Agricultural Products Imported into Canada for Consumption.

	1877-8.	1880-1.
Barley, bush..........	154,522	30,940
Corn "	7,576,979	3,720,754
Oats "	2,743 609	145,226
Rye "	175,642	6,218
Wheat "	4,940,813	86,828

Our agricultural readers will see what an immense decrease has taken place in the importation of these five grains. The people have not consumed less, certainly, and the conclusion is inevitable that the duties have kept these millions of bushels of American grain out of the country. We have only to add that the value of the total importations for consumption of foreign agricultural products, fruits and animals, decreased from over twenty-one million dollars in 1877 8, to a little over eight million dollars in 1880-81. So much for the National Policy and its relation to the agricultural classes.—Moncton Times.

Some Grit Transactions.

ONE cannot, with Senator McPherson, help being struck with the contrast between the frivolous accusations, most of them wilfully fabricated, brought by the Opposition against the Mackenzie Government, and the crushing indictments laid by the then Opposition against the Mackenzie Government between 1875 and 1878.

The Grit party cannot advance charges in any way analogous in their character and consequences to the steel rail speculation by Mr. Mackenzie, which entailed a loss upon the country of more than....	$2,000,000
Or the loss of interest in the Lake Superior section of the Canadian Pacific railway and Welland canal, through blundering..........	2,017,722
Or the loss by the useless Fort Francis lock, the Kaministiquia job and buildings, abandoned at Fort Pelly.....	309,320
Or the loss by the Georgian Bay branch railway, respecting which Mr. Blake "could a tale unfold".........	41,000
Or the loss by apparent favoritism, including $30,000 to Mr. Blake's "friend Moore"	109,338
Or the loss by the Pacific telegraph contract brought to light by the Pacific Railway Commission..........	28,000
Or the prodigious loss by Sir Richard Cartwright's negotiation of the loans of 1874 and 1876..........	6,651,718
Making the ascertained loss to the country, by the blundering of Mr. Mackenzie's Government..........	$11,157,698

And in addition to these they committed many other costly blunders.

The Honorable John Costigan.

(Montreal Post.)

Sir John A. Macdonald has just accomplished the most popular, as well as the most sagacious, act of his political life in taking the Honorable John Costigan into his Cabinet as Minister of Inland Revenue, for while the appointment will delight the Irish people in Canada as elsewhere, it will be satisfactory to all sections of our mixed population. Mr. Costigan is emphatically the representative of the Irish people. He has identified his interest with theirs; his people are our people, and his gods are our gods. The late Hon. Mr. McGee, the Hon. John O'Connor, the Hon. Mr. Scott, and others of our representatives in the Cabinet, were all good men and true, but they had their political enemies amongst the Irish of Canada; while we firmly believe Mr. Costigan has none, and we venture to say that there are not a dozen Liberals in Canada to-day who do not rejoice over the last accession to the Ministry. The Parliamentary career of Mr. Costigan is long, and, it is a fact, no one has ever heard even a whisper against his intergrity. The only charge—if charge it be—made against him is that he is poor, and that he is too honest for a politician. But after all, honesty is the best policy, though it is said he who acts upon that principle is not an honest man. And it is comforting to find that poverty is not bar to the highest honors in Canada. If it were, we should commence to despair.

It has been said before this that the fact of an Irish Catholic feeling and manifesting a keen interest in the land of his fathers militates against his aspirations to high political honors in Canada. The entrance into the Cabinet of Mr. Costigan is the best answer to this, except, perhaps, the fact that Sir John A. Macdonald thought fit to take as a colleague the man who brought forward the Irish resolutions, which have created so profound a sensation in the British Empire and the American Republic, indeed throughout the world.

Something like the following will be cabled to England, consequent on Mr. Costigan's elevation:—"Mr. John Costigan, the mover of the Irish resolutions in the Canadian Parliament, has joined the Canadian Cabinet as Minister of the Inland Revenue." And this will prove beyond all manner of doubt that the Canadian people sympathize with the Irish people in their aspirations for liberty. At least, we view it in that light. As a matter of course, the political opponents of the Government will say the appointment is a stroke of state. But even so, its significance or its importance will not be lessened; for it is evident if the far-seeing leader of the Government did not think the stroke a popular one he would not have made it. We are not empowered to search hearts or to impute motives. We must take affairs as they are, for otherwise we should be in an eternal state of bewiderment. The Post begs to congratulate the Honorable Mr. Costigan on his deserved elevation.

Meetings of Presbytery.

May 29—Presbytery met at Clifton, for the induction of Rev. A. Sterling. There were present Revs. Dr. Murray, J. M. McLeod, Wm. Grant, Wm. P. Archibald, George McMillan and Wm. A. Mason.

