Whispering Hope, Tartan Double Dash Winners; O'Meara Slightly Injured

Whispering Hope, a sleek bay pacer and Tartan a big black trotter, were double dash winners last night at the bi-weekly race meet at the Charlottetown Driving Park.

Whispering Hope, pacing in beautiful form, won both dashes of the Classified Pace while Tartan, on his best trotting behavior of the year, took the second and sixth dashes of the Classified Trot.

Bonnie Dale, Jennie Kalmuck, Frankie Budlong and Billy McVey were the other double dash winners.

Len O'Meara, the leading driver during the Old Home Week racing meet, was taken to hospital following a track accident in the fifth dash. The popular driver was cut in the face and after medical treatment was released from Hospital.

Involved in the accident, which took place on the lower turn were Judy Kalmuck, Real Sett and New Forrest. O'Meara was driving New Forrest. Judy Kalmuck suffered an injured side in the mishap.

Whispering Hope, reined as usual by Cyril Smith, pulled out of second position at the turn of the stretch to pass Prince Budlong and win the fourth dash. Prince Budlong led the field to the turn followed by Whispering Hope and My Darling.

Smith took Whispering Hope out at the three-quarter pole in the eighth race after Prince Budlong had set the early pace followed by Texas Brewer, My Darling, Whispering Hope and Ann's Dream.

Whispering Hope started his drive before he hit the three-quarter pole and rounded the field on the upper turn. The bay gelding won by well over a length with My Darling finishing fast for second money.

Frankie Budlong, driven by owner A. Lowery, led from wire to wire in winning the third race. Ike Moreside drove Billy McVey in place of the injured O'Meara in the seventh dash and took Billy home a winner after moving up on the outside on the back stretch.

Billy McVey pulled out of sixth position at the five-eighths pole and won by half a length over Frankie Budlong.

Tartan trotted strong miles in winning the second and sixth dashes. Moreside took Tartan out on the upper turn on the first trip around in both dashes to win by a length and a half on both occasions.

Bonnie Dale, driven by Chester Birt, won the first dash and Jennie Kalmuck won the fifth dash.

The daily double on Tartan and Frankie Budlong paid $70.00 and the quinella on Tartan and Chet Lyn Clever paid $16.50.

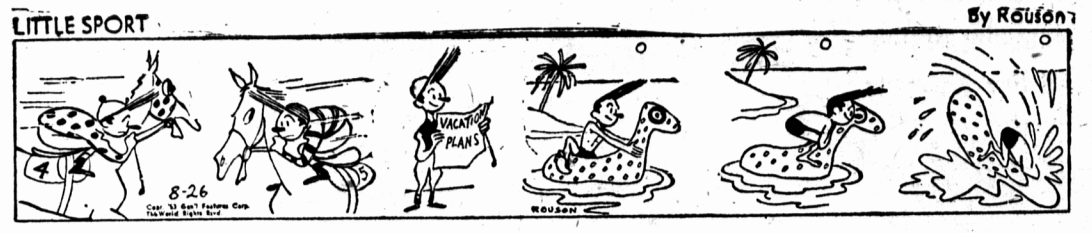
N. S. Baseball

STELLARTON, N. S. (CP)—Bill Werber's ninth-inning homer gave Stellarton Albions a 3-2 win over Liverpool Larrupers Tuesday and a 3-0 lead in the best-of-seven Halifax and District Baseball League semi-finals.

YARMOUTH, N. S., (CP)—Shelburne Loyalists took a 2-1 lead in the best-of-seven Nova Scotia senior baseball championships Tuesday by fashioning three hits into a 2-1 victory over Yarmouth Gateways.

TRURO, (CP) — Kentville Wildcats trounced Truro Bearcats 7-2 here Tuesday to even the best-of-seven Halifax and District Baseball League semi-finals 2-2.



Cecil Dowling, the young golf pro at the Belvedere Golf Course, who made such an outstanding showing last week in the Labatt Open at Montreal, returned home on Monday afternoon. Dowling led all Maritime golfers in the meet and placed about 55th among the 125 professionals from Canada and the United States who took part in the competitions. He had a four day score of 295.

* * *

Cecil earned the distinction of being the only Maritimer to advance beyond the second round. In order to qualify for the third and fourth rounds a player needed a two day total of 145 or under. Dowling got under the wire by sinking a 60-foot putt on the 18th green on the second round while a crowd of about 5,000 fans watched or tried to watch the proceedings.

* * *

While in the tournament Dowling saw and played with the leading professional players in the Dominion and the United States. He entered the tournament mainly to get experience. This Thursday he will leave for Moncton to compete in the Maritime professional tournament at the Lakeside Golf Course. The total purse for the meet is $2,000. On Monday he will compete in the big golf meet which opens at Summerside. The meet at Summerside will be played for purses of over $1200.

* * *

There's great things in store for baseball fans in a few years' time. When Randy Edwards' Little Leaguers advance a few more years towards manhood and if they have the same kind of coaching as they have now this City is going to have some outstanding ball players in its midst. There have been good ball players here in the past and there are some good players here now but the Little Leaguers last Sunday gave notice that they will be better than any we have yet produced.

