Turcotte's Treason.

La Minerve publishes the following letter, written on the 20th May, by M. Turcotte, but does not say to whom it was addressed; very probably it was sent to M. Chaplea, the leader of the Opposition:—
"THREE RIVERS, 20th May, 1878.

"MY DEAR FRIEND,—You know that I am a Conservative, and that I am determined to remain a Conservative. I have accepted the candidature of the Joly Government, because I believe it has a majority; but should I be so far in error in this respect as that my vote would be necessary to elect me, I shall vote against myself.

"Yours always,
"ARTHUR TURCOTTE."
On this assurance the Opposition remained confident in the belief that the defeat of the Government was a certainty. But there was work to be done on the day the Legislature met, and here we allow the editorial correspondent of the Montreal Gazette to speak:—

"That was the position until this morning. At about ten o'clock Mr. Turcotte became decided, and wrote a letter to Mr. Joly, which he sent by a carter, respectfully declining the nomination. No answer was sent, but the Solicitor General, with another famous Arthabaska politician, Mr. Pacaud, were soon seen with the member for Three Rivers, and he was by them hurried off to the Government House. That was the statement, but I fancy it must have been the Government offices at the Esplanade. He was kept there some little time, and emerged apparently fixed beyond recovery, although Heaven only knows what might have resulted had a few hours elapsed before the House was to meet."

While M. Turcotte seemingly desired to remain true to his party, it is quite evident that the promises made to him proved superior to his political fealty, and that at the last moment he fell a victim to bribery and corruption. "La Minerve" pledges itself to prove that bribery and corruption were practiced.

It would seem, however, as though M. Joly had run the full length of his tether in this line of business. Yesterday's Globe admits that it is quite impossible for him to carry on the Government. If M. Turcotte was simply troubled with the notion that M. Joly had a majority in the Legislative Assembly he must now be convinced he was in error, and it would be possible for him in some measure to rehabilitate his character by resigning a position to which, if he still adheres to the views expressed in his letter of 20th of May, he has been elected by false representations. While we say this, however, we must remember that he broke his pledge to vote against himself; and we have consequently little hope that he will retrace the disgraceful step which he has taken.—Toronto Mail.

The Prussian General Von Hanneken, the well known strategist, who was the first to draw scientific conclusions from the combination of spade and breech loader practised by the Turks in the last campaign, has published an essay upon the military prospects of an Anglo-Russian campaign. The General attributes the greater chance of victory to the Russians. He regards the Russians as strong enough to occupy all the more important positions in Turkey before the English can make effective resistance; and, moreover, looks upon the despatch of a Russian army from Samarcand to Herat, Cabul, and further east as practicable.

A farewell address was presented to His Excellency the Governor-General by the Corporation of Ottawa in the Council Chamber. After His Excellency had replied, he held a levee, which was attended by a large number of citizens, who availed themselves of the opportunity to say good-bye.

Mr. F. W. Glen, formerly a great admirer and supporter of T. N. Gibbs, is now his opponent in the Grit interest in South Ontario. Doubtless it was part of the bargain between him and the Government that he should support their trade policy. But he does so under protest, for we find this quali fying sentence in his speech accepting the nomination:—

"I am prepared, when the proper time arrives, to urge upon the Government, if desirable, a revision of the present tariff, so as—as far as is possible by legislation—to continue to develop and aid in establishing upon a secure and permanent foundation all the various industrial enterprises of the country, which deserves support at our hands."

Now, if the present tariff commends itself to Mr. Glen's approval there is no necessity for a change. As the Oshawa "Vindicator" says, it looks as though he wanted to put a tory patch on his new Reform Garment. Mr. Glen must not endeavor to show two faces under the same hat. If he believes Free Trade to be the best for this country let him say so and stick to it.

The St. Catherines "Daily News" asks us where now is the majority of five or six which we claimed for the Quebec Opposition. Our answer is we did not claim such a majority. The absurd claim came from the other side. Our contention was that the Conservatives elected 34 men, and that is proved by evidence which cannot be disputed, though it may be partially overcome by barefaced bribery.

Our despatches indicate the near approach of the close of Lord Dufferin's term in Canada. Already the announcement is made of the approaching departure of part of his Lordship's family. Already the cities are making their farewell addresses. We do not suppose that Ch'town will be represented among the cities which are presenting their respects to the Governor-General. If His Lordship does not propose to visit this city before his departure, it would not, perhaps, be out of place for the City Council to present him with at least an address. Perhaps the City Council might consider the matter worth taking up.
