The Currie-Crisp Case.

EVIDENCE BEFORE THE COMMITTEE - DR. GARDNER'S AFFIDAVIT.

The special committee of the Methodist Conference who are investigating the Currie-Crisp affair resumed their sitting in the parlor of Centenary Church, St. John, on Tuesday: Mr. Crisp was in attendance at all three sittings, but Mr. Currie did not put in an appearance.

The first witness examined was Rev. C. W. Hamilton, of Bayfield, who was stationed on the circuit in which Scotchtown is, at the time of the affair. He was examined regarding with the circumstances connected with the first Currie trial in 1886.

John E. Hauspacher of Scotchtown told the committee that he did not hear Mr. Crisp's name mixed up with that of the Moore girl at the time. Capt. L. S. Hauspacher gave the evidence in the same line. His testimony is said to have been disparaging to Dr. Gardner.

Mrs. Isaac Day, formerly Eliza Moore (the woman in the case), was called in the afternoon. She affirmed that she had never accused Mr. Crisp of being the father of her child. She never had any idea of doing so. She declared that Mr. Currie was the father of the boy, and said she had never mentioned the name of any other man in that connection.

Mrs. Samuel Cady, a sister of Mrs. Day, testified that there was no conspiracy to lay the charge on Mr. Currie.

Wm. C. Moore, of Scotchtown, the father of the last two witnesses, corroborated their statements.

In connection with this case, Dr. Gardner has made an affidavit which reads as follows:— "Being denounced by the Rev. R. S. Crisp as being ungodly, with all that name implies, supposing we now both submit to the iron clad oath. When I first charged Miss Moore with pregnancy, I hesitated, as I, up to that time, thoroughly believed in her virginity. I, however, called her into the parlor and charged her with being pregnant. In tears she admitted the fact. I then asked her the author of her trouble, and she said Robert Crisp. I wrote to Robert Crisp in relation to the matter, and he answered my letter, saying that he walked around the shores of the lake and then acted in a foolish and unchristianlike manner, and begged of me for God's sake to save him.

The Victoria Cross

Of all prizes that men in the British army and navy covet, there is none more eagerly sought, more jealously guarded, or more dearly loved, than the simple cross of gun-metal, bearing the inscription "For Valour." The Victoria Cross was instituted by Royal Warrant on Jan. 19, 1856, as a reward for individual instances of meritorious and valiant conduct in the field of arms.

The day has now come when the Victoria Cross is to be awarded to the hero of the battle of the Trenches, who has distinguished himself by acts of conspicuous bravery.

So says Dr. Carlett an old and honored practitioner in Belleville, Ontario, who writes: "For washing diseases and arolola I have used Scott's Emulsion with the most satisfactory results."

MRS. EMMA BOW. Physicians and the-called Dyspepsia Cures failed to give any benefit. Groder's Botanic Dyspepsia Syrup Brought relief and a permanent cure. To the Dyspepsia Cure Co. GENTLEMEN: For four years, I have had a complicated stomach—liver trouble. The Blood would rush to my head. After I had tried the best physicians, and two of the leading sarsaparillas, without receiving any lasting benefit, I was recommended to try your Dyspepsia Syrup. One bottle did me so much good that I determined to buy six, under your guarantee to cure me or refund my five dollars. But FOUR bottles accomplished a complete cure and I am again in perfect health; FREE FROM CON- THAT STIPATION; NO RUSH OF BLOOD TO THE HEAD; NO PALPITATION OF THE HEART; AND A RAVENOUS APETITE. I sleep nicely and am growing fatter than I would like of. Your medicine is SWEET and PALATABLE, far more pleasant to CURE than any of the many CURES remedies I have tried, and IT CURES. I will gladly answer any inquiry concerning this statement. Yours respectfully, MRS. EMMA BOW.
