Overlooked Kinkora School

Guess we'll have to remain after school and write on the blackboard 100 times: "Kinkora won the interscholastic "B" Island hockey title." In saying the Borden Nationals won the only Island hockey title for Prince County last winter, we overlooked those high school champions from Kinkora. Sorry, boys, and here's hoping we've got everything straight at last.

All baseball players living in Summerside, or near enough to get in to Summerside for league games, are requested to attend a meeting to be held at the Summerside Legion Home tonight (Monday) at 8 p.m. if you want to play baseball, but cannot possibly attend this meeting, please contact the Legion tonight by phone, carrier pigeon, or by telling some friend who plans to attend. The promoters are counting heads to see if a three-team league can be formed this year.

Game A Massacre

The "game of the week" on Saturday turned out to be "massacre of the month" with the New York Yankees practically bombing the Baltimore Orioles out of their own park. We'll admit the races in both leagues are close and exciting, but nobody seems to able to beat the Yankees on a Saturday so we can watch the television set and gloat. Look what a Yankee uniform did to Steve Hamilton. His strike-out total looked as if he were a stand-in for Sandy Koufax, and the Orioles are rarely that impotent with the willow. Considering everything, Saturday afternoon's television program was almost as bad as Festival with all those men in skin-tight pants sticking out their arms and legs in time to slow dreamy music.

Imagine hockey and baseball actually overlapping by one month! Big league baseball started April 19, if we remember correctly, and Edmonton defeated Niagara Falls for the Memorial Trophy, emblematic of the championship of Ontario and points west, on May 11. Down here in the Maritimes there is almost a two month gap between the two games in the spring. Volleyball, and badminton help to bridge the gap, of course, as well as bowling, which is an all the year round game.

Pots Beginning To Boil

But the baseball and softball pots are beginning to boil. Jack Fox has declared his MacKenzie softball team will enter the senior "A" playoffs next fall. The greenshirts have won the Intermediate "A" and Senior "B" Maritime titles, and are looking for new worlds to conquer. There's one serious objection to this. If MacKenzie's build up to senior "A" calibre. how will other teams compete with them and make an interesting league for Summerside spectators. If the modern Jack the giant killer will give us a satisfactory answer to that $64 question, we'll be happy.

Between season sports—some teen-agers, Patti Rogers, Marsha Schurman, Patsy Cooper and Hildy Clark—cycled from Summerside to Borden and back on Saturday. The hills provided the only competition and it was stiff say the gals.

KOUFAX PITCHES NO-HITTER

Sandy Koufax (right) of the Los Angeles Dodgers is congratulated by his teammates after he pitched his second no-hitter in less than a year Saturday night against the San Francisco Giants at Dodger Stadium. The 27-year-old left-hander barely missed a perfect game, retiring the first 22 men until he walked Ed Bailey, catcher for the Giants. The Dodgers won 8-0. (AP Wirephoto)

Koufax Tosses No-Hitter Against Rival Frisco Giants

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Sandy Koufax, who pitched a no-hitter against San Francisco Giants Saturday night, said after the game he was expecting a good bawling-out from his parents.

Not that they were likely to be upset by their southpaw son's near-perfect game against the National League champions, but he neglected to arrange their admission to Dodger Stadium to see the feat.

"I was supposed to leave tickets for the game," he said. "But I forgot."

Otherwise, Koufax readily rated Saturday's no-hitter his biggest personal thrill in baseball.

He had a perfect game until Ed Bailey drew a walk on a full count with one out in the ninth inning. The only other Giant to reach base was pinch-hitter Willie McCovey, who walked in the ninth.

"To pitch a perfect game would have been the greatest thrill," Koufax said. "It's too bad I walked those two guys, but it still is my greatest thrill."

FANNED 18 TWICE

Sandy's achievmeents, bfore this one, included two 18-strike-out performances, one against the Giants in 1959 and the other against Chicago Cubs last year. He is the only man in major league history to fan 18 in a game on two occasions.

