W. B. (Baldy) George, past president of the CAHA, announced this Wednesday but said there is no question of the Canadian team withdrawing from the world hockey championships in Dusseldorf, Germany, Feb. 25 to March 6.
George said he received a cable from Penticton president Clem Bird saying that food and living accommodations in Berlin are "not good."
He said he cabled the German Ice Hockey Federation to arrange "satisfactory conditions" at Dusseldorf, where the Canadian team is due to arrive Feb. 27.

Bruins, Rangers In 2-All Draw

NEW YORK (CP) — Leo Labine's goal in the early seconds of the final period gave Boston Bruins a 2-2 tie against New York Rangers Wednesday night and extended their National Hockey League unbeaten streak to ten games.
A crowd of 6,899 fans watched the Rangers build up a two-goal lead only to blow it within barely two minutes of playing time. The tie moved the steadily advancing Bruins within four points of the third-place Toronto Maple Leafs who are tied for the fifth-place. Rangers it was another missed opportunity to close in on a playoff berth.
After a scoreless opening period, Pete Conacher opened the scoring at 6:58 of the middle session. Danny Lewicki, the Rangers' leading scorer, made it 2-0 at 17:36 but Boston defenceman Bill Quackenbush scored on a solo breakaway seconds later.
The Bruins struck again shortly after the opening faceoff in the third period. Don McKenney and Fern Flaman, the Rangers' leading scorers, made it 2-2 at 17:36 but Boston defenceman Bill Quackenbush scored on a solo breakaway seconds later.
In the old Maritime Hockey League it was general practice for teams to bring in players whenever they were needed and whenever the teams could afford them which at that time was usually anytime. Then it didn't matter as much what kind of a team you had during the regular season as long as you came up with a better team in the playoffs. This year, however, in the Atlantic Coast Senior Hockey League there was a deadline for some to contend with and the game as far as the attendance was concerned, in most centers was at its lowest ebb in years. So the teams, with slight exceptions, had to take a player when they could get him, for the least money and one with sufficient ability.
