

Notes and Comments.

The Yankee business of lynching is hardly a safe enterprise, as frequent mistakes occur. The late lynching of the negro Martin in Port Huron now turns out that the wrong man has been sent to the other world. It is now pretty generally known in that region that the individual who committed the crime for which poor Martin was so brutally treated and afterwards killed, was another man altogether.

It appears that much of the money sent by honest sympathisers for the relief of the sufferers at Johnston has been appropriated by bogus collectors and certain middlemen, through whose hands it had to pass. Upon which a contemporary remarks that the men who prove in their business lives that they exist only for self, that they have no bond of brotherhood binding them to their fellow-men—these should be treated as public enemies, and never allowed through their ill-gotten wealth to acquire such social position as might multiply their powers for evil. There is too much toleration ordinarily shown for men of this class; their "smartness" is admired; their boldness and effrontery are allowed to secure for them prominent places on committees or in other public employment, and here their power for mischief is greatly multiplied. The right rule is to oppose and resist them at every point. If they show in every-day life that they are selfish, unscrupulous, devoid of any feeling of humanity or brotherhood, then they should be treated as public enemies at all times and in all places. Especially should they be held up to public scorn when they attempt to use a great calamity or general distress for their own advancement or benefit. At such times they put themselves on the level of the ghouls who rob the dead, and whose punishment, if detected, is swift and certain.

Telegraphic Tips.

MONTREAL, June 21.—On the 14th inst. the Lake Huron, which has arrived here, passed a huge iceberg, two hundred and forty miles E. N. E. of Cape Race. It was about one mile in length and probably about sixty feet high. The steamer was about two miles from the berg, which is thought to be the same that nearly wrecked the Saale last week.

VIENNA, June 21.—Lieut. Joseph Loisinger, brother-in-law of Prince Alexander of Battenberg, is about to marry Louise Kopek, daughter of the head game keeper of Dagnaiska forest in Hungary, thus allying the English royal family with the game keeper.

SCANTON, Pa., June 21.—Three Hungarians charged with trying to wreck a passenger train on the Delaware and Hudson gravity railroad on Moosic mountain were arrested last night. They had become desperate because they could not secure work from the company.

PARIS, June 21.—The rivers have overflowed the banks and partly submerged the town of Barle Duc Depat, of Messe, and surrounding country. Many houses are undermined and destroyed and the crops and vineyards ruined.

WELSFORD, June 21.—The N. B. railway woodshed at this place was burned to-day, and with it Mr. May's residence. It is supposed the fire was caused by an engine spark. Mr. May's loss is heavy and only partially insured.

CLEVELAND, Ohio, June 21.—Mrs. Hayes, wife of ex-president Hayes, was stricken with apoplexy this afternoon in her home in Tremont. Late last evening she was still unconscious.

ARMAOH, June 21.—The jury, in the case of the five railway employes, charged with causing the recent disaster by which 75 persons lost their lives, brought in a verdict of manslaughter.

LONDON, June 21.—In the House of Commons, to-night, the motion in favor of arbitration as a means to settle evictions in Ireland, was rejected, 248 to 178.

LONDON, June 21.—Lord Dufferin, is suffering with a chronic ailment, and the doctors are anxious about his condition.

LONDON, June 20.—At the meeting of the Parnell Commission to-day, Thomas P. O'Connor, M. P., was examined. He stated that the turning point in the agrarian struggle in Ireland was the rejection of the compensation for improvements bill. Thereupon tenants were compelled to combine in accordance with Parnell's policy, which substituted constitutional agitation for revolution and open for secret combination. O'Connor denied that either the league or he sympathized with crime.

SHANGHAI, June 20.—One-half of the important city of Lachan, in the province of Szechuen, was recently destroyed by fire. The conflagration raged four days. It is estimated that 1,200 persons were killed. Most of them were crushed trying to escape from the narrow streets. Ten thousand persons are homeless.

LONDON, June 20.—Balfour made a speech last night at a banquet given by the Constitutional Union. In the course of his remarks he declared that the new Gladstonian scheme of federalizing the empire was more impracticable than Gladstone's first Home Rule Bill.

LONDON, June 20.—Lord Salisbury has entered his defence in the libel action brought against him by O'Brien. He declares that the speech O'Brien takes exception to was made in good faith, and was a fair comment on O'Brien's course.

SUSPICIOUS LUGGAGE.—The New York Sun says: Two Americans have been arrested at Baltimore for having "suspicious luggage." A knife with a nail file and corkscrew attachment drives English detectives nearly crazy with suspicion. American visitors to Ireland should be more careful. A Bangor man was arrested as a suspicious person only the other day at Cloughbaun—the seat of "Larry" Godkin—for having in his possession a volume marked "Revised Statutes of Maine," which proved on examination to contain a quart of Medford and a pint of Old Tom Gin.