And here last June 30, he pitched his first no - hitter, against New York Mets.

"But," he said, "pitching a no-hitter against the Giants is the finest thing that can happen to you."

The last San Francisco batter to face Koufax was Harvey Kuenn. He hit a bouncer back to the mound. For a moment it looked as though Koufax was going to run the ball all the way to first base. He finally tossed it to first-baseman Ron Fairly when he was only a few feet from the bag.

"I just wanted to make sure I didn't throw it away," Sandy said.

The Giants were the best hitting team in the major leagues last season and, before Saturday, no one had pitched a no-hitter against them since Warren Spahn of Milwaukee did it April 28, 1961.

Just seven years ago Sunday, Carl Erskine of the then Brooklyn Dodgers hurled a no-hitter against the then New York Giants.

Lipscomb's Death Being Investigated

BALTIMORE (AP) — A preliminarp hearing on narcotics charges against the 25-year-old drinking companion of Gene (Big Daddy) Lipscomb, National Football League defensive tackle who died Friday, was postponed until May 17.

Bond was set at $10,000 Sunday for Timothy N. Black, charged with the possession of narcotics paraphernalia.

Police requested the postponement for further investigation of the case.

The 34 - year - old Pittsburgh Steeler player was found dead in Black's apartment early Friday after he and Black spent the evening drinking with two girls.

Maryland's chief medical examiner, Dr. Russell S. Fisher, said Friday the "presumption is that this man (Lipscomb) is dead as a result of an overdose of narcotics, and by that we mean heroin, possibly accidentally injected."

Capt. Joseph F. Carroll of the Baltimore police narcotics squad said Black told him that he and Lipscomb went out and bought about $12 worth of heroin after the girls left the apartment.

Lipscomb injected the heroin into his arm with a home-made syringe, Black told police, and collapsed almost immediately, drooling from the mouth. Black was trying to revive Big Daddy by putting ice bags on his head and between his legs when a third man walked into the apartment.

The third man and Black then injected a salt and water mixture into Big Daddy's veins, hoping it would work as an effective antidote.

When this failed, the men called an ambulance. Lipscomb was pronounced dead on arrival at hospital.

Police now are looking for the third man to question him.

Lipscomb was named all-pro in 1958 and 1959, the years the Baltimore Colts won the NFL title. He was traded to Pittsburgh in 1961.

Anglers Land Trout Galore

Anglers really had a field day at North River Causeway over the weekend.

Earl 'Diver' Riggs, who was in charge of the fishing contest sponsored by the Queens County branch of the Fish and Game Association over the weekend, said last night that between 250 and 300 pounds of trout were pulled out of the causeway waters by the approximate 200 fishermen who wet a line on Saturday and Sunday.

Mr. Riggs also announced the winners of the contest. They are as follows:-

HEAVIEST SINGLE TROUT:

First — Robert McCallum, Charlottetown, 3 lbs., 3 ozs. (Prize — Pair of rubber boots).

Second — Roy Clark, Charlottetown, 3 lbs.. 3 ozs. (Prize — spinning reel).

HEAVIEST TWO:

First — Roy Clark, 5 lbs., 5 oz. (Prize — Fishing rod).

Second — Robert McCallum, 5 lbs.. 2 oz. (Prize — reel).

HEAVIEST CATCH:

First — Vernon MacDonald, 20 trout. 26 lbs., 14 oz. (Prize — fishing rod).

Second — Richard Arsenault, St. Nicholas, 20 trout, 20 lbs. (Prize — reel).

Mr. Riggs said last night that three more prizes would be awarded to persons telling the tallest fish stories at the next association meeting.

Julius Boros Takes Tourney

FORT WORTH, Tex. (AP)—Julius Boros won his second $60,000 Colonial national invitation golf tournament in four years Sunday, shooting a closing one-over-par 72 for a 279 total over the 72 holes.

