

Father And Son Banquet At Zion

A splendid turkey dinner featured the annual Father and Son banquet of the Zion Church Men's Association under the presidency of Mr. Ralph Balderston. The dinner was provided by the Women's Auxiliary of the church, headed by Mrs. J. G. Dennis. Approximately 125 men and boys thoroughly enjoyed themselves.

The toast to the Dads was proposed by Gerald Burgoyne and responded to by Mr. Reg. MacNutt.

Guest speaker was Hon. B. Earle MacDonald, Minister of Health and Welfare, who briefly referred to the extensive work of the ten divisions in the Department. He also reminded the gathering of the importance of this week as Mental Health Week.

Guide, Brownie Awards Made

The Girl Guide Bessborough Shield has been awarded to the Parkdale Girl Guides and the Brownie Shield to St. Peter's Brownie Pack. It was announced yesterday. The awards are made annually. The competition among the various Girl Guides groups was designed to determine which of them could provide the best layette. The Brownie competition was for a scrap book on nature.

Honorary mention among the Guides went to Zion Guides and Scouts Guides; among the Brownies to 7th Trinity, 11th Charlottetown (Zion). A display of the work may be seen in the window of Maritime Electric Company.

Kinsmen Club Hold Debate

Members of the Kinsmen Club held a lively debate on "Daylight Saving" as an entertainment feature of their weekly dinner meeting held at the Charlottetown hotel last evening. The pro and con teams were headed up by Farrell Gaudet and Reg Howard.

Rollie Taylor presented the club with a framed copy of the first bulletin calling a meeting of the club together, dated Nov. 6, 1937. It is believed to be the only copy in existence.

Brent Steeves, the most recent father in the club, was presented with a baby spoon by Bob McGill.

Card Of Thanks

I wish to thank Dr. Preston McIntyre, the Matron, Nurses and Staff of the Kings County Hospital for their kind services to me during my illness there.

William M. Moore,
Albion Lot 59,
P. E. Island.

IN MEMORIAM

In fond and loving memory of my dear Father, Mr. Benj. Simpson, who departed this life May 7th, 1952.

They say time heals all sorrows, And helps us to forget, But time has only proven How much I miss him yet.

The old home has been broken, No longer there I roam, For the hands that rest forever Are the hands that made my home.

Always Remembered by Son Harold and Daughter-in-law and Grandson.

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of our dear son Lemuel F. Burns who passed away May 7th, 1941.

Though his smile is gone forever, And his hand we cannot touch, We will never lose sweet memories, Of the one we loved so much.

God did call our dearest treasure To that land of peace and rest; But you'll never be forgotten, By the ones who loved you best.

Inserted by Parents, Mr. and Mrs. Athol Burns.

THIS is going to be a Crinoline Summer from the youngest to the oldest of us girls! The skirts are more bouffant than ever and dame fashion says they must stick out! The Youth Centre has only just received some darling "little girl" SLIPS of glazed and stiffened Broadcloth—believe me, they're adorable! ... and have all the stick-outness that anyone could desire. The broadcloth is extremely fine and smooth; the straps and bodice tops are of dainty eyelet and there are double ruffles on the hemline; sizes are from 7 to 12 and the price is 3.98. ... I almost forgot one of the smartest features of this Slip—the waist in back is Elastic Shirred in several rows, so that it will fit snugly and hang superbly. Come choose your little girl one of the bouffant Slips from the Youth Centre.

WEAR one and listen for the Comments—there are bound to be plenty of them ... because the BOLA TIES by Hickok are extreme novelties, they're fun to wear! The Men's Wear has quite a display of these sporty numbers, in a choice of lots of colors. The BOLA TIES are a round silk cord with metal slides and metal ends. The Slides have fish, dog, horse, anchor, door knocker and maple leaf motifs. The young men all around the town will be wearing Bola Ties with their sport clothes; best get one now and be one of the first to wear this novelty. The price is 2.50 for a BOLA TIE in the Men's Wear at Holman's in Summerside.

P. W. C. Cadet Corps Inspected

Congratulations on a splendid showing were extended to the Prince of Wales College Cadet Corps yesterday afternoon by Brigadier W. W. Reid, D.S.O., E. D., as he conducted the annual inspection of the corps.

Brigadier Reid commented upon the smart appearance of the corps and he offered his thanks to the instructors who evidently had devoted much time and thought to the work of training the boys.

Accompanying Brigadier Reid were Lieutenant T. L. Allen, Command Cadet Officer, Eastern Command Headquarters, Halifax; and Lt. Col. A. W. Rogers, Commanding Officer, Prince Edward Island Regiment (17th Recce).

The Prince of Wales College Cadet Corps under the capable instruction of Col. W. J. MacDonald presented an impressive appearance as they conducted their parade drills and carried out their demonstrations.

After commending them for their efforts Brigadier Reid said he hoped the cadets would continue to have the same interest in military affairs in later life as he felt everyone who could should take some part in this essential part of our way of life.

