"SHOWBOAT" AT THE CAPTOL

One of the greatest entertainments of all time is brought to the Capitol screen in "Show Boat," M-G-M's magnificent Technicolor version of the immortal Jerome Kern-Oscar Hammerstein II musical play, which has run up a record number of performances in its original Broadway presentation and in subsequent revivals.

Enacted in the film version by a brilliant cast headed by Kathryn Grayson, Ava Gardner, Howard Keel and Joe E. Brown, and featuring the superb score which includes such unforgettable songs as "Ol' Man River," "Make Believe," "Why Do I Love You," "Bill" and "Can't Help Lovin' Dat Man" and the screen version of "Show Boat" comes as an incomparable blend of musical, color, song, laughter, tears and romance. Here is an offering which sets a new standard for film musicals throughout the world.

French Group Visits Airport

On Sunday, Group Captain A.G. Kenyon, C.D., commanding officer of R.C.A.F. station, Summerside, received an official visit from a representative of the French consular corps, and members of the French navy. Mr. Robert Picard, French consulate at Halifax, and Mrs. Picard were accompanied by the commander of the French frigate L'Aventure, Capt. Labarere.

The official French party was escorted to R.C.A.F. Station by Lt. Commander J.J. Trainor, R.C.N.C., commanding officer of H.M.C.S. "Queen Charlotte", his staff officer Lieutenant J.M. Richards, R.C.N. (R) and Lt. W.R. Brennan, R.C.N. (R). Lt. W.R. Brennan is a former member of the R.C.A.F. and was stationed here in 1944 on his return from overseas.

French consulate, Robert Picard, combined his official courtesy visit to R.C.A.F. station, Summerside, with a duty visit and interview with the French trainees who are training at the Air Navigational School under North Atlantic Treaty Organization auspices.

In a short address he conveyed to the French students greetings from the French Consul General at Ottawa who had received glowing reports of the courtesy and treatment given them by the R.C.A.F. and the people of Canada. He urged them to spend their holidays with some of the many Canadians in the Maritimes and other provinces who had sent invitations to them through the consulates.

Captain Labarere stated that this was their first trip ashore since leaving France in March and that the wonderful Prince Edward Island sunshine was a welcome respite after months of patrolling the foggy Grand Banks. He announced that his vessel and its complement will be attending the Shediak, lobster festival this week. On his return to Charlottetown where "L'Aventure" is docked he took with him as guests a busload of French NATO trainees who spent a joyful two hour visit aboard ship. During their stay the visitors were entertained by group reception and luncheon by Group Captain and Mrs. A.G. Kenyon, C.D., Wing Commander and Mrs. L.C.