Boros, who was champion here in 1960—and that was his last tournament victory until Sunday—was off on his approaching and his putting wasn't really sound. But he picked up a birdie on 14 with a five-foot putt just as Gary Player had moved within two strokes of him.

The victory was worth $12,000 to Boros. Player had a 67 for 283 and second-place money of $6,000.

Player, the only member of golf's big three to threaten seriously, turned the first nine in 32—a stroke over the record. But on 15 he missed a 15-foot putt for par coming out of the rough while Boros was shooting a birdie, and his threat faded.

Boros, the stoic former U.S. Open champion, leaped to fifth place from eighth among the money winners with a $27,525 total.

TAKES SECOND

Player took over second place with $36,765. Jack Nicklaus, the leading money winner at $56,215 and the pre-tournament favorite, had a closing 70 for 284 for third place and $3,500.

Arnold Palmer, the other big three man, was a dismal figure. He had a 75 and his 299 was his highest score since 1955 when he took 312 in Colonial and 299 in the Orlando Open. That was Palmer's first year on the tour.

The 7,122-yard Colonial Country Club course played tough for most of the pros Sunday. Player was the only challenger to make progress as he started out eight strokes behind Boros, who led at 54 holes with 208.

Doug Sanders, who was in second place Saturday at 211. had a 75 for 286 and tied Tony Lema for fourth place. Lema shot a closing 73.

Brayshaw Says Hockey Ch'ship Greatest Thrill

EDMONTON (CP) — General manager Leo LeClerc and two sportswriters were tossed into the showers Saturday night as the jubilant Edmonton Oil Kings celebrated their Memorial Cup junior hockey championship victory.

Oil Kings held off a late rush by Niagara Falls Flyers to score a 4-3 victory before a sell out crowd of more than 6,700 and capture the best-of-seven series 4-2.

Coach Buster Brayshaw was lifted upon his players' shoulders in the dressing room and given three cheers. Brayshaw called the victory "my greatest thrill."

"I never thought anything could give me the thrill I got last year when a bunch of fuzzy-cheeked kids carried us to the Memorial Cup final," Brayshaw said.

A few feet down the hall, owner-coach Hap Emms of Niagara Falls praised Oil Kings' "team effort."

"That's what gave them the title. Our boys played well, too, and with a couple of breaks could have won the game."

Arch-Rivals Tied For Skeet Title

ST. JANVIER, Que. (CP)—Barney Hartman of Ottawa and Ken Sedlecky, of Baldwin, Mich., arch-rivals for the Canadian open all - around skeet championship, were tied for the lead as they reached the half-way mark of the final 12-gauge event Sunday.

Each man broke 296 of a possible 300 birds in the first two days of small-bore shotgun competition Friday and Saturday, and scored a perfect 100 in the first half of the 12-gauge shoot.

Howard Confer of Detroit ranked third after the small-bore events with 294 and John Dinning of Ruxton, Md., was fourth with 292.

Hartman's 296 gave him a long lead for the Canadian closed title.

Next in order were three Montrealers—Nort Francis with 289; Harry Willsie with 288; and Eddy Tuvo with 287.

Edmonton Captures Cup With Thrilling 4-3 Victory

By BOB TRIMBEE

EDMONTON (CP) — Edmonton Oil Kings held off a closing rush by Niagara Falls Flyers to score a spine-tingling 4-3 victory Saturday night and capture the Memorial Cup junior hockey championship.

The big, hard-hitting western club won the best-of-seven series 4-2 and were mobbed by hundreds of cheering fans as the final siren sounded.

A tumultuous roar reverberated through Edmonton Gardens as fans swarmed around both clubs and lifted goalie Russ Kirk, defenceman Pat Quinn and centre Roger Bourbonnais on their shoulders.

It was Edmonton's first junior hockey title in seven attempts—Oil Kings were in a record fourth consecutive cup final—and the first for a team west of Manitoba since Regina Pats took the crown in 1930.