FELL OFF A HORSE AND BROKE HIS NECK.—At Middle Stewieck, N. S., on Wednesday afternoon a boy named James Waters, aged 14, employed on the Stewieck Valley Lansdowne railroad, was sent to a pasture by his father to get a horse there. His absence caused some uneasiness, and his father went to hunt for him. Between 8 and 9 o'clock he found the boy's lifeless body lying in the pasture where the horse was. It is supposed he mounted the animal and was thrown off and killed.

Body Found.

BETWEEN five and six o'clock last evening the body of a man was found on the shore at Keppoch, opposite the farm of Mr. Cardiff. The face and hands have been eaten away, but some silvery grey hair remains to show that the deceased was of a light complexion, and between forty and fifty years of age when he died. The body is stout and well-proportioned. The wearing apparel consists of two shirts, trousers and drawers (no braces), and a pair of top boots. There is apparently nothing on the body by which a stranger can identify it. Dr. Conroy is now holding an inquest.

Cricket.

The match, as advertised, between Militiamen vs. Civilians, was played at the Park on Saturday afternoon, and resulted in favor of the former by four runs. The bowling and fielding was very good, but the batting was not as usual. The following is the score:

Table with columns for Militiamen and Civilians, listing names and scores. Total Militiamen: 45, Total Civilians: 41.

Personal.

Carroll, the Pictou oarsman will arrive here this evening.

Mr. Alexander Strang, of the Lansdowne Hotel, Cape Traverse, is at the Osborne.

Allan A. Ferguson, Mayor of Pictou, and wife, are registered at the Hotel Davies.

We understand that His Lordship Bishop McIntyre will leave for Rome to-morrow morning. Rev. D. J. Gillis, of East Point, will accompany His Lordship.

Mrs. Margaret Arnold, living on a farm about seven miles east of Washington courthouse, Ohio, is nearly 112 years old and is still quite sprightly. Her sister, Mrs. Elizabeth Hilliard, 115 years, old lives in Lynn county, Iowa, and another sister, Mrs. John Bailey, of Dakota, is 109 years old and resides in the old homestead near Richmond, Va.

The North-western Music Aid Association of Chicago is represented by Dr. McNeill, of Stanley Bridge, as Solicitor for the whole land. A. A. Nicholl, Esq., is Agent. This is a very solid association, and Masons desiring insurance at cost would do well to consider the advantages offered in that line, and call upon Mr. Nicholl at the Osborne House.

The Pioneer says: Mrs. James M. Butcher and daughter, of Denver, Colorado, are here on a visit to their friends. They will spend the summer on the Island. At present they are at Mrs. C. B. McNeill's who is a sister, to Mrs. Butcher, and with whom also lives their mother, Mrs. J. R. Gardiner, an old lady of 87 years and still in possession of all her mental faculties.

The story is now published that the case of leprosy in the London meat market, reference to which by the Prince of Wales created somewhat of a sensation, is nothing but a common and non-infectious skin disease. Newspaper men, who sometimes get taken in themselves, will sympathize with the Prince, as he writes his letter explaining that he was more earnest than exact when he made so bad a break.

Rev. W. W. Colpitts' parishioners in Neepawa presented him a few days ago with a splendid gold watch worth $90, and an address; and he and his family were serenaded by the Neepawa brass band. Commenting upon the occurrence, the Neepawa Register says: "During his three years' stay in Neepawa the Rev. gentleman has become very popular, not only with the members of his church, but with the entire community. He is a profound thinker and an eloquent speaker. In short, his abilities fit him for one of the best appointments in the province. The people here would fain retain himself and family longer, did the church discipline admit of it." Mr. Colpitts is to be congratulated upon the evident success of his labors in the Northwest.

SHE GAVE HIM THE SLIP.—On Saturday evening Police-Sergeant Cameron, armed with a warrant of commitment for the proprietress, visited the house of a Lower Queen Street woman recently convicted of violating the Canada Temperance Act, and took her into custody. She appeared resigned to her fate, and asked permission to go into her room to put on a bonnet. The Sergeant, whose suspicions were disarmed by the easy manner of his prisoner, granted the request, remaining outside while the bonnet was being put on. After waiting a reasonable time, and his prisoner not appearing, he opened the door and looked in. The room was empty, and his prisoner not in sight. An open window over a porch in the rear of the building showed the means by which she had made her exit. After searching about, and failing to find any trace of his prisoner, the Sergeant left, more than ever convinced that "women are deceivers ever." This morning she paid the fine.

ADVICE TO MOTHERS.—Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup should always be used when children are cutting teeth. It relieves the little sufferer at once; it produces natural quiet sleep by relieving the child from pain; and the little cherub awakes as "bright as a button." It is very pleasant to taste. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, relieves wind, regulates the bowels, and is the best known remedy for diarrhoea, whether arising from teething or other causes. Twenty-five cents a bottle. Be sure and ask for Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup, and take no other kind. (April 1 '88)

VALUABLE HORSE-FLESH.—Mr. George Thorne's trotting mare "Tib," half-sister to Black Pilot, dropped a beautiful All Right foal on Sunday last. We understand that Mr. Thorne is the owner of a very promising two-year-old filly, also sired by All Right, which took second prize in her class at the Provincial Exhibition last year.