The Instructor-in-chief, Lt. Col. MacDonald was assisted by Lt. E. Doucette, Messrs. Robert Hutchison and George Andrew.

Brigadier Reid also congratulated Cadet Carl MacDonald who has been selected a member of the Canadian Cadet team at Bileys this year.

Cadet MacDonald was selected by the D.C.R.A. Executive at Ottawa on his showing at the annual Capital last summer. He posted the second highest score of any cadet in the Maritimes, ranking next the late Cadet Major William D. MacDonald of the St. Dunstan's College Cadet Corps.

The Prince of Wales College cadets were under the command of Cadet Captain Rollie Diamond. The Platoon Sergeant was Donald Hill.

D. C. R. A. First Class shooting badges were presented to Carl MacDonald, Irwin Buel, Pat Langan, Garth MacLennan, Rollie Diamond, Alex Horne and Donald Moore.

A physical training demonstration was given under the supervision of George Andrew.

Following is the inspection program:
1. Order of Inspection:
(a) General Salute followed by Inspection of Ranks.
(b) March Past in Close Column of Platoons.
(c) March Past in Column of Route.
(d) Advance in Review Order.
(e) Demonstration of Cadet Training Officer.
(f) Address to Cadets by Inspection Officer.
2. Sequence of Demonstrations:
1. Bren Gun
2. S.A.T. Gun
3. First Aid
4. Use of Maps
5. Signalling

Dutch Flagship To Visit Montreal

MONTREAL, (CP)—The aircraft carrier Karel Doorman, flagship of the Royal Dutch navy, will arrive in Montreal next Wednesday for a six-day courtesy call.

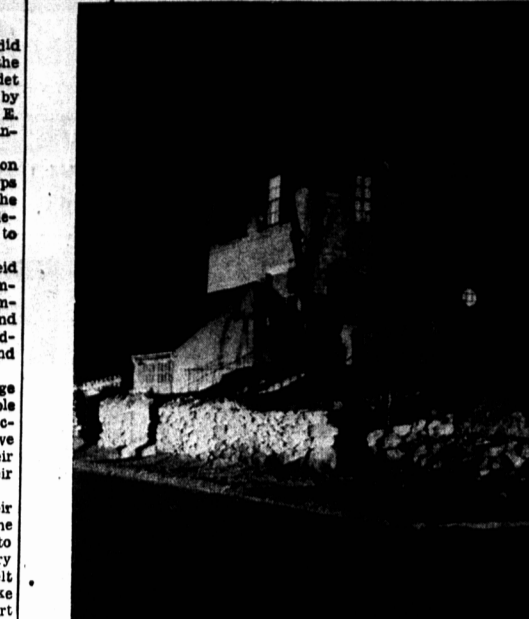

A long program of entertainment and social functions and a parade to commemorate the battle of the Atlantic will mark the carrier's visit—return of a call HMCS Magnificent made to Holland in 1950. The Karel Doorman's band will make a special visit to Ottawa May 14 to take part in a tulip festival.

Card Of Thanks

I wish to express my sincere thanks to Rev. W. M. Byers, Dr. Sheppard, the Nurses and Staff of the P. E. I. Hospital, those who visited me in the Hospital, and all who sent flowers, cards, fruit and messages of sympathy while I was a patient in the Veterans Wing of the P. E. I. Hospital following the loss of my home and all its contents by fire in Pisquid.

Arthur Yorston,
Mt. Stewart.

Last night at a regular meeting of the Charlottetown Camera Club the Class B competition on "Night Photography" was judged by George Lewis. The above photo taken by Miss Miriam Mathew was judged to be the best print in the competition. The second place photo was taken by Miss Doreen Dunlap.

After the judging of the competition the club members were conducted on a tour of the Guard building by Mr. George Burnett. A number of photographs were followed from the time they were submitted to the editor until it was printed on the newspaper by the presses. This took about an hour and each step was explained carefully by Mr. Burnett.

The Club returned to the Y.M.C.A. hobbycraft room later in the evening to participate in a portrait demonstration by Robert Donnelly. Members of the club acted as models and Mr. Donnelly explained the various effects created by the lights on the model's face. Actual photographs were taken to be used in a competition in two weeks time on "Portraits".

Mr. Chuck Walper, club president announced that at the next meeting the club were playing host to the Montague Camera Club.

Addresses Junior Trade Board On City Centennial

"We are lacking in civic pride," Mr. Walther Gaudet told members of the Junior Board of Trade in a stirring address before that body at a dinner meeting held last evening in the Rendezvous Restaurant.

Mr. Gaudet, who is secretary of the Senior Board of Trade, dwelt at length on the forthcoming Centennial Celebration in Charlottetown and stressed the possibilities open to the Junior Board in co-operation with the general committee set up by Mayor Stewart, in making the occasion a memorable one. "We have much to be thankful for, and much to be proud of," the speaker said.

He explained the various activities in which the senior body was engaged from time to time, and brought the members up-to-date on matters of importance to the said Wednesday night.