Oil Kings are the second Alberta team to win the championship, Calgary Canadians whipping Kingston in the 1926 final. It was only the fourth time since 1948 that a western club defeated the East for the cup.

DOMINATE GAME

A sellout crowd of more than 6,700 saw Edmonton hold firm control until Max Mestinsek took the only penalty of the game with 11 minutes remaining. Edmonton was leading 4-0.

Seven seconds later, Flyers had their first goal and added two more in the next nine minutes. In the final 90 seconds they swarmed around the Oil King net, twice firing shots inches wide of an open corner of the net and on three other occasions a sprawling Kirk turned aside bouncing shots.

Doug Fox, Glen Sather, Butch Paul and Gregg Pilling shared Edmonton's scoring while Bill Glashan, Ron Schock and Terry Crisp countered for Flyers.

Oil Kings, outhustled, outchecked and outshot Flyers for the first 49 minutes, but almost blew the game in the final half of the last period.

ALWAYS AHEAD

Edmonton led 1-0 at the end of the first, 3-0 after 40 minutes and stretched it to 4-0 early in the third before Flyers ignited their final comeback attempt.

Fox gave Edmonton its first period goal when Gardner let a bouncing shot slide behind him and the little Edmonton forward reached over and tapped it into the net.

In the second, Sather deflected in a goal-mouth pass by Mestinsek and moved Edmonton ahead 2-0. About 10 minutes later, Flyers goalie George Gardner made a difficult stop on Sather, the puck dribbled loose and Paul steered it into the open goal.

Pilling scored his first goal of the series—and what proved to be the winner—when he picked up a loose puck to the right of Gardner and sent a low backhander through the Flyer netminder's legs.

Glashan put Flyers on the scoreboard seven seconds after Mestinsek went off for interference. Schock raced in and beat Kirk with a low drive to the far corner and Crisp completed the scoring when he stole the puck behind the net, circled to the left and beat Kirk on his second try.

Flyers pulled Gardner in favor of an extra attacker with 35 seconds remaining.

Gardner finished with 30 saves and Kirk handled 27.

FOR WILLINGDON CUP

Selection System Changes Approved

FREDERICTON (CP) — The N.B.-P.E.I. Golf Association approved a change in its Willingdon Cup selection system here Sunday at the spring meeting of the board of governors.

Under the new system, one member of the four-man team will be selected as a result of five sectional tournament and a sectional playoff. The playoff will be staged at the Algonquin Golf Club in St. Andrews Sunday, July 7.

The other three members of the team which will represent the two provinces in interprovincial matches at the Riverside Golf and Country Club, near Saint John, in August will win their places in the N.B.-P.E.I. tournament at Edmundston.

In recent years two players have been named following the sectional tournaments and playoff and two won their places at the time of the annual tournament.

The change—as recommended by a three-man committee composed of D. H. Saunders, chairman, Charlottetown; Ivan Stairs, Bathurst, and B. W. Isner, Moncton—was made as the result of a feeling that "home course" players had a marked advantage in the one-day sectional playoff.

It was decided that sectional playoff will be at the Algonquin Golf Club which is considered a neutral course.

The governors also ruled that the player who wins his place on the Willingdon Cup team in the sectional playoff will be required to play in the N.B.-P.E.I. championship in order to qualify for the team.

The new system will be in force this year and will be reviewed at the fall meeting.

The governors decided that all clubs will be asked to take an active role in national golf week this year to raise funds for the Junior development program. John Cullen, chairman of the N.B.-P.E.I. Junior development committee, said he would require $1,000 this year for Junior golf. He was appointed regional chairman and a major promotion is to be undertaken in an effort to improve the calibre of junior golf in the two provinces.

The following tournament dates were approved by the governors:

June 8 — Spring invitation tournament at the Riverside Golf and Country Club.

