

THE DAILY EXAMINER, OCTOBER 25, 1881.

The Island Land League.

As will be seen by the report, a Land League has been formed in this City. We presume this League has no sort of connection with the illegal association headed by the imprisoned Mr. Parnell.

If they are careful to give a wide berth to Parnell and his dynamic followers, our Land League will not be without many to sympathize with its object. With high rents, high taxes, and high pressure competition to struggle against, the tenant farmers of Great Britain and Ireland are in a pretty bad way just now.

The P. E. Island Railway.

The St. John Telegraph's special correspondent in this Province writes:

"The road is evidently smooth and the ride is not at all unpleasant. The cars, although small and narrow-seated, are very steady, and even the curves do not seem to 'shake up' the tourist as much as some other roads over which he may pass.

The Word "Syndicate."

In Doctor Samuel Johnson's Dictionary of the English Language, Folio, in two volumes, A. D. 1773, fourth edition, revised by the author, we find as follows: To Syndicate: Verb neuter. Syndiquer, French: sun and dike. Greek: To pass judgment upon; to censure.

The Philadelphia American says: "Canada is enjoying a revival of that prosperity which was never to return to her unless she returned to free trade. Her people no longer flock out of the Dominion to find employment under 'the crushing protective system' of America.

A Parisian journal estimates the total number of recognized medical men throughout the civilized world at 180,000, of whom it assigns 65,000 to the United States, 35,000 to Great Britain and her colonies, 26,000 to France, 32,000 to Germany and Austria, 10,000 to Italy, and 5,000 to Spain.

HANLAN and ROSS—Hanlan is working hard for his forthcoming race with Ross, and declares he never felt better in his life. He has worked himself down to 162 pounds with his clothes on, and now has not much really superfluous flesh to get off.

DECAPITATED.—On Sunday morning, the body of an Indian, afterwards identified as that of Joseph Noel, was found lying in the I. C. R. Station yard, at Moncton, with the head completely severed from the body and one arm cut off.

It is estimated that the season's yield of wheat in Quebec and Ontario will be 25,000,000 bushels. The good harvest is apparently not due to extended planting, as the average on the two sections has not been materially increased.

A NUMBER of persons were summoned before the Stipendiary Magistrate of Summerside last Tuesday for violation of the Scott Act. Each one "acknowledged the corn" and confessed they were selling liquor, but not in violation of the Scott Act. Judgment reserved.—Progress.

THE STATE OF IRELAND.

THE LAND LEAGUE'S MANIFESTO.

The following is the closing exhortation: "Fellow countrymen, the hour to try your souls and to redeem your pledges has arrived. The executive of the National Land League forced to abandon its policy of testing the land act, feels bound to advise the tenant farmers of Ireland from this day forth to pay no rents under any circumstances to their landlords until the government relinquishes the existing system of terrorism and restores the constitutional rights of the people.

"Do not be daunted by the removal of your leaders; do not let yourselves be intimidated by threats of military violence. It is as lawful to refuse to pay rents as it is to resist them. Against the passive resistance of the entire population military power has no resistance.

"Funds will be poured out unstintingly for the support of all who may endure evictions in the course of the struggle. Our exiled brothers in America may be relied upon to contribute if necessary as many millions of money as they have contributed thousands to starve out Laudlordism and bring English tyranny to its knees.

"One more crowding struggle for your land, your homes, your lives, a struggle in which you have all the memories of your race, all the hopes of your kindred and all the sacrifices of your imprisoned brothers.

(Signed),

BRENNAN, SEXTON, PARNELL, DILLON, DAVITT, KITTLE, EAGAN.

BY THE LORD-LIEUTENANT OF IRELAND.

A PROCLAMATION.

"Whereas, an association, styling itself 'The Irish National Land League,' has existed for some time past, assuming to interfere with the Queen's subjects in the free exercise of their lawful rights, and especially to control the relations between the landlords and tenants in Ireland:

"Whereas, the designs of the association are being sought to be effected by an organized system of intimidation, by attempting to obstruct the processes and the execution of the Queen's writs, and by seeking to deter the Queen's subjects from fulfilling their contracts and following their lawful callings and occupations:

"Whereas, the said association has now avowed its purpose to be to prevent the payment of all rent, and to effect the subversion of law as administered in the Queen's name in Ireland:

"Now, we hereby warn all persons that the said association styling itself 'The Irish National Land League,' and by whatever other name it may be called or known, is an unlawful and criminal association, and that all meetings or assemblies to carry out or promote its designs or purposes are alike unlawful and criminal, and will be prevented, and if necessary, dispersed by force.

