Horses and Cattle are prepared from the recipe of a very celebrated English Farrier, and will cure in ninety-nine cases out of one hundred of any of the above complaints. They have been used by Farmers, livery-men, stage proprietors and others with the most marked and decided success.

Caution.—None can be genuine unless you find the name of J. Carlton Comstock, on the Wrapper of each article.

COMSTOCK'S VERMIFUGE.

This is the most extraordinary remedy for Worms ever used; it effectually eradicates Worms from both Adults and Children. It cannot harm the most delicate infant or strongest Adult, and never fails to completely root out and destroy all kinds of Worms. The cost, 25 cents per bottle, puts it within reach of all, and all parents who are without it, are wantonly exposing the lives of their children to those fell destroyers of youth, "Worms." Look for the name of Comstock & Brother, proprietors, on the Wrapper of each bottle.

To the Old and Young!! Ho! ye Red Heads and Grey!!!

PHENOMENON IN CHEMISTRY!!!!

EAST INDIA HAIR DYE.

COLORS THE HAIR, AND WILL NOT THE SKIN.

This dye may be applied to the hair over night, the first night turning the lightest RED or GREY HAIR to a dark brown, and by repeating a second night, to a bright jet black. Any person may, therefore, with the least possible trouble keep his hair any dark shade or perfect black; with a positive assurance that the dye, if applied to the skin will not colour it. By an occasional application, a person turning grey will never be known to have a grey hair. Directions complete with the article. There is no colouring in this statement, as one can easily test.

These facts are warranted by the gentleman who manufactures it who is the celebrated Chemist, Dr. COMSTOCK, author of Comstock's Chemistry, Philosophy, and other works, and School Books, well known and widely celebrated by the public.

Deafness.

Use Dr. LARZETTE'S ACOUSTIC OIL, for the cure of Deafness Also, all those disagreable noises, like the buzzing of insects, falling of water, whizzing of steam, which are symptoms of approaching deafness. Many persons who have been deaf for ten, fifteen or twenty years, and were subject to use ear trumpets, have after using one or two bottles, thrown aside these trumpets, being made perfectly well. It has cured cases of ten, fifteen, and even thirty years standing of deafness.

HAY'S LINIMENT FOR THE PILES.

The worst attacks of the Piles are effectually and permanently cured in a short time by the use of the genuine Hay's Liniment. Hundreds of our first citizens throughout the country have used this liniment with complete success.

THE ROAD TO HEALTH!

HOLLOWAY'S PILLS.

CURE OF A DISORDERED LIVER AND BAD DIGESTION

Copy of a Letter from Mr. R. W. Kirkus, Chemist, 7 Presco Street, Liverpool, dated 6th June, 1851.

To Professor HOLLOWAY;

SIR,—Your Pills and Ointment have stood the highest on our sale list of Proprietary Medicines for some years. A customer, to whom I can refer for any enquiries, desires me to let you know the particulars of her case. She had been troubled for years with a disordered liver, and bad digestion. On the last occasion, however, the virulence of the attack was so alarming, and the inflammation set in so severely, that doubts were entertained of her not being able to bear up under it; fortunately she was induced to try your Pills, and she informs me that after the first, and each succeeding dose, she had great relief. She continued to take them, and although she used only three Boxes, she is now in the enjoyment of perfect health. I could have sent you many more cases, but the above, from the severity of the attack, and the speedy cure, I think, speaks much in favor of your astonishing Pills.

AN EXTRAORDINARY CURE OF RHEUMATIC FEVER, IN VAN DIEMEN'S LAND.

Copy of a Letter inserted in the Hobart Town Courier, of the of the 1st March, 1851, by Major J. Walch.

Margaret M'Connigan, nineteen years of age, residing at New Town, has been suffering from a violent rheumatic fever for upwards of two months, which had entirely deprived her of the use of her limbs; during this period, she was under the care of the most eminent medical men in Hobart Town, and by them her case was considered hopeless. A friend prevailed upon her to try Holloway's celebrated Pills, which she consented to do, and in an incredibly short space of time they effected a perfect cure.

CURE OF A PAIN AND TIGHTNESS IN THE CHEST AND STOMACH OF A PERSON 84 YEARS OF AGE.

From Messrs. Thew & Son, Proprietors of the Lynn Advertiser, who can vouch for the following statement.—August 2, 1851.

To Professor HOLLOWAY.

SIR,—I desire to bear testimony to the good effects of Holloway's Pills. For some years I suffered severely from a pain and tightness in the stomach, which was also accompanied by a shortness of breath, that prevented me from walking about. I am 84 years of age, and notwithstanding my advanced state of life, these Pills have so relieved me, that I am desirous that others should be made acquainted with their virtues. I am now rendered, by their means, comparatively active, and can take exercise without inconvenience or pain, which I could not do before.

(Signed) HENRY COE,
North Street, Lynn, Norfolk.

AN EXTRAORDINARY CURE OF THE GRAVEL, AND A MOST DANGEROUS LIVER COMPLAINT.

Copy of a Letter addressed to J. K. Heydon, Esq., Sidney, New South Wales, dated February 25, 1851.

SIR,—A Mr. Thomas Clark, a settler at Lake George, was for a considerable time seriously afflicted with a complaint of the Liver, together with the Gravel. His medical attendants, after trying all their skill, candidly told him that his case was hopeless, and any further efforts useless. In this situation, and when expecting, every day would terminate his existence, a friend recommended him to try Holloway's Pills, and as a forlorn hope he did so, the first dose gave him considerable relief, he therefore persevered in taking them according to the directions, and is now restored to perfect health. He will feel great pleasure in confirming this statement, or even make an affidavit to the same effect, should it be required.

(Signed) WM. JONES, Proprietor of Goulburn Herald, New South Wales

Worcestershire Sauce.

IT is an old true saying that 'Good wine needs no bush,' the same remark applies to the Worcestershire Sauce, prepared by Lea and Perrins. It is only necessary for us to make this one observation—that, for flavour and piquancy, it exceeds all other Sauces that are now before the public, and has only to be tasted to be appreciated.

Perrins' Worcestershire Sauce is adapted for every variety of dish —from turtle to beef—from salmon to steaks—to all of which it gives a famous relish. I have great pleasure in recommending this excellent Sauce to Captains and Passengers for its capital flavour, and as the best accompaniment of its kind for any voyage.

The truth of the familiar adage, 'Appetite makes the best sauce,' which ought never to have dropped from the lips of a Frenchman, is boldly disputed by Messrs. Lea and Perrins, and not without justice, for since their invention the adage is inverted—the Sauce positively creating the appetite. The Worcestershire sauce has a peculiar gout of its own, full of richness, picquancy, excellent for digestion, and we should say unrivalled for promoting the appetite, and indispensable for the dining-room table.
