AN OPEN LETTER TO A SALESMAN

Dear Sir:

This is the time of year, when the paper is filled with ads to sell insurance, books, advertising, home improvements, etc. We are NOT IN THAT BUSINESS.

Our entire plan is so unique, so unusual and yet so practical you MUST make money. These are a few of the advantages — largest company in our field, product everyone needs, heavy repeat business, immediate profits. Part time or full time. No fences, set your own work schedule with no quotas demanded.

If the unusual is a challenge to you and you wish to earn at least $12,000 annually, with an unlimited opportunity to expand —

WOMEN'S PAGE EDITOR. AN early opening is in prospect at The Guardian - Patriot for a Women's Page Editor. While experience in this or other fields of writing is desirable, consideration will be given to applicants who are otherwise qualified. The three qualifications most needed are: 1— Aptitude, an ease in writing clearly and accurately; 2— Responsibility that reflects good taste and good judgment; 3— Genuine interest, probably often as a participant, in matters that deserve to be written about for the women's pages. A sound educational background and the ability to type (there's no need to be a speed artist) also are among the minimum requirements. The work to be done is of a kind that should be of greatest interest to a woman who is herself active in the life of the community, whether through club, church or other affiliations. She should be mature in her attitudes but this is no bar to her being young. It is work that can be intensely satisfying to the person suited to it. At the outset all applications must be in writing. No others will be considered. Please include telephone number. Address: Executive Editor, The Guardian- Patriot, Charlottetown.
