

THE DAILY EXAMINER.

JUNE 9, 1890.

Notes and Comments.

The New York Herald repeats its predictions that the McKinley Bill will not become law this session.

A school-boy defined strong drink as "the stuff that causes the most human happiness—by lettin' it alone."

The London Standard's Berlin correspondent says the African negotiations are at a standstill, and that Germany has resolved to wait for England to meet her half-way.

It is now more than 2,000 years since it was first proposed to cut a canal through the Isthmus of Corinth, but the work is at last under way directed by a Polish engineer and promises to be completed in 1892.

Freight is now being forwarded from Calcutta to the Pacific Coast via the Canadian Pacific steamers, on through bills of lading. On the last steamer, a large amount of freight arrived from Calcutta for Portland.

The New York Journal of Commerce remarks that whenever the question of prohibition has recently been submitted to the people in any of the states it has been voted down by a very large majority.

The special Panama canal commission has prepared a fresh report on the prospects of the canal, in case it is completed.

The special Panama canal commission has prepared a fresh report on the prospects of the canal, in case it is completed. In this, the annual cost of maintaining is placed at 5,500,000 francs.

Horse Notes.

A correspondent from King's County writes: "The horse Glen, advertised in your paper, is, no doubt, one of the best, if not the best, bred horse for general purposes."

The following is from the Boston Spirit of the Hub:

"Chief" was a favorite in the 250 class and paid his backers well. He is a brown gelding, stands 15 1/2 hands high, sired by All Right, the sire of George Lee, 234.

Summary.

Lawrence Mass., May 29, 1890, purse $200, 250 class: Chief, b.g. by All Right, Ch Yapp, 1 1 1; Owassa, blk s, Mosher, 2 2 2; John F. by G, D W Parker, 3 3 3; Mollie H, ch m, J Y G yz at m, 4 4 4.

The race referred to took place at Lawrence, Mass., on the 29th May.

A FREE TRIP TO EUROPE.—The publishers of The Canadian Queen will give a free trip to Europe to the person sending them the largest number of words constructed from letters contained in the name of their well-known magazine, The Canadian Queen.

BROKE JAIL.—The Agriculturist says: The prisoner Waite, who is serving a term of two months in jail at Summerside for assault, made a break for liberty last Friday afternoon.

SOALDED TO DEATH.—One day last week a three-year-old son of Thomas Grace, Berwick, N. S., fell into a boiler of hot water which had been set off the stove for a few minutes, and was scalded so severely that he died shortly after.

The Markets.

BOSTON, June 5.

Receipts of potatoes for past six days, 46,000 bush; previous six days, 51,000. There is now but little domestic old stock on the market, and the small consignments on hand are closing out at about former prices.

The arrivals of eggs continue quite liberal and the supply offering is fully equal to the wants of the trade. Prices are fairly sustained. The few strictly extra eastern received sell as a rule at 16 c.

The quotations for mackerel are as follows:

Mackerel, extra @ bbl. 16 00@..... No. 1.....16 00@..... No. 2.....16 00@..... No. 3 large rimmed.....00 00@..... No. 3 plain.....00 00@.....

Canned mackerel—1-lb tins, labelled, per doz. 1.75.... Canned Lobsters—1-lb tins, labelled, new per doz. 1.75....

Pork is a shade easier, and is selling slowly at the following quotations: Backs per bbl. $13 25 to 13 50 Short cut clear. 13 25 to 13 50 Clear. 13 00 to 13 25 Lean ends. 13 50 to 13 75 Mess. 13 50 Extra prime. 12 50

Lard is quiet, with prices about as last quoted.

Hams are in steady demand at following quotations:

Boston small, per lb. 10 1/2 to 11 Boston medium. 10 to 10 1/2 Boston large. 10 to 10 1/2 Western small. 11 to 11 1/2 Western medium. 10 1/2 to 10 3/4 Western large. 10 1/2 to 10 3/4 Fancy canvassed. 10 to 10 1/2

The quotations for beef are as follows: Mess. 7 00 to 7 50 Extra Mess. 7 50 to 8 00 Extra plate. 8 75 to 9 00 Plate. 8 25 to 8 50

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR.

A Charge Denied.

SIR,—One of the items of Saturday's issue, 31st ult., stated that you were requested to call police attention to a new drinking den on St. Peter's Road, near the Roman Catholic Cemetery. The item in itself would merely have occasioned to me the idea that such was being transacted around me of which I was ignorant; but, coupled with some remarks concerning my horse, that I am informed were uttered by a certain bellicose fanatic of the neighborhood, I am convinced that I am the innocent victim of his misguided righteousness.

There has never been a glass of intoxicating drink sold in my house—a fact I defy anyone to disprove. Boys and men have been drunk about the fields and hedges before I came to live here; yet your informant, without proof, attempts to brand me as a lawbreaker and a man of debased character.

This libel, like the generality of its kind, is insidious. Afraid to state plainly what he knows to be a lie, your informant carefully abstains from mentioning my name, for British law still protects law-abiding citizens from such as him. Your informant is, in his own opinion, and perhaps in the opinion of his kind (happily they are few) a very devout christian, a church leader, a very angel in embryo. But I fear he is one of that class who make public denunciation of rum drinking their religion, and who, under the cloak of this comfortable creed (it is only adopted in public) are the most unchristian and degraded of men.

Henry C. Jordan, Ch'town, June 9th, 1890.

Mount Stewart Notes.