Rev. J. M. McLeod preached an appropriate sermon from 1 Cor., 3, 9: "For we are laborers together with God." Rev. Mr. Archibald narrated the steps taken in connection with the call. Rev. Mr. Grant put the usual formula of questions, led in prayer, and, in the name of Presbytery, inducted Mr. Stirling into the pastoral charge of Granville and Clifton. Rev. Dr. Murray then suitably addressed the Minister, and Rev. J. M. McLeod the congregation, on their respective duties and responsibilities.

The congregation in retiring from the Church, welcomed their Minister in the usual manner.

Though the season was a busy one with the farmers, yet the church was filled with a deeply interested congregation. Having been without a settled pastor for three years, they all the more gladly received their minister, and felt that their patient waiting was amply rewarded, in the settlement amongst them, of a man of Mr. Sterling's acknowledged ability, zeal and earnestness.

June 1st.—The Presbytery met in St. James's Church, Charlottetown, at the call of the Moderator of Synod. Leave having been obtained from the Synod to take Mr. A. B. McLean on trial for license, the following subjects were presented, viz:—Sermon, Luke 24: 6; Lecture, 1 Cor., 9, 24, 27; critical exercise, 1 Cor., 1, 10, 16; Hebrew, Isaiah, 11th chap., Greek, New Testament, ad aperturam libri; Church History, second century; Theology; justification.

Rev. Mr. Frame was appointed to Moderate in a call in Georgetown and Montague at an early day.

The following supply was appointed for vacant congregations for the month of June, viz:—Mr. McKenzie to Tignish, Montrose and Bloomfield; Rev. Mr. Thomson to Richmond Bay; Mr. Montgomery to Cardigan and Dundas, for the first and fourth Sabbaths, and to Woodville and Little Sands, for the second and third Sabbaths; Mr. A. B. McLeod to Woodville and Little Sands for the fourth Sabbath; Rev. J. A. Sutherland to Georgetown and Montague for the first Sabbath, and Mr. C. D. McLaren for third and fourth Sabbaths; and Rev. S. C. Gunn to Cardigan and Dundas for second Sabbath; Mr. McLaren to supply Mr. Gunn's pulpit on that day.

In order to aid the Congregation of Richmond Bay in bringing their financial affairs into a satisfactory state with the view of obtaining the settlement of a Minister among them, the following brethren were appointed to visit and hold meetings with the different sections of the congregation, viz:—Rev. Messrs. Carr and Fraser to visit Lot 11 and Egmont Bay; Rev. Messrs. McKay and McMillan to visit Lot 16 and Lot 14, and the two committees to hold a joint meeting in Tryon Valley. Rev. Mr. McKay convener of Committees.

The Presbytery agreed to meet for Presbyterial Visitation at East St. Peter's on first Tuesday of July, at 11 o'clock, a.m., Rev. K. McLennan to preach, and at 4 o'clock, same day, in West St. Peter's, Rev. Mr. Scott to preach.

J. M. McLEOD, Pesbyt. Clerk.

A SECTIONAL CREW are the Grits.

Mr. Blake bid for the Irish vote in a speech that went further than that of Mr. Costigan, an Irishman who moved the sympathy resolutions.

The Irish of Ontario are appealed to because of the appointment to the Cabinet of Mr. Costigan a New Brunswick Irishman, in the stead of Mr. O'Connor, an Ontario Irishman, who resigned.

The Toronto Globe appeals to the Orangemen of Ontario to vote against the domination of the Quebec Bleus and, virtually, it denounces the "priesthood."

An Ontario Grit denounces the French as "LICK-SPITTLES," his speech to that effect being published in a local paper.

The Grits of Ontario denounce the coal and sugar duties, and W. L. McKay, a Nova Scotia Grit, supports protection to coal, and ignores every other part of the National Policy.

What a nice party to go to the country!

Mr. D. Greenleaf has purchased the great fish caught at Fort George last week, and will preserve and stuff it for exhibition in his museum. It weighs 700 pounds, and has been definitely ascertained to be of a species known as the "Virgin Fish," because on each of its scales there appears, when the light is allowed to shine through it, a perfect representation of the form of the Virgin Mary, as she is made to appear in many of the pictures and images of the day.—Florida Paper.

EGYPT is virtually in a state of open rebellion, and the greatest alarm prevails at Cairo and Alexandria on account of the threatening attitude of the troops. The Khedive's deposition is demanded by the rebels, and Arabi Rey has refused to obey any order summoning him to Constantinople—a step that has been recommended to the Porte by the British and French consuls.

"AH! my friends," said a clergyman to a parishioner, who was the husband of a termagant, and who had made application for a divorce, "we should be yielding and forgiving. There are no divorces in Heaven." "That's the reason," said the sufferer, "why I am so anxious to get a divorce here."

FROM HAMILTON.—A gentleman writes: "I have suffered for over four years with night losses and general weakness, caused by abuse. I had tried all the advertised medicines, and a number of eminent doctors, and found no relief or benefit. I have used twelve boxes of Mack's Magnetic Medicine, and am entirely restored. See advertisement in another column. Sold in Charlottetown by Apothecaries Hall Company. jun 20 2w wky 2t