June 22 and 29 (or June 23 and 30): section tournaments at Plaster Rock and Woodstock; Green Gables and Charlottetown; Restigouche and Gowan Brae; Sackville and Moncton; St. Croix and Fredericton.

June 30 and July 1 — Pro-amateur tournament at Fredericton Golf Club with amateur entries restricted to those with handicaps of 12 or lower.

July 7 — section playoff at the Algonquin Golf Club in St. Andrews.

July 15-17 — N.B.-P.E.I. championship at Edmundston

July 27-28 — N.BI-P.E.I. junior championship, tentatively scheduled for Charlottetown.

Aug.12-17 — Willingdon Cup matches and Canadian amateur at Riverside Golf and Country Club.

Aug. 24-25 — P.E.I. open at Charlottetown Golf Club.

Aug. 30-31 — Saint John Exhibition Open at the Riverside Golf and Country Club.

Sept. 1-2 — Moncton City Open at the Moncton Golf Club.

Sept. 7-8 — Fundy National Park tournaments.

Jose Gonzales Beats Denucci

BOSTON (AP)—Jose Gonzalez, a flailing, wade-in fighter, scored a 10-round decision over Joe Denucci Saturday night at Boston Arena.

Referee Joe Zapustas scored the rather dull bout a draw. Judge Joe Blumsack saw it 98-95 for the 27-year-old Bronx bartender and Judge Joe Amaral had it 97-96 for Gonzalez. There were no knockdowns.

Gonzalez, only conqueror of middleweight Joey Archer, a record of 26-7. Denucci, from Newton, Mass., is 40-5-2.

Gonzalez, not much of a puncher but forcing the fight all the time, was at his best in the middle rounds. Denucci never was able to solve Gonzalez' baffling, bouncing, swarming style.

Greenwood Cops Bowling Honors

ST. JOHN'S, Nfld. (CP)—Greenwood RCAF station carried off top honors in the Maritime five-pin bowling tournament which wound up here Saturday, using the powerful bowling of Wally Strickland to top advantage.

The Nova Scotian airman piled up 68 points out of a possible 80 during the three-day tournament. The host St. John's club had 54 points.

Strickland turned in the best average for the tournament, 248.1 and his 880 was the best triple in three days. Ches Henderson of St. John's rolled the top single, a 376.

Shearwater came in third, six points behind St. John's with 48, while St. John's Torbay was fourth with 44, one point ahead of St. John's Pepperrell and two up on Charlottetown.

Halifax Town and Country won 38 points to place seventh.

Cornwallis had 34 and a second Greenwood team 30, Trailing were Shelburne with 29 points and Halifax Pirates with 18.

Kidd Grabs Annual Race

HAMILTON (CP)—Toronto's Bruce Kidd won the National Steel Car war veterans' annual 2½-mile road race Saturday for an unprecedented fifth time.

The University of Toronto sophomore, running under the colors of East York Track Club, ran the three-lap course in 11 minutes 47 seconds—8½ seconds off the record set by Kidd last year. He had also set records for the event in his 1959, 1960 and 1961 wins.

Get Around Is Winner

NEW YORK (AP) — The Maine Chance Farm's Get Around came from 12th place with a rush in the Aqueduct home stretch Saturday and Derby - winning jockey Braulio Baeza just got him up in the final strides to win the $61,000 Withers Mile.

The victory, worth $39,650, qualified Mrs.Elizabeth Arden Graham's speedy colt for a shot at the $150,000 Preakness Stakes next Saturday at Pimlico.

Get Around, a chestnut son of Citation-Lotopep by Menow, finished one-half length in front of Mrs. Charles D. Morgan's Sky Wonder, with George D. Widener's Top Gallant third in a field of 14 three-year-olds. The time for the mile on a muddy track was one minute 36 3-5 seconds.

Top Gallant and Widener's other horse in the entry, Crewman, rated as joint 3-2 favorites. Crewman, considered the better horse in the entry, set a scorching pace under Manuel Ycaza but tired and wound up eighth.