Many of the farmers of this vicinity have completed their seeding operations; but, owing to the continued cold weather, the hay crop is not as well advanced as it should have been.

Our enterprising villager, Mr. William Douglass, has made some good haul of gasperaux.

Mr. Egan's new brig (now on the stocks) is fast approaching completion, under the able superintendence of Mr. Fred. Douglass. Mr. Matthias Phelan has completed a first-class fishing boat, with which he intends this season to slaughter a large number of the finny tribe.

Personal.

Mrs. Langtry is suffering from pleurisy. Revs. P. A. McEneaney and J. McMillan left on a short visit to Quebec this morning.

Mrs. Morrow and Miss Edith Morrow, of Halifax, are visiting Charlottetown. They are the guests of Mrs. Carruthers at the manse.

Rev. James Carruthers and T. C. James, Esq., left this morning for Ottawa to attend the General Assembly of the Presbytery Church of Canada.

Mr. H. G. Watters representing Walker, Harper & Co., manufacturing millers of flour and oatmeal, Norwich, Ontario, is visiting the Province.

Mr. W. G. Schurman has been appointed Agent for the Quebec Steamship Company at Summerside in the place of his father who died recently.

Mr. J. C. Crosskill has taken a position on the staff of the Ambros Record and Gazette. Sir Charles Tupper, Canadian High Commissioner, has left England for Canada, to assist in the settlement of the Newfoundland fisheries trouble by advice and counsel.

Dr. McSwain, of Riverside, California, arrived here on Saturday evening from a trip to Europe. His many friends will be glad to know that the Doctor is in excellent health. He is the guest of his old friend, Mr. A. MacNeill, Hillsborough Park.

Telephoning for Haszard's Improved Turnip Seed, McDougall's Sheep Dip and Willett's Washers, &c.

HELLO, Charlottetown. Hello, Crapaud.

That you LePage? Yes. That you, Hudson & McQuarrie? Yes. We want you to ship us 300 lbs. of the "Genuine Haszard's Improved Turnip Seed, Glasgow House."

Farmers are done of that cheap bogus Haszard's done up in paste-board boxes, and what the other fellows try to shove off as Haszard's. I tell you we have learned our lesson on it too.

Three years ago, when you had that racket in the papers with the firm who sent it out in pasteboard boxes, we thought we would try it too. Holland & Cameron got it from us and came near writing us for $300 damages for loss of crop. Only for getting some of yours they would have had none for spring feeding. But say nothing about it now, as we have sold yours for seven years and never knew it to fail. The farmers here are now done with experimenting and are all solid in favor of yours, and instead of injuring you it has trebled your sales. Say, we will probably want 200 lbs. more by next Saturday's boat, also some of that McDougall's Sheep Dip. Bye, bye!

Bur-r-r-r! Bur-r-r-r! Hello! Who's there?

His from O'Leary. I've been waiting till that fellow got through. I just heard what he had to say and it will save me a lot of talk, as all your agents up here have had the same experience as he had, and they order through me as follows:—Platts & Shaw, Tignish, 100 lbs.; Wilkison, Alberton, 150 lbs.; Birch, Port Hill, 60 lbs., and send me 200 lbs. Farmers here are now satisfied that yours is the only genuine, and wanted me to telephone you the results of testing yours with others, but the orders speak for them.

They always thought "Haszard's" marked on any package was all right, but now want your name and "Glasgow House" and will have no other. O, say! I send 100 of those Willett Washers. There was 25 or 30 sold up in this County. The women have gone clean wild over them and cannot keep them home, as everyone wants to borrow them. Also, some American Empire Wringers and Daisy Churns. Send a lot to each agent quick, as all other Wringers go out of gear and black the clothes with oil, and would take a horse power to turn them. People are only now beginning to find out what the Empire's. Don't forget to send 500 tins of McDougall's celebrated Sheep Dip. Ordered by mail. Bye, bye!

Bur-r-r-r! Bur-r-r-r! Hello, Andrew Mooney, Little Harbor. Are you going to tear the telephone down? Yes, if you don't send me the same amount of Haszard's Turnip Seed, Washers, Wringers and Churns by next train, sure. No time to talk now. These fellows said about what I had to say, and I am rushing Seeders and Harrows. Bye, bye.

Bur-r-r-r! Hello, A. McDonald Bros., Georgetown. Send Haszard's Turnip Seed, lot of Turnip Drills and Sheep Dip by next train. McDougall's is the best yet.

Bur-r-r-r! Hello, Capt. Bissett, Cardigan. Send Sheep Dip, Washers and Drills, etc., quick. Can sell no other.

Bur-r-r-r! Hello, Patrick Kelly, Nantague. Send a lot more to me. I am sold right out. Bogus is all played out here.

Bur-r-r-r! Hello, Summerside. Brace & McKay and F.W. Strong & Co., here want their supplies quick.

Bur-r-r-r! Hello, Schurman, Freetown. Ship Bowness & Anderson usual supply of Haszard's Drills and Sheep Dip, etc.; also Wedlock, Stanley Bridge; Gay Smallwood, Bradabane; Abe Schurman, North Bedouque, and Craig & Lewis here; Alex. L'vird, 15 lbs. Also, fill other orders mailed. All bogus is settled now and forever. More orders to-night by mail. Everything booming. Bye, bye.

Bur-r-r-r! Hello, Central! Time is up, and twenty-seven farmers waiting to telephone for Haszard's Turnip Seed and Sheep Dip!

All right! Tell them to get it from agents, or mail money and order and we will send it to them. June 9
