They buried the man at sea.

HEAVY RAINFALL.—The weather seems to have settled at last. Since the first of October the rainfall has been nearly double that of any previous year in the month, and about four times that of ordinary years. The record of the rainfall, October 1st, to October 23rd, shows for the following years:

Table with 2 columns: Year, Rainfall (Inches). Rows include 1890, 1891, 1892, 1893, 1894, 1895, 1896.

REGULAR AND LARGELY.—The prisoners, Hall and McCallum, under arrest at New London for burglary and larceny, this forenoon made a statement to Magistrate Macneil and Simpson explaining where the goods were hidden, and from whom they had been stolen. The powder was stolen from Brass & McKay's store in Summerside, the paint and some felt paper from the Indian River Chapel, and the other articles from divers persons and places. After hearing this statement the Magistrate adjourned the court until six o'clock this evening, when, it is understood, the prisoners will be committed for trial.

AN INTERESTING ADDRESS.—The Rev. James Simpson gave, last evening, an exceedingly interesting account of his recent trip to the Pacific Coast. He referred, en passant, to the meeting of the Anglican Synod of Canada at Winnipeg, and pictured vividly the labors and sufferings of missionary bishops and priests in the great lone land of the North. His short description of the sublime mountain scenery upon the line of the C. P. R. was particularly fine. C. C. Gardner, Esq., in moving the vote of thanks, described from personal knowledge some of the experiences of searchers for gold shortly after the discovery of the precious metal in British Columbia. Mr. Gardner's motion was seconded by Mr. W. Cotton and conveyed to the reverend lecturer by the Hon. F. de St. C. Brocken, who acted as chairman. Mr. Simpson's address of last evening is the first of a series of lectures and entertainments to be given in St. Peter's School-room during the course of the fall and winter.

ATROCITIES IN THE PHILIPPINES. Spaniards and Natives Rival Each Other in Inhuman Cruelties. The despatches report that Cuban atrocities are mild compared to those taking place in the Philippine Islands, where the Spaniards are trying to suppress a revolt of the natives. Some indications of affairs have been learned from Oriental papers. The most shocking incident of bloody reprisals was the treatment of a Spanish lieutenant and his family. The Spaniards had captured a number of prisoners, and as an object lesson to the natives disemboweled two and hung their bloody bodies on one of the gates of the town. The infuriated rebels, eager for vengeance, slaughtered a force and hurried to the home of a Spanish lieutenant on the outskirts of Manila. They captured the officer, his wife and 12-year-old daughter, and then began a bloody scene of torture. The wife and daughter, the lieutenant's skin was slit all over his body. Then the torturers crucified him, placing him outstretched to a tree with their long knives. They then turned to the woman and girl, giving the fullest play to their animal instinct, and wreaking a disgusting vengeance before the dying eyes of the husband and father.

The Spanish are doing their best to keep the news of these atrocities from leaving the islands by opening and inspecting the mail. They particularly desire to keep unknown the death of 38 prisoners in one night in the "black hole."
