

SPORT ECHOES

BY NORMAN MACDONALD

A belated word of congratulation to Summerside's pole vaulter Alfred (The Great) Groom for his success at the Truro track and field meet.

We were talking to R. Nolan, Collegiate instructor, in July when young groom broke the Maritime pole vault record, and Mr. Nolan was very happy about it, and proud to be able to claim the distinction of being the coach who started. Alred on his pole vaulting career, Nolan said that the Summerside coach didn't have the height or ability build of most successful pole-vaulters, and it was amazing that he had done so well. He had words of high praise for young Groom's form and gentlemanly conduct while he attended Rothery.

We'd consider it a great favor if the sports coaches of Morell and vicinity would send us the recipe for the wizard's brew they serve up to their young athletes. Does it contain monkey-licious, Mexican jumping beans or some other kind of magic for making athletic heroes? Morell, considering the size of the hamlet, must have had nearly all the available talent in form of bantam and baseball teams. Yet those county lads made the Summerside and Charlottetown stars look like the milky way a foggy Friday. Their banners edged Moncton 11-9 in a two game series. Talk about whiz! They got 'em down there Morell!

Gaspar Ortega Battles Unbeaten Cuban Tonight

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP)—A fight at Don Jordan's welterweight title will be the big incentive tonight when Florentino Fernandez meets Gaspar Ortega in a nationally televised round fight.

Fernandez, making his second appearance since leaving his native Santiago, Cuba, is rated a fierce puncher and this may offset Ortega's added ring experience. Most observers rate Fernandez as undefeated in 20

Hunters' Corner

(Continued from page 8) The duck hunter gave me a very true description of men and boat. Boat was described as being 15 feet long and painted in with some red markings. The boat was travelling slow for look it a half hour to reach east Bar. He came to the cove and it was powered with a light weight outboard motor. He described the men as being slight build and not too tall. It is a strange co-incidence that I saw a boat, and boat owner, who that description to a T. I quite a kick out of working this type of cross word puzzle.

GET ATTENTION

Out fishermen at Whitlocks the ducks are getting considerable attention from hunters. This is a typical report: On Tuesday afternoon, August 25th, in a rain a resident of Charlottetown sat huddled under his cape waiting for a pool to be cut down after he had landed large trout. To quote his own words: "I was sitting quiet when a pair of ducks coming over my head and flew directly overhead. I was thinking what a nice shot they'd have made if season was open. I watched until they reached the shore at midway between the Dane's and Empanuel Camp when they shot rang out and both ducks dropped in the wood that the shore at this point. I counted five together near the same time a half hour earlier. One is certain: There will be a Primer Class ducks on the ponds on the opening morning this will mean a saving of $5. It's an ill wind that blows nobody good.
