Shower Held At Mill River East

The spacious home of Ella and Fred Metherall, Mill River East, was filled with guests last Monday evening, Feb. 28, when the relatives and friends of Mr. and Mrs. Alden Metherall, (nee Oressa Brown) gathered to welcome them from their honeymoon and to offer tangible tokens of love and respect in a miscellaneous shower of many useful and lovely gifts.

The living-room and seats of honor were tastefully and prettily decorated in a pink and white scheme. Prior to the opening of the gifts Mrs. Jamie Gard read the humorous monologue, appropriate to the occasion, depicting local characters which caused much merriment. The gifts were opened by Mrs. Keith Gard and Mrs. Sergeant Metherall. Mrs. Jamie Gard read the accompanying messages while Mrs. Vernon Campbell arranged the gifts on the table. After the presentation, Mr. Metherall responded on behalf of his wife and himself, expressing his appreciation of the kindness and thoughtfulness shown them after which the assembly joined in singing "For They Are Jolly Good Fellows." The groom then received the usual hearty blessing.

Sumptuous refreshments were served by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. Jamie Gard, Mrs. Sergeant Metherall, Mrs. Vernon Campbell and Mrs. Robert Hunter. The remaining time wiled away in happy conversation. All dispersed wishing Mr. and Mrs. Metherall many years of happy wedded life.

In Memoriam

MRS. JOHN T. GODFREY

There passed away at her home in North Wilshire on Wednesday morning, Jan. 26, 1955, Mrs. J. T. Godfrey, in her 92nd year.

Mrs. Godfrey was born at Northboro, the daughter of Thomas Frizzell and Mary Bell. Esther, as she was called, had the misfortune of injuring her knee early in life causing her to lose her leg in her teens. But although so handicapped she was never known to complain. She was an expert dressmaker.

In 1899 she came to North Wilshire, the bride of John T. Godfrey. She was a devoted wife and mother. Her every thought was for her family who will always remember her deeds of love. Although confined to her bed for nearly three years she was lovingly and tenderly cared for by her son, Warburton and wife Rena. She was of a cheerful nature which won her a host of friends.

She was an ever faithful worker for the Red Cross during World War I, giving generously of her sewing ability. She was the last of a family of fifteen, and leaves to mourn her passing one son, Warburton, North Wilshire, and one daughter, Mildred, Mrs. Beecher Campbell, Quincy, Mass., also six grandchildren. Her husband and daughter, Edna, predeceased her.

The funeral was held on Saturday afternoon at the home of her son Warburton and despite roads and weather was largely attended. The pastor, Rev. C. R. Moase, conducted the service. The hymns sung were: "Rock of Ages," "The Lord is My Shepherd," and "Abide With Me." Favorites of the deceased, Life's Railway to Heaven, were sung by Mr. Davis Ward. The pallbearers were: Messrs. Robert Smith, James Berrigan, Miller Henderson, Keir Hatherley, Elmer Paynter, and Bruce Noye. She was tenderly laid to rest in the family plot North Wilshire.

Always a smile. Never a frown. There wasn't a thing too big or too small. That she wouldn't try to do for us all. Treasured memories of a Mother we loved and will never forget.

Card of Thanks

The family of the late Mrs. J. T. Godfrey wish to express sincere thanks to neighbours and friends who helped in any way and to all those who sent cards, letters and flowers at the time of their bereavement.