* * *

When young Paul Murphy at short stop scooped up a grounder and whipped a throw to Emmett Joseph at third base for a force-out in last Sunday afternoon's game the fans got their first notice of what they could expect. In the next inning when catcher Charlie Smith whipped a throw down to third to catch a runner off base the lean man in the blue suit in the stands knew that he was watching kids who had come a long way in baseball know-how during a few weeks.

* * *

But that wasn't all. This same lean man in the blue suit was watching a small kid by the name of Lefty Dunn. "Lefty" was the pitcher and as cool looking as another and older "Lefty" who has done a lot of hurling around here. Young Dunn settled away after the first inning and in four frames gave up only one hit while striking out seven batters, for a great performance.

* * *

He couldn't help but notice the sharp playing of catcher Smith. Smitty looked good behind at the plate while at the plate he connected for a home run. As the fan looked around the bases he was sort of forced to admire the play of Harry Callaghan at first, Sterling MacFadyen [illegible], Ronnie Rice at third, Maurice Larter and Munroe in left field, Fred Dunn and Kelly in centre and Vince Mulligan in right.

* * *

On top of that there was coach Randy Edwards' word that this wasn't an all star team. There were a number of the older boys (12-year-olds whom he purposely passed) who did not play. All those players have shown a tremendous enthusiasm in the game. Most of them are playing games in their own back yards when they can't get on the diamond and when they're not playing they're talking Little League ball.

* * *

The spotlight on the Hunter Circuit shifts to Summerside this afternoon. In a crucial and deciding game the Junior Abbies will attempt to knock the Curran & Briggs Juniors out of the play-off picture. Buckley and Carson will oppose one another in what may be a terrific pitchers' duel. In the other game this evening M.C.A. meet the Air Force. Lefty MacAleer will probably go against Gaudet.

Field In U.S. Women's Golf Tourney Cut To 32

By WILL GRIMSLEY

PROVIDENCE, R. I. (AP)—Grace Lenczyk of Newington, Conn., a comebacking ex-titlist, and Pat Lesser, 19-year-old college champion from Seattle, won the big test matches Tuesday as the field in the United States women's amateur golf tournament was reduced to 32.

The 25-year-old Miss Lenczyk, who hasn't done much since she swept the national ... collegiate crowns in 1948, survived a dogged 20-hole duel with Joyce Ziske, the first day giant-killer from Waterford, Wis.

The New Englander clinched the match with a par four on the second extra hole after the two had battled the full route without more than a single hole's difference.

Miss Ziske, 19, eliminated the British champion, Canada's Marlene Stewart, Monday.

Miss Lesser, her coal-black pigtails bobbing with every swing, took the measure of Claire Doran, Curtis Cup member from Cleveland, 3 and 2. The Seattle girl was never behind.

Other prime favorites kept pace in the 43-match eliminations over the 6,371-yard, par 74 Rhode Island Country Club course.

These included Mrs. Mark Porter of Philadelphia, 1949 winner; Curtis Cuppers Marjorie Lindsay McMillen of Decatur, Ill., and Mrs. Howard Smith, the former Grace Demoss, of Corvallis, Ore., and such well-liked contenders as little Roslyn Cookie Swift of Great Neck, N. Y.; Pat Garner of Midland, Tex., 1952 semi-finalist; Barbara McIntyre of Toledo, Ohio, and Mary Lena Yaulk of Thomasville, Ga.

Streeter Retains Seniors Golf Ass'n Ch'ship

ST. ANDREWS, N. B, (CP) — Percival Streeter, veteran golfer from Rothesay, N.B., bested 136 starters to retain his Maritime Seniors Golf Association championship here Tuesday. He led his nearest rival by 11 strokes, runner-up R. S. Babcock, Kentville, N. S.

Streeter rounded the 18-hole Algonquin course Monday for a four over par 75 and followed with a 78 for a gross total of 153 and net of 131. Babcock had 83-81-164 and netted 132.

Two New Brunswick players tied for third spot, George Barnes, Rothesay, and W. M. Reed, Arcostook, grossing 166.

Streeter retains the Holman Cup for another year, and Babcock wins the McCurdy Cup, won last year by Dr. L. M. Morton of Yarmouth, N. S.

Other scores in class "A" include: L. H. Norman, Eden Club, 90-81—171; A. Cunningham, Halifax, 84-88—172; W. Dickson, Halifax 85-87—172; A. E. Fowles, Halifax 85-89—174; G. A. Hawkins, Charlottetown 88-86—174; Dr. L. M. Morton, Yarmouth 87-87—174; Dr. J. P. McInerney, Halifax 88-88—176.

E. B. Harley of Rothesay led class "B" with 89-85—174; others included: J. C. Laing, Dartmouth, 177; P. E. King, Liverpool 178; J. E. McKenna, Pictou 179; Dr. W. C. Coates, Amherst 185; L. E. Teasdale, Dartmouth 190; Col. F. B. Conrad, Charlottetown 194; Dr. A. D. Crowell, Eden 197, and J. D. Collins, Amherst 211.