"We hereby warn all subjects of Her Majesty the Queen who may have become connected with the said association to disconnect themselves, and to abstain from giving further countenance thereto; and we do hereby make known that all the powers and resources at our command will be employed to protect the Queen's subjects in Ireland in the free exercise of their lawful rights, and in the peaceful pursuit of their lawful callings and occupations, to enforce the fulfilment of all lawful obligations, and to save the processes of the law and the execution of the Queen's writs from hindrance or obstruction.

"And we do hereby call on all loyal and well affected subjects of the Crown to aid us in upholding and maintaining the authority of the law and the supremacy of the Queen in this her realm of Ireland.

"Dated at Dublin Castle, this 26th day of October, 1881.

"By His Excellency's command, 'W. C. FORSTER.'"

"NO RENT."

A few days ago there went to every corner of Ireland, a large white placard, printed in big, black-bodied type, as follows:—

"NO RENT!"

PARNELL, DAVITT, DILLON, SEXTON, KITTLE, BRENNAN, EAGAN.

WHAT ARCHBISHOP CROKE SAYS:

Respecting the Land League's manifesto Archbishop Croke says: "I read the manifesto with the utmost pain, indeed with absolute dismay, against the committal of the people of Ireland under still more exciting circumstances. To such a doctrine I enter a solemn protest. I have been a steadfast and uncompromising supporter of the public policy of the League, believing it to be constitutional and calculated to effect great national results, but I always unequivocally stated that I always stand out for fair rents as a safe foothold of agriculturists on the soil. Absolute repudiation of rent would meet with no sympathy from me. There is no more reason now for the original platform of the League than there was when Mr. Davitt was sent to Portland and Mr. Dillon was first imprisoned. Its original policy was righteous, and tested by experience; its results welded clergy and laymen in one loving brotherhood. I believe the new policy can lead to nothing but disintegration and defeat."

OPINIONS OF THE PRESS.

The Mail says:—Archbishop Croke has written a public letter entirely disapproving of the Land League manifesto of "No Rent." The Archbishop's letter is the deadliest blow that could be struck at the League at the present moment, for it is a blow from within, not from without. Any one who has watched Archbishop Croke's attitude for the past two years, his uncompromising hostility to landlordism, his antagonism to the other bishops on the question of agitation, his sympathy with nationalism, and his personal friendship for Mr. Dillon and the several other leaders of the movement, may understand how brave is his present action, and how much pain it must cause him. His conduct throughout has been created by a desire for the good of the people. Those who doubted it must be convinced of it now. This last fearless act will do much to turn the edge of the league's sword, it changes the face of affairs completely. The majority of the priesthood who have been following him throughout will continue to follow him, if not so boldly, yet with a silent fidelity which will bear fruit in the future. The Daily Press, a Conservative organ, says:—"If the Government suffer themselves to be defeated, Ireland is lost to the English crown. The struggle now precipitated involves the whole of the various issues which the politicians of this country have been bringing up of late years, and more than those issues. If the Government will be defeated it is not Home Rule which will be the result, but absolute and complete separation. Therefore we do not go too far when we say that the Government of England is in its life and death conflict, involving as one of its possible results the declaration of an independent Ireland, with fleets and armies established at the very door of England."

A LANDLORD'S CIRCULAR.

Mr. Mitchell Henry, Home Ruler, member of Parliament for county Galway, has issued a circular to his tenants pointing out that if any one of them think they can get better terms from the Land Court he has neither the power nor the wish to prevent them. But he points to the unequalled lowness of the present rents and other advantages. He is willing to allow a reduction of from 15 to 20 per cent on the half year's rent due in May last, but hereafter the old rates will be expected. He hopes that the rents will be cheerfully paid, and that the tenants will not at the bidding of false friends and teachers reverse to the relations which have hitherto existed, but will maintain their self-respect and character as honest men.

