News Notes.

The Prohibition Commission is now sitting at Winnipeg.

Ten carloads of hay were shipped at Kingston a few days ago for the English market.

The latest advices from Cagliaris, Sardinia, give an appalling account of the terrible storm and flood. In Sardinia on Thursday and Friday last hundreds of lives were lost and hundreds of thousands of dollars worth of property destroyed.

Harold Hagen, the champion professional speed skater of the world, is to leave Christiana, Norway, on the 28th inst. for St. John, and may be expected there somewhere between the 15th and 20th of November.

Somebody has suggested Jean Ingelow for the vacant poet laureateship. The laureate appointed by a queen might well be a woman. It is to be said for Jean Ingelow, too, that she has not written a rubbishy poem about the dead singer, and that is a creditable thing.

Mrs. Bridget Lynch, of Lewiston, Me., died on Sunday morning at the age of 101 years. She was born in Ireland, and emigrated to America 25 years ago, landing at St. John, and sometime afterwards going on to Lewiston. Mrs. Lynch was a small woman being but four feet seven inches in height. She led an industrious and temperate life and was the oldest person in Lewiston by almost a decade

Much discussion is taking place in British army circles over the coming appointment of a Commander-in-Chief in India. Lord Roberts' extended term is drawing to a close and the post will have to be filled shortly. The Duke of Connaught is a favorite in many circles, but it seems more likely that he will receive the governorship of Malta, a position of trust in connection with the maintenance of British power in the Mediterranean and one worth £5,000 a year. General Sir George Greaves, now commanding the army in Bombay, is a favorite in Anglo-Indian circles, whilst Sir Evelyn Wood has the support of the army clubs and of those who think our ablest men should command the forces abroad. As so often happens, however, some of the "dark horses" may get the coveted position

Five women, all dames of high degree, have been appointed to the command of crack regiments in the Prussian army by the present young warrior Emperor. This is, like most of his acts, an entirely new departure, but whether it's a shrewd device or one of his peculiar freaks it is well calculated to achieve his dearest ambition, the exultation and popularizing of the army above everything else. Previous to his accession there were only two women Colonels in the Prussian army, and none had been appointed for nearly a score of years. The senior woman Colonel is the Empress Frederick, who was placed in command of a regiment of Hussars at the coronation of Emperor William I., Oct. 18, 1861. Princess Frederick Charles, widow of the famous "Red Prince," ranks second in point of time. She received her Colonelcy in 1871. Queen Victoria was made Colonel of a Prussian regiment of dragoons in 1889. The two first named have often ridden at the head of their regiments, dressed in full regimentals, and one of the Empress Frederick's most dashing pictures shows her thus attired and afield.

PARIS, Oct. 24.—Col. Dodds, commanding the French forces in Dahomey, states that the army of King Behanzin has been half destroyed, and the remainder is in a demoralized condition. The manager of a factory in Dahomey asserts that a German firm supplied Behanzin with 4,000 quick firing rifles and three field pieces in exchange for slaves, last batch of whom were delivered on May 5. The shipment of these slaves, he says, occurred under the personal supervision of the German consul.

CHATTANOOGA, Tenn., Oct. 24—Last night 150 mounted men approached the town of Dalton, Ga., 30 miles from here, and riding to the cabins of two colored men, shot Jack Wilson dead, severely beat his wife and badly pounded Tom Moye. On the promise of the city marshal to warn other colored families to leave town within 10 days the mob departed, firing guns and pistols as they went. The sum of $800 has been raised by the citizens to apprehend the ringleaders.

NO MAN ever smoked "Myrtle Navy" tobacco for a fortnight and then took to any brand in preference to it. It bears its own testimony of its qualities, and it is testimony which is always convincing. The smoker who uses it is never annoyed by getting it sometimes of good quality and sometimes of bad. The arrangements of the manufacturers for keeping its quality equal are very elaborate and complete, and are the results of many years of experience and close observation. ....

FOR OVER FIFTY YEARS Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup has been used by millions of mothers for their children while cutting teeth. It relieves the little sufferer at once; it produces natural, quiet sleep by relieving the child from pain, and the little cherub awakes as "bright as a button." It is very pleasant to taste. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, relieves wind, regulates the bowels, and is the best-known remedy for diarrhœa, whether arising from teething or other causes. Twenty-five cents a bottle. Be sure and ask for "Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup," and take no other kind. 1yr

Physicians and so-called Dyspepsia Cures failed to give any benefit.

Groder's Botanic Dyspepsia Syrup

Brought relief and a permanent cure.

To the Dyspepsia Cure Co.

GENTLEMEN: For four years, I have had a complicated stomach and liver trouble, THE blood would rush to my head causing palpitation of the heart so badly that I fainted many times. After I had tried the best physicians, and two of the leading sarsaparillas, without receiving any lasting benefit, I was recommended KIND to try your Dyspepsia Syrup. One bottle did me so much good that I determined to buy six, under your guarantee to cure me or refund my five dollars. But FOUR bottles accomplished a complete cure and I am again in perfect health; FREE FROM CONSTIPATION; NO RUSH OF BLOOD TO THE HEAD; NO PALPITATION OF THE HEART AND A RAVENOUS APPETITE. I sleep nicely and am growing fleshier than I would like ot. Your medicine is SWEET and PALATABLE, far more pleasant than any of the many CURES remedies I have tried, AND IT CURES. I will gladly answer any inquiry concerning this statement. Yours respectfully,

MRS. EMMA BOW.