Prof. C. W. Small of Kentville, led class C with 91-82—173; other scores were: H. F. McNaughton, New Glasgow 179; A. G. English, 184, J. A. Marshall 185; D. R. Cochrane 186; H. G. Evans 190, all of Kentville; Frank Reardon, Jr., Halifax 197; N. C. Rodger, Amherst 187; Dr. W. M. Phinney, Yarmouth 198; H. N. Stetson, Dartmouth 203; G. G. Hughes, Charlottetown 205; W. F. Cox, Truro, 217.

Class D scores included: B. T. Pugsley, Amherst 187; D. E. Young, Lunenburg 197; T. R. Gilbert, Halifax 199; W. L. Joudrey, Liverpool 203; J. Coles, Charlottetown 204; A. T. Campbell, Truro 205; E. C. Wilson, Yarmouth 208; R. W. Boland, Dartmouth 215, and L. H. Shipman, Liverpool 222.

Class E included: J. W. Fraser, Halifax 198; Judge J. K. Crowell, Eden 200; W. I. Barnstead, Halifax 201; J. L. Cavanaugh, New Glasgow 201; C.B. Robinson, Kentville 201; Col. V. G. Dawson, Yarmouth 202; R. Gascoigne, Liverpool 203; F. W. Wood, Kentville 203; J. G. DeWolfe, Halifax 215; and E. M. Macleod, New Glasgow 219.

A. M. Doyle of Halifax led class F with 97-91—188; others included: W. R. Jenkins, Charlottetown 214; H. J. Wyman, Yarmouth 215; Senator J. J. Kinley, Lunenburg 216; G. D. Denton, Kentville 218, and Dr. G. B. Richmond, Kentville 222.

Little Leaguers Will Play Under Lights

Two All Star teams from the Charlottetown Little League will play under the lights here on the evening of September 3, it was announced yesterday by coach Randy Edwards.

Randy will pick two all star teams from the regular league for the big game. The teams will be called the Rotarians and the Abbies.

Those sponsoring the affair are asking every one to throw in a quarter to help defray the expenses of this all important league.

Island League Games Today

The Junior Abbies will meet Curran and Briggs Juniors and M. C. A. will play the Air Force in Island League Baseball play-off games today. Both games will be played in Summerside.

The Junior Abbies will leave Ments at 1.15.

Legion Wallop LYC 8-1; Angels-Dairy Game Called

The Legion rebounded back into the middle of the City Softball League play-off picture yesterday evening with a resounding 8-1 win over the Liguorian Youth Club in a game played on the Old Diamond.

The L. Y. C. now lead the best of five series two games to one with one contest tied.

The Guardian Angels-Sunshine Dairy game was called on account of darkness in the sixth inning and declared no contest. The game will be re-played either on the Parkdale Diamond Thursday or the Old Diamond Friday. The Dairymen were leading 2-1 when the game was called with the Angels at bat.

Ivan Connors pitched a brilliant four-hitter as he tamed the L.Y.C. bats for the Legion. He allowed only one run in the fifth inning on two walks and an outfield fly.

Wilf Shephard pitched for the L. Y. C. and was touched for ten hits as he went down to his first play-off defeat.

Doc Hennessey, Vern Blanchard and Moe Goodwin led the Legion batters with two hits each. Goodwin had the longest hit of the game, a double.

Phil Coyle led the losers with two hits.

Art Ballem and Henry Hartinger hooked up in a brilliant pitching battle in the Angels-Dairymen's game. Ballem gave up only two singles to Reggie Hughes in five innings while Hartinger gave up five hits in six frames.

The Angels had two men on base and none out when the game was called. Billy Wright played spectacular ball at short for the Angels.

Legion Wins Little League Series Opener

—Donnie Schurman, nine-year-old phenom of the Legion entry in the Summerside Little League (majors) pitched his team to victory over the Rotary Club at the Queen Elizabeth Little League baseball diamond last evening, letting Rotary down with six hits and striking out ten as Legion won 12-8. It was the first game in a double round robin series between Rotary, Legion and Kinsmen for the league championship. Young Schurman struck out the side in the third inning. In the fifth and last frame, with the score 5-4 for Legion, after filling the bases Donnie struck out the next two batters and had two strikes on Larry Hardy. It was a dramatic moment but Hardy ended it with a grand slam home run making the score read 8-5 for Rotary. Schurman's mates came to his assistance with five solid base hits in their half of the inning, however, scoring seven runs and salting away the game for the Legion.

"Baldy" Arsenault pitched well for the losers giving up twelve hits, but allowing no free passes, and whiffing three.

For the winners Bobby Trainor and Art Perry each belted out three hits, Bobby Gallant and Jimmie Hogan getting two apiece. Peter Edmundson had three singles for Rotary and Larry Hardy, two. Besides Hardy's grand slam circuit clout, Art Perry, Jackie Brown Bobby Gallant, and Bobby Trainor all hit homers, Trainor and Hardy also getting triples.

Brown made a nice catch of a foul fly in the third, Ronnie DeRoches speared a hard line drive to third in the Fourth and Schurman made a running catch in the fifth. For Rotary Irvin Sonier shone at second making some nice force plays, and handling two snappy tag plays at the keystone sack.