THE LAND COURT.

The Land Court opened on the 20th inst. There was a large attendance. Lord Justice O'Hagan said the court had decided on extremely simple rules of procedure. The fee for entering the court would be only one shilling, so that nobody could have the excuse of not having the advantage of the Land Act. There will be a similar fee on giving notice of appeal. Many tenants, he said, have already applied to have their rents fixed, but no decision could be given before ten days. The commissioners would do their best to make the Act a success. The judge's statement was received with applause.

Land League Meeting.

On Wednesday last Mr. John Murdoch, editor of The Highlander, Inverness, lectured in this city on the Irish Land Question. In the course of his remarks he showed the good work the Irish Land League had done, the necessity for such a body, and strongly urged upon his audience to form a Land League in Charlottetown. After the lecture a resolution was carried stating that such an institution should be established, and quite a number gave in their names as members. It was there decided that a meeting would be held on Monday, the 24th inst., to organize. With this intention a large, respectable and enthusiastic number of citizens met, last evening, in Welsh & Owen's Building, Queen Street. The first business taken up was the election of officers, resulting as follows:—

President—M. P. Hogan. Vice-Presidents—Richard Reddin and William McGill. Recording Secretary—Richard Walsh. Financial Secretary—Francis Curran. Corresponding Secretary—J. E. Wyatt. Treasurer—James Byrne. Executive Committee—Philip Coyle, W. S. Stewart, Simon Belger (St. Peter's Bay), F. P. McCarron and P. R. Bowers.

The Constitution and By-Laws were then read and agreed to. The organization will be known as "The Charlottetown Branch of the Irish National Land League," the objects of which are: The rendering of moral and financial aid to the people of the Old Country in their struggle against landlordism, and the dissemination of correct views on the Land Question in general. It is also the duty of the officers and members to encourage the formation of Land League Branches throughout the Island.

A motion was unanimously carried that a public meeting be held, at an early date, to express sympathy with the Irish people. Thirty new members were added to the roll.

After the consideration of important matters connected with the success of the League, the meeting adjourned.

Boston Fish Market.

Advices of the 22nd say: Buyers of mackerel have held back because of the price, but the stocks are so light that this quiet does not give any incentive to the jobbers and dealers to accept even a shade lower figures. The fishermen have made a better week's work than for the previous week, but the mackerel landed by the fleet at Boston and outports show no increase, but, on the contrary, a decrease of 349 bbls., the receipts landed last week being 10,732 bbls., and this week but 10,383 bbls. Another week, however, may bring better returns, since it is understood that many vessels have had better success, but have not yet put into port. The receipts of mackerel from the Provinces continue very light, being 51,728 bbls., against 84,274 bbls. for the corresponding week last year, and 64,248 bbls. for the like week in 1879. It is now understood, from the best authority in the trade, that there are, practically, no mackerel to come forward from Prince Edward Island, and but few from other ports in the Provinces. This lack of quantity will render the market here so much the more firm. The dealers evince a great deal of confidence in mackerel, although they grant that the fall jobbing trade is nearly over. They are paying higher prices and taking all they can get at prices not too far advanced. They are aware the market is short of first-class fish, and reasoning from all reports, it is likely to continue so. They are not disposed to force anything they now hold on the attention of buyers, fully believing that all of the stocks in hand, or likely to be, will be wanted. The jobbers hold the prices firm at $7.50 to $8 for medium 3s; shore 2s $9 to $9.50; extra 2s, $10 to $12.50; shore 1s, $20.

VENOR'S PREDICTIONS.—On the 20th Mr. Venor said:—"I look for a continuance of the warm wave on this continent during the approaching winter, broken by waves of low temperature of brief duration. I disregard the sun or sun spot theory, and predict an open winter." Venor on the 22nd says:—"There will be a severe gale between the 25th and 26th of this month and cold and stormy weather with snowfalls in the Lower Provinces and the Gulf of St. Lawrence. Snow in the far West."

St. Petersburg advices state that forty members of the party of terror will be arraigned before a special court in November.
